Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature, 1917 Rethinking Debussy Elliott Antokoletz, Marianne Wheeldon, 2011 This text draws together separate areas of Debussy research into perspective to reveal the significance of the composer's music and thought in relation to the broader cultural intellectual and artistic issues of the 20th century Fluid Russia Vera Michlin-Shapir, 2021-12-15 Fluid Russia offers a new framework for understanding Russian national identity by focusing on the impact of globalization on its formation something which has been largely overlooked This approach sheds new light on the Russian case revealing a dynamic Russian identity that is developing along the lines of other countries exposed to globalization Vera Michlin Shapir shows how along with the freedoms afforded when Russia joined the globalizing world in the 1990s came globalization's disruptions Michlin Shapir describes Putin's rise to power and his project to reaffirm a stronger identity not as a uniquely Russian diversion from liberal democracy but as part of a broader phenomenon of challenges to globalization She underlines the limits of Putin's regime to shape Russian politics and society which is still very much impacted by global trends As well Michlin Shapir questions a prevalent approach in Russia studies that views Russia's experience with national identity as abnormal or defective either being too weak or too aggressive What is offered is a novel explanation for the so called Russian identity crisis As the liberal postwar order faces growing challenges Russia's experience can be an instructive example of how these processes unfold This study ties Russia's authoritarian politics and nationalist rallying to the shortcomings of globalization and neoliberal economics potentially making Russia patient zero of the anti globalist populist wave and rise of neo authoritarian regimes In this way Fluid Russia contributes to the broader understanding of national identity in the current age and the complexities of identity formation in the global world Billboard, 2005-02-05 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends Franz Liszt's Music Manuscripts in the National Széchényi Library, Budapest Mária Eckhardt (musicologue), Országos Széchényi Könyvtár, 1986 The Music Division of the National Széchényi Library Budapest houses 78 music manuscripts and scores with all or part of each penned in the hand of Franz Liszt one of Hungary's most prominent native sons The library is the primary Hungarian public collection of Liszt's works and is among the world's most comprehensive This book details the collection classifying the works as i Liszt's compositions autograph manuscripts manuscript copies proof sheets or printed copies with
