Ruth Ellis My Mother:

Ruth Ellis, My Mother Georgie Ellis,Rod Taylor,1996-02 On July 13 1955 Ruth Ellis was hanged for the murder of the lover who jilted her motor racing driver David Blakely Forty years on her only surviving child Georgie recalls her mother's tragic life that culminated in the murder for which she was executed She tells it with the insight and intimate knowledge that only a daughter could have supported by family reminiscences and photographs Ruth Ellis, My Mother Georgie Ellis,Rod Taylor,1995 The Mother in Psychoanalysis and Beyond Rosalind Mayo,Christina Moutsou,2016-10-04 The question of what it means to be a mother is a very contentious topic in psychoanalysis and in wider society The Mother in Psychoanalysis and Beyond explores our relationship to the maternal through psychoanalysis philosophy art and political and gender studies Over two years a group of psychotherapists and members of the public met at the Philadelphia Association for a series of seminars on the Maternal In the discussions that followed a chasm opened up slowly and painfully between the idealised longings and fantasies we all share and the realities of maternal experiences here were met the great silences of love loss longing memories desire hatred and ambivalence This book is the result of this bringing together in conversation and reflections of what so often seems unsayable about the Mother It examines how issues of personal and gender identity are shaped by the ideals of separation from the mother the fears and anxiety of merging with the mother and how this has often led in psychoanalysis and society to holding mothers responsible for a variety of personal and social ills and problems in which maternal vulnerability is denied and silenced There are two main themes running throughout the book Matricide and Maternal Subjectivity On the theme of matricide several contributors discuss the ways in which the discourse and narratives of the Mother have been silenced on a sociocultural level and within psychoanalysis and philosophy in favour of discourses that promote independence autonomy power and the avoidance and denial of our fundamental helplessness and vulnerability On the theme of maternal subjectivity several chapters look at the actual experience of mothering and our relationship to our mother to highlight the ways in which the maternal is intimately connected with human subjectivity The Mother in Psychoanalysis and Beyond provides new and provocative thinking about the maternal and its place in various contemporary discourses It will appeal to psychoanalysts psychotherapists and psychologists of different schools scholars and advanced students of art gender studies politics and philosophy as well as anyone interested in maternity studies and the relationship between the maternal and human subjectivity A Fine Day for a Hanging Carol Ann Lee,2012-09-06 NOW A MAJOR TV SERIES A CRUEL LOVE STARRING LUCY BOYNTON COMING SOON TO ITV Ruth Ellis was hanged for the murder of her lover despite huge public outcry and became the last woman to be executed in Britain Against the backdrop of the glamorous 1950s club scene this is the real Ruth Ellis story a tragic true tale of murder class love and betrayal A forensically researched book that casts a haunting new light on the last woman to be hanged in Britain Daily Mail In 1955 former nightclub manageress Ruth Ellis shot dead her lover David Blakely Following a trial that lasted less than two days she was found guilty and sentenced to death She became the last woman to be hanged in Britain and her execution is the most notorious of hangman Albert Pierrepont's duties Despite Ruth's infamy the story of her life has never been fully told Often wilfully misinterpreted the reality behind the headlines was buried by an avalanche of hearsay But now through new interviews and comprehensive research into previously unpublished sources Carol Ann Lee examines the facts without agenda or sensation A portrait of the era and an evocation of 1950s club life in all its seedy glamour A Fine Day for a Hanging sets Ruth's gripping story firmly in its historical context in order to tell the truth about both her timeless crime and a punishment that was very much of its time Bombshells Shar Daws,2020-03-27 Jean Harlow the Godmother of Blondes lit the torch for the blonde bombshell creating an image and persona that would be passed on for generations to come Jean's life was cut tragically short at the age of 26 but the flame reignited in the 1950s with the most notorious blondes of all time Ruth Ellis Marilyn Monroe Jayne Mansfield and Diana Dors Each left a legacy that has ensured the fire will never be completely extinguished affecting not only individual lives but society across a world stage From Marilyn's stardom and Diana's unwavering integrity to Ruth's tragic status as the last woman hanged in Britain all of these women experienced success and tragedy love and heartbreak and attention both positive and negative Bombshells examines these five exceptional women in the context of the 1950s the expectations and constrictions society had at the time and how they pushed through barriers and paved the way for the real sexual revolution The Latter-Day Saints' Millennial Star,1865 Murder Houses of Greater London Jan Bondeson,2015-06-28 Which of Greater London's most gruesome murders happened in your street And were they committed by Graham Frederick Young the poisoner of the North Circular Road by the murderous Donald Hume or by that monster Dennis Nilsen Sometimes quiet suburban terraces hide the most terrible secrets Read about the Hampstead Triangle home to a surprising number of celebrated murders as well as another triangle of violent deaths in Kensal Rise and ponder some very mysterious unsolved murders Armed with this book and a good London map you will be able to do some murder house detection work of your own North London Murders Geoffrey Howse,2012-02-29 Over the centuries North London has witnessed literally thousands of murders those included within the pages of this book have shocked fascinated and enthralled the public and commentators for generations From Britain's first railway murder a case that turned on the evidence provided by a distinctive style of hat to the appalling story of two Islington woman convicted after disposing of babies in their care these are crimes that both horrified and captivated the public No volume covering the murders of this part of London would be complete without an examination of the Crippen case the name of Frederick Henry Seddon hanged for poisoning Miss Eliza Barrow is now less well known although for several decades his waxwork effigy was a popular exhibit at Madame Tussaud's Chamber of Horrors and his story is an extraordinary one Among other cases included here North London Murders also re-examines the crimes of serial bride killer George Joseph Smith the tragic story of Ruth Ellis and David Blakely and the killing of Joe Orton by Kenneth Halliwell Homicide, Gender and Responsibility Kate

Fitz-Gibbon, Sandra Walklate, 2016-03-22 The crime of homicide has long animated academic debate community concern and political attention The discussion has often centered on the perceived inadequacy of legal responses to homicide questions of culpability and divergent representations of victims and offenders Within this notions of gender responsibility and justice are pivotal This edited collection builds on existing scholarship by examining these concerns not only in the context of the private world of domestic murder but also in the more public world of the state the corporation war and genocide In so doing this book draws from key frameworks of criminological thought legal analysis and empirical evidence to critically examine the relationship between homicide gender and responsibility Bringing together leading international criminology and legal scholars this collection provides a unique contribution to the academic and policy engagement with what is more often than not an ordinary and mundane crime Analysing the crime in a variety of different social contexts alongside an in depth and critical analysis of the interconnections between the ordinary act of lethal violence gender and notions of responsibility this book will be of interest to students scholars and policymakers working in criminology and socio legal studies

Dead Woman Walking Anette Ballinger, 2019-05-24 This title was first published in 2000 Between 1900 and 1950 130 women were sentenced to death for murder in England and Wales Only 12 of these women were actually executed Thus 91 per cent of women murderers had their sentence commuted whereas if we examine the corresponding figures for men only 39 per cent had their sentence commuted It would appear that state servants working within the criminal justice system were far more reluctant to hang women than men However this text argues that a closer examination of this apparent discrepancy reveals it to be a misconception which has come about as a result of the statistics regarding infanticide That is to say unlike men the vast majority of women murderers have killed their own child or children Once this is taken into account we find that women who had murdered an adult had less hope of a reprieve than men Thus the author shows that the large proportion of women murderers as killers of their own children has created a false impression of how female murderers fared inside the criminal justice system

Healing Your Ancestral Patterns David Furlong, 2014 Healing imbalances in our family patterns is crucial to health and wellbeing In this book international healer David Furlong explains the relevance of our ancestors to the healing process He shows how the character and experiences of our parents grandparents and great grandparents shape our lives in all sorts of subtle ways and stress the importance of healing the patterns from past generations which continue to affect us today By learning to connect with these energies from the past we can free up and balance their impact on our lives and of future generations

Greater London Murders Linda Stratmann, 2012-02-29 This compendium brings together thirty three murderous tales one from each of the capital's boroughs that not only shocked the City but made headline news across the country Throughout its history the great urban sprawl of Greater London has been home to some of the most shocking murders in England many of which have made legal history Contained within the pages of this book are the stories behind these heinous crimes They include George Chapman who was hanged in 1903 for poisoning three women and whom is widely suspected of having been the notorious serial killer Jack the Ripper lovers Edith Thompson and Frederick Bywaters executed for stabbing to death Thompson's husband Percy in 1922 and Donald Hume who was found not guilty of the murder of wealthy businessman Stanley Setty in 1949 but later confessed to killing him chopping up his body and disposing of it by aeroplane Linda Stratmann also reveals previously unpublished information that sheds a whole new light on the infamous Craig and Bentley case This carefully researched well illustrated and enthralling text will appeal to those interested in the history of Greater London's history and true crime fans alike THE LATTERS-DAY SAINTS'

MILLENNIAL STAR, 1865 I'll Tell Me Ma Brian Keenan, 2011-05-31 Local rather than international the dramas and privations described in this memoir are not the stuff of headlines This is the story of an ordinary boy growing up in Belfast after the war an ordinary boy who would go on to become world famous as a hostage in Beirut and author of the extraordinary testimony of imprisonment and survival that was An Evil Cradling Brian Keenan has captured the vanished world of 1950s Belfast in all its vivid vernacular and grey post war austerity I'll Tell Me Ma is an affectionate story of a disaffected childhood At the centre is a shy self conscious boy of unusual moral integrity a boy puzzled by religion and sectarianism in love with books and music and full of curiosity about the world outside It is also a book about coming to terms with the past a resounding thrilling record of redemption The Historical Film Marcia Landy, 2001-01-01 This aims to show how media critics and historians have written about history as portrayed in cinema and television by historical films and documentaries focusing on what it means to read films historically and the colonial experience as shown in post colonial film Kalooki Nights Howard Jacobson, 2008-04-22 Longlisted for the 2006 Man Booker Prize and hailed by The Times London as Ra work of genius S Jacobson's exquisitely written audaciously funny novel explores the countless questions of postwar Jewish identity The Life and Times of a Teenage Scribbler John David Keith Richards, 2024-10-29 Growing up in Roath Park Cardiff John Richards never envisaged a career in the cut throat corporate City London the world renowned hub of trading retail and financial marketing Spending his childhood obsessed with trainspotting music and girls John had no aspirations to become a player in the arena of stocks and retail But through a combination of luck hard work and happy accidents he found himself in the esoteric world of stockbroking The path of John's career moved into retail analysis and his experience provides a highly engaging and insightful account of the machinations and vicissitudes faced by some of today's most eminent retailers as they struggled to establish themselves in the ever evolving twentieth century Progression in Secondary Drama Andy Kempe, Marigold Ashwell, 2000 This text uses practical strategies and lesson ideas to show teachers how to help students progress It also contains a section on using drama effectively to improve students literacy Injured Parties Monica Weller, 2016-05-02 On 9 November 1966 popular GP Dr Helen Davidson was battered to death in dense woodland while birdwatching and exercising her dog a few miles from her Buckinghamshire home Her body was found the next day her eyes having been pushed into her skull She had binoculars round her neck spied illicit lovers was spotted and one or both of them killed her surmised Detective Chief Superintendent Jack Razor Williams of New Scotland Yard He had received fifty police commendations in his career yet not one for a murder enquiry Unsurprisingly within weeks the police operation was wound down Williams retired and another cold case hit the statistics Fifty years later amateur sleuth and author Monica Weller set about solving the murder without the help of the prohibited files As she sifted the evidence a number of suspects and sinister motives began to emerge it was clear it was not a random killing after all Weller uncovered secret passions deep jealousies unusual relationships and a victim with a dark past Her persistence and dedication were dramatically rewarded when she uncovered the identity of the murderer revealed here for the first time We Don't Need Another Wave Melody Berger, 2010-02-24 We Don't Need Another Wave is a critique of the ways in which feminism is discussed in the mainstream media Today's young feminists are wary of being labeled They are media savvy hyper aware of being categorized and marginalized and are here to tell the world that feminists are feminists diverse in age and experience and that it's time to drop the labels in favor of proactive agendas and united goals Topics that matter to young feminists range from lighter issues such as DIY culture and craftivism to heavy hitting issues that feminists have struggled with for generations including abuse rape shame and self hatred The young writers in this collection band together under the banner of feminism to share the message that the F word is a good thing and that feminists are breaking new ground while still valuing the traditions and achievements of their sisters and foremothers We Don't Need Another Wave brings a message of unity and a message to get beyond subcategorizing a movement that needs cohesiveness and strives on strength in numbers
