Pathways To Re Creating Religious Communities:

Pathways to Re-Creating Religious Communities Patricia Wittberg, 1996 Religious life has always been an essential and dynamic component of the church Religious communities historically have met the needs of the surrounding society in education the arts medical care and social work But why do we need religious communities now What purpose do they serve within the church and within society Patricia Wittberg offers some practical and prophetic answers There are four basic questions that a religious community must answer if it is to survive and grow in the twenty first century What is our fundamental reason for existing as a community What distinguishes members from non members How will we live out our fundamental purpose in daily life What resources do we need and where can they be found Using the metaphor of a journey this book suggests ways of addressing these questions based on studies of other religious communities past and present Catholic and those of other religions The author also identifies pitfalls that commonly deter new communities and suggests how these pitfalls may be avoided Included is a selection of journey stories that present some fictional founding and refounding journeys these can serve as starting points for brainstorming by religious communities interested in refounding themselves This is a hopeful popularly written book that will appeal not only to all religious but to general readers as well since it has great importance for the life of the entire church BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Within and Without Michael John Cunningham, 2003 Catholic Higher Education Melanie Morey, John Piderit, 2010-05-28 Today Catholic colleges and universities are dealing with critical questions about what constitutes Catholic collegiate identity Based on their research Morey and Piderit describe the present situation and offer concrete suggestions for enhancing Catholic identity culture and mission at all Catholic colleges and universities The authors define the critical issues and analyze and address them by using the rich construct of culture particularly organizational culture and they provide four different models of how Catholic colleges and universities can operate and successfully compete as religiously distinctive institutions in the higher education market Selling All Sandra Marie Schneiders, 2001 An examination of the internal reality of contemporary religious life particularly that of ministerial women religious in the first world setting through the focusing lenses of commitment consecrated celibacy and community The Rise and Fall of Faith-Based Hospitals Georgine Scarpino Rsm Ph. D., 2013-03 This book is a meta analysis of the relationship of margin and mission of faith based hospitals in Allegheny County Pennsylvania to their beginnings and endings It reviews the various local state and federal events and factors that impacted these hospitals during their growth and decline from 1847 through 2008 Most importantly the book shares the courage hardships and perseverance of the founders of these institutions many of whom were women as they responded to one crisis after another but never gave up their commitment to serve the poor and sick of Pittsburgh and Allegheny County Becoming Apostolic Catherine Sexton, 2024-07-01 This book explores the experience and understanding of Roman Catholic sisters of their vocation to the apostolic form of religious life as they age Based on interviews with twelve religious women it draws on the practice of Lectio Divina to explore how these women describe their call to service and activity at a time in life when these might be curtailed by physical diminishment and increasingly reduced social interaction and influence As the very institutions of religious life are themselves under threat the book identifies new emerging forms of ministry through presence to each other and to their carers Religious Life in a

New Millennium Volume One Sandra M. Schneiders, I.H.M., Exploring the Future of Christian Monasticisms

Greg Peters, 2020-01-15 The institution of monasticism in the Christian Church is in general decline at least in so called first world nations Though there are many reasons for this monastic leaders are confronted by the reality of fewer communities monks and nuns nonetheless At the same time many younger Christians are rediscovering the rich heritage of the monastic tradition Though they themselves might not be called to join a traditional monastery they are eager to appropriate monastic practices in their own lives This had led to a movement known as the new monasticism or secular monasticism Despite lacking a unified vision and any central organization these new secular monastics are attempting in their own ways to carry on the tradition and practices of Christian monasticism As well there is a movement within historical Christian monasteries to pour new wine into old wineskins Traditional forms of monasticism are also generally flourishing in developing nations breathing new life into monasticism This volume looks at the current monastic landscape to assess where monasticism stands and to imagine ways in which it will grow in the future leading not only to a renewed Christian monasticism but to new monasticisms Catholic Women's Colleges in America Tracy Schier, Cynthia Russett, 2003-05-22 More than 150 colleges in the United States were founded by nuns and over time they have served many constituencies setting some educational trends while reflecting others In Catholic Women's Colleges in America Tracy Schier Cynthia Russett and their coauthors provide a comprehensive history of these institutions and how they met the challenges of broader educational change The authors explore how and for whom the colleges were founded and the role of Catholic nuns in their founding and development They examine the roots of the founders spirituality and education they discuss curricula administration and student life And they describe the changes prompted by both the church and society beginning in the 1960s when decreasing enrollments led some colleges to opt for coeducation while others restructured their curricula partnered with other Catholic colleges developed specialized programs or sought to broaden their base of funding Contributors Dorothy M Brown Georgetown University David R Contosta Chestnut Hill College Jill Ker Conway Massachusetts Institute of Technology Carol Hurd Green Boston College Monika K Hellwig Association of Catholic Colleges and Universities Karen Kennelly president emerita of Mount Saint Mary's College Los Angeles Jeanne Knoerle president emerita of Saint Mary of the Woods College Thomas M Landy College of the Holy Cross Kathleen A Mahoney Humanitas Foundation Melanie M Morey Leadership and Legacy Associates Boston Mary J Oates Regis College Jane C Redmont Graduate Theological Union in Berkeley Cynthia Russett Yale University Tracy Schier Boston College History of North American Benedictine Women Laura Cimino,1997 Against the Stream examines the phenomenon of young adult conversion and return to traditional Christian religiosity The book is based on 50 case studies of young adults who have converted or returned to three tradition based faiths conservative and traditionalist Roman Catholicism the conservative Reformed or Calvinist tradition and Eastern Orthodoxy The book provides an account of these young adults beliefs as well as how they relate their faith to everyday life and social issues and illuminates the challenges of adhering to religious traditions in a society shaped by pluralism and religious consumerism These young adults are going against the stream by refusing to take a pick and choose approach to religious beliefs Choice plays a major role in how these young adults adopt and adapt these faiths to their lives Such selective retrievals of tradition for these young adults provide benefits and solutions for the ills and dislocations created by modernity such as the fragmentation secularism and politicization of society Co published with Religion Watch The Beating of Great Wings Bernard J.
