Instructional Strategies for Braille Literacy Diane P. Wormsley, Frances Mary D'Andrea, 1997 This award winning handbook gives teachers specific strategies and methodologies for teaching braille. It offers in depth information on techniques for working with children at all levels of learning with congenital or adventitious visual impairments, those with additional disabilities, and students who are just learning English. It also contains information on assessment and technology as well as convenient assessment forms. Instructional Strategies offers a wealth of information and practical tips for new practitioners and seasoned professionals alike.

Cultural Journeys Pamela S. Gates, Dianne L. Hall Mark, 2010-08-16 As multicultural education is becoming integral to the core curriculum, teachers often implement this aspect into their courses through literature. However, standards and criteria to teach and promote active discussion about this literature are sparse. Cultural Journeys introduces pre-service and experienced teachers to the use of literature to promote active discussions that lead students to think about racial diversity. More than just an annotated list of books for children, Pamela S. Gates and Dianne L. Hall Mark provide systematic guidelines that teachers can use throughout their careers to evaluate multicultural literature for students in grades K-8. At the same time, the text leads the reader to a deeper understanding of how to use multicultural literature throughout the entire curriculum and not just during specially designated months or time periods. With the example unit plans and extensive annotated bibliography, this book is a valuable resource that pre-service teachers will utilize when they begin teaching and in-service teachers will reference repeatedly during their planning periods.

Voices from the Margins Marilyn Ward, 2002-07-30 Young people who feel marginalized due to physical differences or disabilities may benefit from discovering fictional characters who face similar difficulties. This unique bibliography surveys the field of children's and young adult literature published since 1990, identifying 200 quality books that deal with a wide range of contemporary health and self-image topics. Coverage includes physical handicaps, Autism, burns, scars, and disfigurement, obesity, and anorexia, speech disorders, skin color, and basic issues of popularity and fitting in. The literature covered here includes picture books, chapter books for middle school readers, and young adult novels spanning different genres such as mysteries, historical fiction, and poetry. Annotations provide brief plot synopses, full bibliographic information, publishers, age level suggestions, and subject key words. This resource is perfect for obtaining information about authors, titles, and age levels of books on particular subjects or to determine the subject of a particular book. Four indexes: Title, Author, Subject, and Age Level facilitate easy reference for all users and readers.

Collecting for the Curriculum Amy J. Catalano, 2015-09-28 If you're a librarian charged with collecting curriculum materials and children's literature to support the Common Core State Standards, then this book is the only one that offers explicit advice on collection development in curriculum collections. It is for you. While there are many publications on the Common Core for school librarians and K-12 educators, no such literature exists for curriculum librarians at the post-secondary level. This book fills that gap, standing alone as a guide to collection development for curriculum librarians independent of the Common Core State Standards CCSS The book provides instruction and guidance to curriculum librarians who acquire and manage collections so you can develop a collection based on best practices The book begins with a primer on the CCSS and how curriculum librarians can support them Discussion of the Standards is then woven through chapters arranged by content area that share research based practices in curriculum development and instruction to guide you in curriculum selection Material types covered include games textbooks children s literature primary sources counseling and nonfiction Additional chapters cover the management of curriculum collections testing collections and instruction and reference as well as how to support and collect for special needs learners Current practices in collection development for curriculum materials librarians are also reviewed The book closes with a discussion of the future of curriculum materials

Many Peoples, One Land Alethea K. Helbig, Agnes Regan Perkins, 2000-10-30 Celebrating the wealth of quality multicultural literature recently published for children and young adults this valuable resource examines the fiction oral tradition and poetry from four major ethnic groups in the United States Each of these genres is considered in turn for the literature dealing with African Americans Asian Americans Hispanic Americans and Native American Indians Taking up where their earlier volume This Land is Our Land left off Helbig and Perkins have teamed up once again to identify and expertly evaluate more than 500 multicultural books published from 1994 through 1999 Both considered authorities in the field of children s literature the two of them personally selected read and evaluated all the books included here Their insightful annotations help readers carefully consider both literary standards such as plot development characterization and style as well as cultural values as they are represented in these cited works Each entry also indicates the suggested age and grade level appropriateness of the work With the proliferation and ever increasing popularity of multicultural literature for children and young adults this sensitively written volume will serve as an invaluable collection development tool Teachers as well as librarians will find the comprehensiveness and organization of this bibliography helpful as a guide in selecting appropriate materials for classroom use Even students will find this book easy to use with its five indexes identifying works by title writer illustrator grade level and subject Public libraries and school media centers will find much use for Many Peoples One Land
