Manliness and Morality J. A. Mangan,James Walvin,1987 Masculinity & Morality Larry May,1998 Examines the relationship between masculinity and moral responsibility with emphasis on group oriented issues 'Manufactured'

Masculinity J. A. Mangan,2014-01-02 Manufactured Masculinity should be considered essential reading for scholars in the humanities and social sciences at every level and in all parts of the academic world It weaves together brilliantly the elements of the manufacture of masculinity in the period world famous public school system for the privileged which serviced the largest empire the world has ever known at the zenith of its control and which has had a significant influence in the formation of the modern world This authoritative study of the making of British imperial masculinity shines light on the period of Muscular Christianity Social Darwinism and Militarism as meshed ideological instruments of both power and persuasion This magisterial study reveals the extraordinary and paramount influence of games fields as the machine tools in an industrial process with the schools as workshops containing cultural conveyor belts for the production of robust committed and confident servants of empire and templates for imperial reproduction in imperial possessions Mainly on efficient production belt playing fields of the privileged minds were moulded attitudes were constructed and bodies shaped for imperial manhood Earlier manliness was metamorphosized morality was redefined and militarism at the high point of imperial grandeur was an adjunct Professor Mangan outlines this unique process of cultural conditioning with a unique range of evidence and analysis This book was published as a special double issue of the International Journal of the History of Sport

Spectres of Masculinity Anna S. Berger,2025-10-31 Why are so many ghost stories narrated by men and what do these tales reveal about ideas of masculinity Anna S Berger explores how Victorian and Edwardian supernatural fiction reflects anxieties around imperial decline compulsive heterosexuality domestic instability and shifting gender roles From haunted houses to colonial outposts male protagonists face spectral challenges to the imperial masculine ideal paternal authority and male rational control By drawing on works by authors like Rudyard Kipling Elizabeth Gaskell and Arthur Conan Doyle this study reveals the ghost story as a site where normative masculinity falters and alternative visions of male identity emerge

The Evolution of Morality Charles Staniland Wake,1878 Sport, Militarism and the Great War Thierry Terret,J. A. Mangan,2013-09-13 The Great War has been largely ignored by historians of sport However sport was an integral part of cultural conditioning into both physiological and psychological military efficiency in the decades leading up to it It is time to acknowledge that the Great War also had an influence on sport in post war European culture Both are neglected topics Sport Militarism and the Great War deals with four significant aspects of the relationship between sport and war before during and immediately after the 1914 1918 conflict First it explores the creation and consolidation of the cult of martial heroism and chivalric self sacrifice in the pre war era Second it examines the consequences of the mingling of soldiers from various nations on later sport Third it considers the role of the Great War in the transformation of the leisure of the masses Finally it examines the links between war sport and male socialisation The Great War contributed to a redefinition of European masculinity in the post war period The part sport played in this redefinition receives attention Sport Militarism and the Great War is in two parts the Continental Part I and the Anglo Saxon Part II No study has adopted this bilateral approach to date Thus in conception and execution it is original With its originality of content and the approaching centenary of the advent of the Great War in 2014 it is anticipated that the book will capture a wide audience This book was originally published as a special issue of The International Journal of the History of Sport Manufacturing Masculinity Peter Horton, 2017 This tribute to Professor J A Tony Mangan is well deserved Professor Mangan is a path breaking scholar Mangan's impact is measurable in the rarest of ways institution building Under his leadership a globally situated team has opened a new relationship between sport and the academy and I recommend Manufacturing Masculinity The Mangan Oeuvre Global Reflections on J A Mangan's Studies of Masculinity Imperialism and Militarism as yet again it offers a unique consideration of the relationship between sport and academy Professor John D Kelly University of Chicago Professor Mangan has since the early 1980s been one of the foremost international scholars within his chosen field of cultural history Over this period he has possibly more convincingly than any other international academic shown in his research how much sport and associated forms of competitive performance have not only reflected and reproduced but indeed sometimes also reformed and redirected fundamental political cultural and social structures and ideological transformative forces in modern civilisation Professor Henrik Meinander University of Helsinki Professor Mangan is widely and greatly respected in China as a scholar of international distinction he has made both direct and indirect contributions to Chinese scholarship especially regarding Chinese women and their long struggle for emancipation Finally and I cannot stress this point too strongly a most important contribution has been his crystal clear and nuanced writing style much appreciated by Chinese who wish to write for the international scholastic world Professor Dong Jinxia Peking University No one has had a more influential role in or made a greater contribution to the cultural history of modern sport than Professor J A Mangan With his visionary pioneering monographs and many seminal edited collections and as founding editor of the series Sport in the Global Society with its numerous volumes and most especially as founding editor and editor of The International Journal of the History of Sport for some thirty years which he took from the original three numbers a year to eighteen numbers a year his contribution has been unparalleled Professor Roberta J Park University of California Berkeley Music in Nineteenth-Century Britain Rosemary Golding, 2022-08-15 This volume of primary source material examines music and society in Britain during the nineteenth century Sources explore religion politics class and gender The collection of materials are accompanied by an introduction by Rosemary Golding as well as headnotes contextualising the pieces This collection will be of great value to students and scholars Proceedings of the Annual Meeting Fire Underwriters' Association of the Northwest, 1883
