Negotiating Survival:

Negotiating Survival Richard N. Gardner,1992 Negotiating Survival Ashley Jackson,2021-10 Two decades on from 9 11 the Taliban now control more than half of Afghanistan Few would have foreseen such an outcome and there is little understanding of how Afghans living in Taliban territory have navigated life under insurgent rule Based on over 400 interviews with Taliban and civilians this book tells the story of how civilians have not only bargained with the Taliban for their survival but also ultimately influenced the course of the war in Afghanistan While the Taliban have the power of violence on their side they nonetheless need civilians to comply with their authority Both strategically and by necessity civilians have leveraged this reliance on their obedience in order to influence Taliban behaviour Challenging prevailing beliefs about civilians in wartime Negotiating Survival presents a new model for understanding how civilian agency can shape the conduct of insurgencies It also provides timely insights into Taliban strategy and objectives explaining how the organisation has so nearly triumphed on the battlefield and in peace talks While Afghanistan s future is deeply unpredictable there is one certainty it is as critical as ever to understand the Taliban and how civilians survive their rule Negotiating Survival Ashley Jackson,2021-06-24 Two decades on from 9 11 the Taliban now control more than half of Afghanistan Few would have foreseen such an outcome and there is little understanding of how Afghans living in Taliban territory have navigated life under insurgent rule Based on over 400 interviews with Taliban and civilians this book tells the story of how civilians have not only bargained with the Taliban for their survival but also ultimately influenced the course of the war in Afghanistan While the Taliban have the power of violence on their side they nonetheless need civilians to comply with their authority Both strategically and by necessity civilians have leveraged this reliance on their obedience in order to influence Taliban behaviour Challenging prevailing beliefs about civilians in wartime Negotiating Survival presents a new model for understanding how civilian agency can shape the conduct of insurgencies It also provides timely insights into Taliban strategy and objectives explaining how the organisation has so nearly triumphed on the battlefield and in peace talks While Afghanistan s future is deeply unpredictable there is one certainty it is as critical as ever to understand the Taliban and how civilians survive their rule Negotiating for International Development Russell B. Sunshine,2024-12-16 Negotiating Survival Ashley Jackson,2021-09-30 Two decades on from 9 11 the Taliban now control more than half of Afghanistan Few would have foreseen such an outcome and there is little understanding of how Afghans living in Taliban territory have navigated life under insurgent rule Based on over 400 interviews with Taliban and civilians this book tells the story of how civilians have not only bargained with the Taliban for their survival but also ultimately influenced the course of the war in Afghanistan While the Taliban have the power of violence on their side they nonetheless need civilians to comply with their authority Both strategically and by necessity civilians have leveraged this reliance on their obedience in order to influence Taliban behaviour Challenging prevailing beliefs about civilians in wartime Negotiating Survival presents a new model for understanding how civilian agency can shape the conduct of insurgencies It also provides timely insights into Taliban strategy and objectives explaining how the organisation has so nearly triumphed on the battlefield and in peace talks While Afghanistan's future is deeply unpredictable there is one certainty it is as critical as ever to understand the Taliban and how civilians survive their rule Islam, Culture and Women in Asia Firdous Azim, 2013-10-18 An examination of the place of religion especially Islam in political and cultural life took on a special urgency after the events of 9 11 The essays in this volume concentrate on the way that Islam impacts on the everyday lives of people who reside in societies where Islam plays a large part The relationship between Islam and women has always been seen as problematic and by highlighting women's negotiations with this religion this volume seeks to understand the many and various strategies and connections that are made and their political and cultural ramifications By keeping an Asian focus the authors also seek to understand the wide panorama that Islamic societies inhabit and the manifold political and cultural expressions that ensue from this The effort is not only to break the image of a monolithic structure and set of beliefs but also to highlight on the ground negotiations and the ways that women in particular find spaces within Islamic structures and discourses This book was originally published as a special issue of Inter Asia Cultural Studies

A Virtuous Knight Craig Taylor (Historian), 2019 A radical re interpretation of the chivalric biography of Boucicaut The Livre des fais du bon messire Jehan le Maingre 1409 is one of the most famous chivalric biographies of the Middle Ages It presents Jean II Le Meingre known as Boucicaut 1366 1421 as an ideal knight and role model and has frequently been seen by modern scholars as a last ditch effort to defend traditional chivalric values that were supposedly in decline Here however Craig Taylor argues that the biography is a much more complex and interesting text fusing traditional notions of chivalry with the most fashionable new ideas in circulation at the French court at the start of the fifteenth century Rather than a nostalgic criticism of contemporary knighthood it should be seen as a showcase of the latest ideas on chivalry written to renew the enthusiasm of the great French princes for a man who was in grave danger of falling out of favour its purpose was to celebrate and to defend a beleaguered Boucicaut against his critics at the royal court and to explain his actions as governor of Genoa his failed crusading enterprises in the Eastern Mediterranean and his unsuccessful efforts to broker a solution to the Papal Schism CRAIG TAYLOR is a Reader in Medieval History at the University of York he was Director of its Centre for Medieval Studies from 2010 to 2011 and from 2014 to 2017

Fomerand,2009-07-29 Consisting of 192 Member States the United Nations was founded in 1945 to maintain international peace and security to develop friendly relations among nations based on the respect for the principle of equal rights and self determination of peoples to achieve international cooperation in solving problems of an economic social cultural or humanitarian character and encouraging respect for human rights and for fundamental freedoms for all without distinction as to race sex language or religion Just how successful the UN has been in maintaining these goals is covered in The A to Z of the United Nations Author Jacques Fomerand provides a comprehensive dictionary of nearly 900 cross referenced entries on the UN s various committees and organizations its leaders terms policies and major events in which the UN took part Supplementing the dictionary entries are a chronology an introduction a bibliography and appendixes which include a reproduction of the UN s Charter and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights as well as a list of the Member States and when they joined SON OF MAN Henry Carrier,2022-05-04 During his tenure as a college professor Dr Carrier taught political science and philosophy courses and travelled to over 30 different nations in Europe and East Asia Now an author who has retired to North Carolina s Outer Banks where he enjoys surf fishing and outrageous sunsets Carrier also has delved into reading non fiction He particularly admires authors Flannery O Connor Anton Chekhov and James Joyce whose short stories often deal with religious themes Fascinated with the universality of all religions Carrier is a committed but non denominational Christian who has been influenced by Catholic Protestant and Islamic worship His encounters with Hinduism and Buddhism from his time as a Fulbright Scholar to India also have left a lasting impression Readers of the Son of Man can glean the essence of Carrier s conclusions from a quote that Swiss Catholic priest author and theologian Hans Kung submitted at the request of Life magazine editors about the meaning of life Kung s quote and those from other world leaders were later published in the book The Meaning of Life Friend and the Editors of Life 1991 p 105 Kung s quote references this Ultimate and First Reality or what Carrier prefers to call the Divine Creator I have become convinced that in trusting this

Ultimate and First Reality I am also trusting that there is meaning to my life and death and to those of other human beings even if this all embracing meaning in the face of an appalling amount of foolishness in the world will often remain hidden In short I trust despite everything that with my life and your life ultimately something meaningful good and reasonable is intended From this perspective you might say that self realization is the meaning of life We are here to realize ourselves in order to become true human beings But I add from my own experience My own self realization must fail if it disregards the self realization of others My realization and others realizations are meaningful only if they are borne and determined by something that is more than ourselves Self realization rooted in the reality of God Himself This is promised us by the Judaic Christian Islamic tradition Shouldn t this suffice Hans Kung President of the Foundation for a Global Ethic former Director of the Institute for Ecumenical Research Tübingen Germany

Dirty Inspirations Terri Schneider, 2016-02-09 An exciting and inspirational account of the physical mental and emotional journey of an ultra endurance athlete Barry Siff President of USA Triathlon The search to find one s own limits and surpass them is what defines us as human beings By consciously choosing to walk the path of most resistance we come to a better understanding of ourselves and our potential for physical mental and emotional growth And nowhere is this universal journey better represented than in the crucible of extreme endurance sports where athletes are truly pushed beyond the bounds of what seems possible Direct from the trenches of ultra endurance racing and mountaineering Dirty Inspirations takes readers through environments as majestic as they are unforgiving all while presenting the unique perspective of a woman who has made it her life s work to exceed her limits From the brutal heat of the Sahara to the deep jungles of the Amazon and the awe inspiring peaks of Denali Terri Schneider s quest to find the answers to life s ultimate questions have taken her to the furthest reaches of the Earth Now readers have the chance to experience for themselves what can truly be accomplished when you reject common sense personal safety and preconceptions of what is possible Seen through the eyes of one of the most diversely experienced female endurance athletes on the planet the stories in Dirty Inspirations showcase discomfort as a virtue reinvigorating the life long athlete and providing encouragement to anyone looking to bring more action into their lives Part philosophical journey part spiritual awakening and part riveting drama the stories presented in Dirty Inspirations embody the incredible resiliency of the human body and the indomitable nature of the human spirit

Cultural Complexes in Australia Thomas Singer,2023-12-29 Cultural Complexes in Australia Placing Psyche is the first in a series of books that will explore the notion of cultural complexes in a variety of settings around the world The continent of Australia is the focus of this inaugural volume in which the contributors elucidate how the unique geography and peoples of Australia interact and interpenetrate to create the particular mindscapes of the Australian psyche While the cultural complexes of Australia are explored with a keen eye to the specificity of place history context and content at the same time it becomes obvious that these cultural complexes emerge out of an archetypal background that is not just Australian but global This volume shows how cultural complex theory itself mediates between the particularity of place and the universality of archetypal patterns

The Last Days of the Afghan Republic Arsalan Noori,Noah Coburn,2023-05-22 It is difficult to overstate the chaos of August 2021 for many of those in Afghanistan particularly those who had worked closely with the international community there In a matter of days U S troops withdrew from Afghanistan and an insurgency threw out a government the international community had spent 20 years and billions of dollars supporting A government that claimed to stand for women s rights freedom of the press education and a litany of other ideals was replaced by one that did not allow girls to attend secondary school The world watched for two weeks as crowds rushed the airport bodies fell from planes a suicide bomber killed civilians and soldiers and a baby was handed to a Marine over a barbed wire wall The agony of lives so clearly destroyed as people tried to flee their homeland with little to nothing felt like images seen in the wake of natural disasters But this was not a natural disaster It was completely avoidable Part memoir and part history The Last Days of the Afghan Republic tells this story through the experiences of Arsalan Fatima Zeinab and Najeeb a scholar a doctor a student and a translator These young men and women had bought into the promise of the international intervention that if they studied worked hard and believed in democracy and human rights Afghanistan could become a new country Their lives also tell the story of Afghanistan over the past thirty years They recount from the ground up the political decisions on the American side that led to the forever war the way that Afghan political partners squandered opportunities and the ways in which the U S presence unevenly reshaped Afghan society

Getting it Done Bertram Irwin Spector,I. William Zartman,2003 From NAFTA to NATO from the WTO to the WHO a vast array of international regimes manages an astounding number of regional and global problems Yet the dynamics of these enormously influential bodies are barely understood Scholars have scrutinized international regimes but that scrutiny has been narrowly focused on questions of regime formation and regime compliance Remarkably little attention has been paid to the crucial question of how regimes sustain themselves and evolve This pioneering work sets about correcting that neglect As its title suggests Getting It Done explores how international regimes accomplish their goals goals that constantly shift as problems change and the power of member states shifts In a series of conceptually bold opening chapters the volume editors emphasize that successful evolution depends above all on a process of continuous negotiation domestic as well as international in which norms principles and rules are modified as circumstances and interests change The second part of the volume takes this framework and applies it to four case studies two regional two global Each case study presents the aims achievements and structure of a regime and demonstrates how it adjusts its course through negotiation A final chapter draws both theoretical and practical lessons for the future
