This book examines how the transcultural and transnational migration of people, texts and ideas has transformed the paradigm of national literature with Britain and Ireland as case studies. The study questions definitions of migration and migrant literature that focus solely on the work of authors with migrant backgrounds and suggests that migration is not extraneous but intrinsic to contemporary understandings of national literature in a global context. The fictional work of authors such as Caryl Phillips, Colum McCann, Abdulrazak Gurnah, Rose Tremain, Elif Shafak and Evelyn Conlon is analysed from a variety of perspectives including transculturality, cosmopolitanism and Afropolitanism so as to emphasise how their work fosters an understanding of national literature as well as of individual and collective identities based on transborder interconnectivity. "Beginning to Begin" Idries Shah, 2002. Shah deals here with aspects of Sufi material and the psychology of his readership which underline the unique way in which Sufi studies should be approached. The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1900. The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance, 1923. The Pleasantries of the Incredible Mulla Nasrudin Idries Shah, 1983. Here Nasrudin's anecdotes are seen to be parallel to the mind's working designed to amuse the tea house but also intended for use on other levels. The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1930. American Economist, 1897. Handbook of Popular Literature Deepali Borthakur, 2021-01-01.
