Pathways To Change Improving The Quality Of Education In Developing Countries:

   Pathways to Change Adriaan Verspoor,1989   Pathways to Change Adriaan Verspoor,1989 The World Bank has supported a broad spectrum of educational reform programs The outcomes of many of these programs have been mixed A review of Bank experience found that the most successful programs have a different profile than the less successful programs The former aimed at comprehensive change encompassing a wide range of objectives that include administrative and management training and the provision of educational materials as well as the usual curriculum and teacher training components Most importantly they adopted an implementation strategy that was congruent with political and economic factors and with the program s objectives Three interventions were found especially critical for successfully putting programs into practice in classrooms and schools First successful programs paid significant attention to strengthening institutions and organizational structure including developing a capacity for innovative management Second successful programs included significant in service teacher training components Third successful programs included strategies to garner the commitment of implementors external agencies and government authorities   Pathways of change Adriaan M. Verspoor,1989   World Bank Financing of Education Phillip W. Jones,2002-09-11 First Published in 1992 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company   Resources in Education ,1999   World Bank Anne C. M. Salda,1995

   Key Issues in Educational Development Terry Allsop,Colin Brock,1993-01-01 This book considers the schooling of the young and adults in the world s poorest countries in the light of the World Conference on Education for All held in Jomtien Thailand   Comparative and International Research in Education Michael Crossley,Keith Watson,2003 This book is designed as a text on how to go about setting up and effectively running international research projects   International Encyclopedia of Education ,2009-04-17 The field of education has experienced extraordinary technological societal and institutional change in recent years making it one of the most fascinating yet complex fields of study in social science Unequalled in its combination of authoritative scholarship and comprehensive coverage International Encyclopedia of Education Third Edition succeeds two highly successful previous editions 1985 1994 in aiming to encapsulate research in this vibrant field for the twenty first century reader Under development for five years this work encompasses over 1 000 articles across 24 individual areas of coverage and is expected to become the dominant resource in the field Education is a multidisciplinary and international field drawing on a wide range of social sciences and humanities disciplines and this new edition comprehensively matches this diversity The diverse background and multidisciplinary subject coverage of the Editorial Board ensure a balanced and objective academic framework with 1 500 contributors representing over 100 countries capturing a complete portrait of this evolving field A totally new work revamped with a wholly new editorial board structure and brand new list of meta sections and articles Developed by an international panel of editors and authors drawn from senior academia Web enhanced with supplementary multimedia audio and video files hotlinked to relevant references and sources for further study Incorporates ca 1 350 articles with timely coverage of such topics as technology and learning demography and social change globalization and adult learning to name a few Offers two content delivery options print and online the latter of which provides anytime anywhere access for multiple users and superior search functionality via ScienceDirect as well as multimedia content including audio and video files   Comparative and International Education Kathy Bickmore,Ruth Hayhoe,Caroline Manion,Karen Mundy,Robyn Read,2017-02-23 In our increasingly globalized world it is vital to explore major issues in education today through an international and intercultural lens Thoroughly updated and expanded this comprehensive new edition introduces students to research in comparative and international education while providing an overview of educational practices in diverse settings Contributors draw on comparative research from the Americas Australia Africa Asia Europe and the Middle East and engage with such themes as the history and philosophy of comparative education the right to education alternative pedagogies gender Indigenous knowledge peacebuilding international assessments and global citizenship The updates to this edition include new chapters on human rights education and the internationalization of schooling and a greater focus on issues of diversity and social justice education Designed as a resource for teacher education programs each chapter highlights the significance and the implications of the particular topic for teachers Comparative and International Education features a vivid portrayal of global educational practices contributions from preeminent scholars from around the world and invaluable teaching tools including discussion questions video suggestions and further readings This essential collection will be an indispensable resource for teachers teachers in training and students of comparative and international education   English Language Teaching in Pakistan Naziha Ali Raza,Christine Coombe,2022-02-05 This book presents empirical research on teaching learning and assessment and teacher development practices in Pakistan Despite extensive academic research conducted in Pakistan over the last decade there is a dearth of internationally published literature on English language teaching in the country This book covers current research priorities and initiatives concerning English language teaching learning and assessment empirical developments and major professional development initiatives both in Pakistan and involving the work of Pakistani scholars based in abroad It highlights the impacts that development efforts are having in the ELT world in Pakistan The respective chapters cover a diverse range of topics including continuous professional development CPD identity construction English language policy curriculum development and innovative ELT approaches and methodologies used in Pakistan This volume provides valuable insights for TESOL and applied linguistics scholars and practitioners working in the field of ELT both in Pakistan and elsewhere in the globalized world   Innovation in English Language Teaching David Hall,Ann Hewings,2013-10-18 This reader provides both theoretical perspectives and practical tools for analysing and understanding how ELT classroom curricula can be analysed developed and evaluated The commissioned and classic texts place curriculum change in a philosophical framework and also explore the political and institutional considerations A series of case studies are provided to highlight both the role of the teacher in curriculum innovation and various processes of planning and implementation The final section deals with evaluating curriculum and syllabus change Education, Cultures, and Economics Angela W. Little,Fiona E. Leach,2013-06-17 This edited volume reviews the conflict between economic prescriptions for improved education in the developing world and local cultures Among the issues reviewed are conceptions of culture and economics in development and education literature economic considerations of school systems to promote cultural goals the differentiation of schools from other sites of cultural reproduction learning experiences of various cultural groups and the cross cultural work of development agencies Redefining the Role of Government in Agriculture for the 1990's John Nash,1990-01-01 How Macroeconomic Policies Affect Project Performance in the Social Sectors Daniel Kaufmann,Yan Wang,1992 A country s economic policies significantly affect the performance of investment projects in the social sectors especially education School Level Leadership in Post-conflict Societies Simon R. P. Clarke,Thomas A. O'Donoghue,2013-07-18 How do different contexts influence the nature and character of school leadership This book is predicated on the simple yet profound observation that school leadership can only be understood within the context in which it is exercised The observation is particularly valid in relation to post conflict societies especially when they have eventuated from new wars Schools in these contexts face highly complex circumstances and a level of environmental turbulence requiring different kinds of leadership from those operating in less complicated and relatively stable situations By assembling an impressive array of international experts this book investigates a much neglected area of research Each chapter highlights the importance of context for understanding the realities of school leadership and reveals the challenges and influences that school leaders face as well as the strategies they adopt to deal with the complexities of their work In particular valuable insights are provided into how intractable problems faced by schools can affect student professional and organizational learning agendas There are also important glimpses of the progression that can be made in schools by Enhancing the curriculum Energizing teaching capacity and Optimising leadership capacity Depictions of post new war environments include Angola Ghana Sri Lanka Rwanda Kenya Solomon Islands Lebanon Kosovo Timor Leste and Northern Ireland The book will be key reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students studying educational leadership comparative education and education policy Assessing Student Learning in Africa Thomas Kellaghan,Vincent Greaney,2004-01-01 This title reviews four aspects of educational assessment public examinations national assessment international assessment and classroom assessment and offers suggestions for using different forms of assessment to enhance student learning The Management of Common Property Natural Resources Daniel W. Bromley,Michael M. Cernea,1989 This popular technical paper is currently in its sixth reprinting 10 97 Many development projects require that people be involuntarily resettled to other locations to live and work Governments need adequate policies to minimize the negative effects of this relocation both on the individuals involved and on the national economy This report presents policy guidelines and procedures for World Bank financed projects requiring involuntary resettlement Designed for development specialists social anthropologists and sociologists this volume discusses past Bank projects to illuminate the responsibilities of the governments and the needs of resettlers and host populations during resettlement Among the topics addressed are types of involuntary resettlement basic sociological principles in approaching resettlement policy objectives and strategies reconstruction of the resettlers homes production bases and social organizations and the effects of resettlement on the environment Annexes to this report contain technical checklists for preparing and appraising resettlement plans in projects and for monitoring and evaluating rettlement Michael M Cernea has published and editied several books on the sociological aspects of development Among these books is Putting People First Sociological Variables in Rural Development which describes culturally sensitive approaches to the preparation planning and implementation of development projects Other books include Social Organization and Development Anthropology Social Assessments for Better Development Case Studies in Russia and Central Asia and Urban Environment and Population Relocation School Improvement for Real David Hopkins,2003-09-02 As societies continue to set educational goals that are on current performance beyond the capacity of the system to deliver strategies for enhancing student learning through school and classroom intervention have become increasingly important Yet as David Hopkins argues in his book many of the educational initiatives recently developed under the umbrella of school improvement are inadequate or unhelpful Simply blaming teachers and delegating financial responsibility he maintains has little positive impact on classroom practice This is the bleak context within which school improvement has to operate today School Improvement for Real offers a genuine alternative a strategy for educational change that focuses on student achievement by modifying classroom practice and adapting the management arrangements within the school to support teaching and learning It outlines an approach to school improvement that has a medium term systemic orientation providing both principles and suggestions for better practice The author s experience in the field of school improvement ensures that the text is informed by a practical wisdom that is so often lacking from the more typical managerial texts on improvement and effectiveness School Improvement Zijian Li,Michael Williams,2006 School improvement is at the centre of educational reform and is perceived by many as a key to social and economic advance It contributes to determining the personal fulfilment and career paths of individual students and consequently engages the interest of parents and community members It is an ever present commitment of teachers and managers in schools Policy makers and politicians at international national and local levels devote much time and effort to their search for better schools School improvement has also attracted the attention of researchers and scholars in many countries They have been drawn from various disciplines and fields within the educational studies community including psychology sociology history evaluation and studies in curriculum and assessment There is now an established body of findings from studies conducted in many contexts This book brings together leading experts drawn from many countries and several continents reflecting diverse approaches to educational policy and practice evaluation and research Variations between countries and between local communities within countries are highlighted The possibilities and difficulties inherent in transferring evidence from one educational system at a number of levels to another are clearly discussed What emerges from the cross national and cross cultural evidence are several significant threads currently under active investigation including school structure and management classroom organisation school leadership teacher training and staff development curriculum and assessment community involvement lifelong learning and special provision for students with special educational needs School Improvement International Perspectives is written for national educational policy makers teachers and student teachers governing bodies and parents from various levels of schooling and university researchers and scholars
