Weekly ,1997 The Bone Woman Clea Koff,2011-05-18 Published ten years after the genocide in Rwanda The Bone Woman is a riveting deeply personal account by a forensic anthropologist sent on seven missions by the UN War Crimes Tribunal To prosecute charges of genocide and crimes against humanity the UN needs proof that the bodies found are those of non combatants This means answering two questions who the victims were and how they were killed The only people who can answer both these questions are forensic anthropologists Before being sent to Rwanda in 1996 Clea Koff was a twenty three year old graduate student studying prehistoric skeletons in the safe confines of Berkeley California Over the next four years her gruelling investigation into events that shocked the world transformed her from a wide eyed student into a soul weary veteran and a wise and deeply thoughtful woman Her unflinching account of those years what she saw how it affected her who went to trial based on evidence she collected makes for an unforgettable read alternately riveting frightening and miraculously hopeful Readers join Koff as she comes face to face with the human meaning of genocide exhuming almost five hundred bodies from a single grave in Kibuye Rwanda uncovering the wire bound wrists of Srebrenica massacre victims in Bosnia disinterring the body of a young man in southwestern Kosovo as his grandfather looks on in silence As she recounts the fascinating details of her work the hellish working conditions the bureaucracy of the UN and the heartbreak of survivors

Be Careful What You Pray For Nicole S. Rouse, 2010-11-01 Be careful what you pray for is an old adage but third grade teacher Maya Richards comes to discover that it's more than just a cliché Maya has been with her soul mate Kenneth Green for more than ten years She never doubted that he would one day ask for her hand in marriage but on the eve of their anniversary their relationship ends abruptly and she finds herself alone for the first time in thirteen years Maya turns to her family and best friend to help deal with her heartbreak but is left to heal on her own Her parents have discovered a love for traveling her sister is preparing to move across the country and her best friend is busy tending to her husband and children Instead of seeing this time as an opportunity to get closer to God Maya begs God to send her a new mate Impatient and desperate she begins a relationship with gym teacher Lloyd Bradford despite many warning signs As she struggles to escape a dangerous situation Maya learns that the relationship that matters most in life is the one that she has with Christ As Maya finds the strength to break away from Lloyd's tight reigns will she trust God and allow Him to restore peace in her life of August but even more from the dream itself And yet she was cold she felt the chill of death She realised that she had indeed been dreaming a dream that took her back to exactly one year ago the day those policemen had actually come to the door with their message of doom Erik was no more it was over her great love was gone never again together never never never again Never again that was the steep slide into darkness Silently she slipped out of bed took her clothes to the bathroom where she freshened up and got dressed She crept down the stairs to the kitchen made a mug of coffee and sat down in her rocking chair with it She stared outside where it was already starting to get a little light She had no idea what time it was but she didn't care In fact everything passed her by at the moment She looked but saw nothing in depth She thought only of Erik the great love of her youth In fact he had been that since her early childhood the boy with whom she had a click who understood her who felt her The boy who was there for her and for whom she would give her young life Other children had teased them bullied them but it had hardly touched her because Erik was there They were together and together they were fine She had lost track of him for a few years because he went to high school a few years earlier She felt alone during those years But he was also the young boy who showed her when she was fifteen who made her feel that she was good and especially that she was loved that she was loved by him that she was his everything He had never forgotten her Erik the man she had married because she knew that she loved him with her whole heart and wanted to share her life only with him The man who helped her through her traumas her sadness her pain her fears She had not realised before that there was so much in her that had been lost Erik knew from the depths of his soul what she needed to heal emotionally His inner voice gave him directions that sometimes seemed so contrary but of which she could say afterwards that it was precisely those contrary things that had pulled a lot of shit loose from her wounds so that those wounds could heal It took months for her to finally feel like she was discovering herself for the first time in her life Through Erik and her process she finally came to realise that she was an amazing woman a woman of potential with an enormous love and power within her with a desire to help others in their process of inner healing And she rediscovered what she loved so much cooking and baking and being with people being there for them That was when Erik got plans to start a guesthouse He had previously had all kinds of jobs jobs that he did because he needed to earn a living but in which he could hardly put his heart into He loved working with his hands building things preferably with wood And he especially loved people dealing with people He had a clear goal for as long as she had known him helping people on their way Not like he had done with her guiding her for months and months but helping them on their way so that they themselves could continue in their own process in their search

Representing Irish Religious Histories Jacqueline Hill, Mary Ann Lyons, 2017-01-12 This collection begins on the premise that until recently religion has been particularly influential in Ireland in forming a sense of identity and in creating certain versions of reality History has also been a key component in that process and the historical evolution of Christianity has been appropriated by the main religious denominations Catholic Church of Ireland and Presbyterian with a view to reinforcing their own identities

This book explores the ways in which this occurred the writing of religious history and some of the manifestations of that process forms key parts of the collection Also included are chapters discussing current and recent attempts to examine the legacy of collective religious memory notably in Northern Ireland based on projects designed to encourage reflection about the religious past among both adults and school children Readers will find this collection particularly timely in view of the current decade of commemorations
