Shaping Of South African Society 1652 1840:

The Shaping of South African Society, 1652-1840. Richard Elphick, Hermann Giliomee, 2014-01-15 History is a powerful aid to the understanding of the present and those who are concerned with the escalating crisis in South Africa will find this an invaluable source book This is the story of the evolution of a society in which race became the dominant characteristic the primary determinant of status wealth and power Cultural chauvinism of the first European colonists primarily the Dutch merged with economic and demographic developments to create a society in which whites relegated all blacks free blacks Africans imported slaves to a systematic pattern of subordination and oppression that foreshadowed the apartheid of the twentieth century From the beginning of the nineteenth century the new empire builders the British reinforced the racial order In the next century and a half the industrialized South Africa would become firmly integrated into the world economy Published originally in South Africa in 1979 and updated and expanded now a decade later this book by twelve South African British Canadian Dutch and American scholars is the most comprehensive history of the early years of that troubled nation The authors put South Africa in the comparative context of other colonial systems Their social political and economic history is rich with empirical data and rests on a solid base of archival research The story they tell is a complex drama of a racial structure that has resisted hostile impulses from without and rebellion from within The Shaping of South African

Society, 1652-1820 Richard Elphick, 1979 The Shaping of South African Society, 1652-1840 Richard Elphick, Hermann Giliomee, James C. Armstrong, 1989 Updated edition of a 1979 book by 12 international authors on the early development of South Africa A social political and economic history of a racial structure that has resisted hostile impulses from without and rebellion from within Cloth edition 43 00 not seen Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Ideology and Landscape in Historical Perspective Alan R. H. Baker, Gideon Bigger, 2006-03-16 Landscapes of material are also landscapes of meaning In this book fifteen historical geographers examine landscapes as messages to be decoded as signs to be deciphered The essays are principally concerned with the ideologies of religion and of politics of Church and of state and their historical impress upon the landscape White Supremacy and Black Resistance in Pre-industrial South Africa Clifton C. Crais, 1992-01-09 This book provides an in depth analysis of the emergence of a racially divided society in pre industrial Southern Africa Jan Paerl, a Khoikhoi in Cape Colonial Society, 1761-1851 Russel Stafford Viljoen, 2006 In this biography of the Khoikhoi Jan Paerl 1761 1851 light is being shed on a new form of resistance against colonial domination in Cape society It emphasizes Khoikhoi colonial encounters and incorporates themes such as millenarian beliefs identities master servant relations indentured labour and the appropriation of mission Christianity Colonial frontiers Lynette Russell, 2017-03-01 Cross cultural encounters produce boundaries and frontiers This book explores the formation structure and maintenance of boundaries and frontiers in settler colonies The southern nations of Australia New Zealand and South Africa have a common military heritage as all three united to fight for the British Empire during the Boer and First

World Wars The book focuses on the southern latitudes and especially Australia and Australian historiography Looking at cross cultural interactions in the settler colonies the book illuminates the formation of new boundaries and the interaction between settler societies and indigenous groups It contends that the frontier zone is a hybrid space a place where both indigene and invader come together on land that each one believes to be their own The best way to approach the northern Cape frontier zone is via an understanding of the significance of the frontier in South African history The book explores some ways in which discourses of a natural prehistoric Aboriginality inform colonial representations of the Australian landscape and its inhabitants both indigenous and immigrant The missions of the London Missionary Society LMS in Polynesia and Australia are examined to explore the ways in which frontiers between British and antipodean cultures were negotiated in colonial textuality The role of the Treaty of Waitangi in New Zealand society is possibly the most important and controversial issue facing modern New Zealanders The book also presents valuable insights into sexual politics Aboriginal sovereignty economics of Torres Strait maritime and nomadism

Masters and Servants on the Cape Eastern Frontier, 1760-1803 Susan Newton-King, 1999-07-08 A history of the conquest and servitude of the Khoisan in the Cape eastern frontier

The Irish in the Atlantic World David T. Gleeson, 2012-11-16 A new vision of the Irish diaspora within the Atlantic context from the eighteenth century to the present The Irish in the Atlantic World presents a transnational and comparative view of the Irish historical and cultural experiences as phenomena transcending traditional chronological topical and ethnic paradigms Edited by David T Gleeson this collection of essays offers a robust new vision of the global nature of the Irish diaspora within the Atlantic context from the eighteenth century to the present and makes original inroads for new research in Irish studies These essays from an international cast of scholars vary in their subject matter from investigations into links between Irish popular music and the United States including the popularity of American blues music in Belfast during the 1960s and the influences of Celtic balladry on contemporary singer Van Morrison to a discussion of the migration of Protestant Orangemen to America and the transplanting of their distinctive non Catholic organizations Other chapters explore the influence of American politics on the formation of the Irish Free State in 1922 manifestations of nineteenth century temperance and abolition movements in Irish communities links between slavery and Irish nationalism in the formation of Irish identity in the American South the impact of yellow fever on Irish and black labor competition on Charleston s waterfront the fate of the Irish community at Saint Croix in the Danish West Indies and other topics These multidisciplinary essays offer fruitful explanations of how ideas and experiences from around the Atlantic influenced the politics economics and culture of Ireland the Irish people and the societies where Irish people settled Taken collectively these pieces map the web of connectivity between Irish communities at home and abroad as sites of ongoing negotiation in the development of a transatlantic Irish identity

Slavery In South Africa Elizabeth Eldredge, Fred Morton, 2019-05-28 South African slavery differs from slavery practiced in other frontier zones of European settlement in that the settlers enslaved indigenes as a supplement to and eventually as a replacement for imported slave labor On the expanding frontier Dutch speaking farmers increasingly met their labor needs by conducting slave raids arming African slave

South Africa, Past, Present and Future Tony Binns, Alan Lester, Etienne Nel, 2014-09-25 This is the first book to combine a discussion of post apartheid development initiatives with an extended historical analysis of South Africa's dynamic race class gender and ethnic identities Bringing together the research of an historical geographer and two development geographers the book enables us to locate the post apartheid transition in a broad historical and spatial perspective Within this perspective the limitations as well as the achievements of South Africa's current transformation are highlighted

The Oxford Handbook of the South African Economy Arkebe Oqubay, Fiona Tregenna, Imraan Valodia, 2021-11-18 While sharing some characteristics with other middle income countries South Africa is a country with a unique economic history and distinctive economic features It is a regional economic powerhouse that plays a significant role not only in southern Africa and in the continent but also as a member of BRICS However there has been a lack of structural transformation and weak economic growth and South Africa faces the profound triple challenges of poverty inequality and unemployment Any meaningful debate about economic policies to address these challenges needs to be informed by a deep understanding of historical developments robust empirical evidence and rigorous analysis of South Africa's complex economic landscape This volume seeks to provide a wide ranging set of original detailed and state of the art analytical perspectives that contribute to scientific knowledge as well as to well informed and productive discourse on the South African economy While concentrating on the more recent economic issues facing South Africa the handbook also provides historical and political context It offers an in depth examination of strategic issues in the country's key economic sectors and brings together diverse analytical perspectives

The Atlantic World D'Maris Coffman, Adrian Leonard, William O'Reilly, 2014-12-05 As the meeting point between Europe colonial America and Africa the history of the Atlantic world is a constantly shifting arena but one which has been a focus of huge and vibrant debate for many years In over thirty chapters all written by experts in the field The Atlantic World takes up these debates and gathers together key original scholarship to provide an authoritative survey of this increasingly popular area of world history The book takes a thematic approach to topics including exploration migration and cultural encounters In the first chapters scholars examine the interactions between groups which converged in the Atlantic world such as slaves European migrants and Native Americans The volume then considers questions such as finance money and commerce in the Atlantic world as well as warfare government and religion The collection closes with chapters examining how ideas circulated across and around the Atlantic and beyond It presents the Atlantic as a shared space in which commodities and ideas were exchanged and traded and examines the impact that these exchanges had on both people and places Including an introductory essay from the editors which defines the field and lavishly illustrated with paintings drawings and maps this accessible volume is invaluable reading for all students and scholars of this broad sweep of world history and Native Landscapes in Rural South Africa, 1850 - 1913 Lindsay F. Braun, 2014-10-16 In Colonial Survey and Native Landscapes in Rural South Africa 1850 1913 Lindsay Frederick Braun explores the technical processes and struggles surrounding the creation and maintenance of boundaries and spaces in South Africa in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The precision of surveyors and other colonial technicians lent these enterprises an illusion of irreproachable objectivity and authority even though the reality was far messier Using a wide range of archival and printed materials from survey departments repositories and libraries the author presents two distinct episodes of struggle over lands and livelihoods one from the Eastern Cape and one from the former northern Transvaal These cases expose the contingencies contests and negotiations that fundamentally shaped these changing South African landscapes

Language and Social History Rajend Mesthrie, 1995

Imagining the Cape Colony David Johnson, 2013-09-19 By returning to a pivotal moment in South African history the Cape Colony in the period 1770 1830 this book addresses current debates about nationalism colonialism and neo colonialism and postcolonial post apartheid culture

An Archaeology of Colonial Identity Gavin Lucas, 2006-10-31 The book explores three key groups The Dutch East India Company the free settlers and the slaves through a number of archaeological sites and contexts With the archaeological evidence the book examines how these different groups were enmeshed within racial sexual and class ideologies in the broader context of capitalism and colonialism and draws extensively on current social theory in particular post colonialism feminism and Marxism

Converting Colonialism Dana L. Robert, 2008-01-02 Series Studies in the History of Christian Missions SHCM In this volume leading historians of Christianity in the non Western world examine the relationship between missionaries and nineteenth century European colonialism and between indigenous converts and the colonial contexts in which they lived Forced to operate within a political framework of European expansionism that lay outside their power to control missionaries and early converts variously attempted to co opt certain aspects of colonialism and to change what seemed prejudicial to gospel values These contributors are the leading historians in their fields and the concrete historical situations that they explore show the real complexity of missionary efforts to convert colonialism Contributors J F Ade Ajayi Roy Bridges Richard Elphick Eleanor Jackson Daniel Jeyaraj Andrew Porter Dana L Robert R G Tiedemann C Peter Williams

Grammars of Colonialism Rachael Gilmour, 2006-10-10 The study of languages was crucial to colonial power in 18th and 19th century South Africa This important book examines representations of the South African Bantu languages Xhosa and Zulu revealing the ways in which colonial linguistics contributed to both the making of the colonial order and to instabilities at the heart of the project

Afrikaners and the Boundaries of Faith in Post-Apartheid South Africa Annika Björnsdotter Teppo, 2021-09-30 This book examines the shifting moral and spiritual lives of white Afrikaners in South Africa after apartheid The end of South Africa s apartheid system of racial and spatial segregation sparked wide reaching social change as social cultural spatial and racial boundaries were transgressed and transformed This book investigates how Afrikaners have mediated the country s shifting boundaries within the realm of religion For instance one in every three Afrikaners used these new freedoms to leave the traditional Dutch Reformed Church NGK often for an entirely new religious affiliation within the Pentecostal or Charismatic churches or New Religious Movements such as Wiccan neopaganism Based on long term ethnographic fieldwork in the Western Cape area the book investigates what spiritual life after racial totalitarianism means for the members of the ethnic group that constructed and maintained that very totalitarianism Ultimately the book asks how these new Afrikaner religious practices contribute to social solidarity and integration in a persistently segregated society and what they can tell us about racial relations in the country today This book will be of interest to scholars of religious studies social and cultural anthropology and African studies
