Gretchen Wolff Pritchard, 2000-01-01 Here are three different Christmas pageants complete with music staging directions scenery and costume suggestions plus pointers about how to organize your event The pageants are for grades K 8 but one also calls for adults and teens The first pageant is a traditional Nativity play with carols the second is an adaptation in verse in the style of medieval mystery plays and the third is a dramatized service of lessons and carols with Eucharist Some churches adopt one pageant as an annual production others try a different one each year Pageant 1 Good News of Great Joy This is the simplest pageant in concept and uses the Isaiah text of the prophecies with scenes of the Annunciation the arrival at Bethlehem the shepherds and the Magi It is intended to replace the sermon or Liturgy of the Word or stand alone Pageant 2 A Child of Might This production is based on medieval mystery plays with static staging that is easier than in pageant 1

However it does use archaic English and requires memorization. It does not include the Magi but introduces several characters not usually found in other pageants. Pageant 3 People Look East This version presents a dramatized service of Lessons and Carols for Advent and Christmas. It features nine scripture readings each followed by a carol or hymn with performance options. Children mime the readings. It is intended to be an entire Sunday liturgy. Includes communion. Go Tell It On the Mountain is also available as a downloadable product on the Church Publishing website.

The Church at Worship Joseph DeGrocco, 2013 Parishes will find The Church at Worship to be an ideal formation resource as we celebrate the 50th anniversary of the promulgation of the Constitution of the Sacred Liturgy. In The Church at Worship Monsignor Joseph DeGrocco helps students of liturgy whether in the classroom, the liturgy committee or on the parish staff understand the spirituality and theology of the liturgy. As Monsignor Kevin W. Irwin notes in the foreword, the author guides us to view the liturgy from the inside to allow its words, texts, signs and gestures to speak to us and for us. From this view, readers are able to see how participation in the liturgy is to be internal and external at the same time. DeGrocco relates that such participation changes us to be at service to the world to build up the kingdom of God. This book is written in short, readable sections that contain discussion questions and suggestions for further reading. Written in such a way, it accommodates both the classroom and the parish. Parishes will find The Church at Worship helpful in the formation of the parish liturgy committee and for deepening the understanding of the liturgy among parish staff. As the material deals with the general and specific aspects of celebrating ritual, it is immediately relevant to the life of the parish. Suggested reading refers the audience to the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, other documents of the Second Vatican Council and the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

Bulletin Inserts for the Liturgical Life of the Parish Paul Turner, 2020-01-13 This product contains 79 bulletin inserts which unpack various aspects and customs of the different sacramental rites.
