HENRY WOOD., 1798 Mrs Halliburton s Troubles is one of the less sensational novels written by Mrs Henry Wood which is to say that only half the characters have to contend with debt seduction murder roguery deception and that worst of all Victorian fates sinking below their class These are the troubles that beset those without the strength of will and sterling moral character of the novel s heroine the widowed Mrs Halliburton who supports her children with nothing more than unremitting labor and a belief in God Mrs Halliburton s iron will contrasts with the dissolute lifestyle of the Halliburtons cousins the Dares who suffer one scandal and disgrace after another In the end of course God helps only those who helped themselves Although she is all but forgotten in modern literary circles Mrs Henry Wood was one of the most famous novelists of the Victorian period with a sales record that rivaled Dickens Where Dickens portrayed social forces as well as characters however Wood emphasized the power of the individual For her Mrs Halliburton s poverty is an opportunity to explore the idea of character and the ways in which people determine their own fate In this Mrs Henry Wood anticipated the rags to riches novels of Horatio Alger
