Patterns of mothering Sylvia Brody, 1956      Patterns of Mothering Sylvia Brody, 1970-03-01      International bibliography of research in marriage and the family Joan Aldous, 1967      Patterns of Mothering. Maternal Influence During Infancy, Etc Sylvia BRODY, 1956      Cultural Approaches To Parenting Marc H. Bornstein, 2013-02-01 This volume is concerned with elucidating similarities and differences in enculturation processes that help to account for the ways in which individuals in different cultures develop Each chapter reviews a substantive parenting topic describes the relevant cultures in psychological ethnography rather than from an anthropological stance reports on the parenting in culture results and discusses the significance of cross cultural investigation for understanding the parenting issue of interest Specific areas of study include environment and interactive style responsiveness activity patterns distributions of social involvement with children structural patterns of interaction and development of the social self Through exposure to a wide range of diverse research methods readers will gain a deeper appreciation of the problems procedures possibilities and profits associated with a truly comparative approach to understanding human growth and development      Handbook of Child Psychology and Developmental Science, Ecological Settings and Processes , 2015-03-31 The essential reference for human development theory updated and reconceptualized The Handbook of Child Psychology and Developmental Science a four volume reference is the field defining work to which all others are compared First published in 1946 and now in its Seventh Edition the Handbook has long been considered the definitive guide to the field of developmental science Volume 4 Ecological Settings and Processes in Developmental Systems is centrally concerned with the people conditions and events outside individuals that affect children and their development To understand children s development it is both necessary and desirable to embrace all of these social and physical contexts Guided by the relational developmental systems metatheory the chapters in the volume are ordered them in a manner that begins with the near proximal contexts in which children find themselves and moving through to distal contexts that influence children in equally compelling if less immediately manifest ways The volume emphasizes that the child s environment is complex multi dimensional and structurally organized into interlinked contexts children actively contribute to their development the child and the environment are inextricably linked and contributions of both child and environment are essential to explain or understand development Understand the role of parents other family members peers and other adults teachers coaches mentors in a child s development Discover the key neighborhood community and institutional settings of human development Examine the role of activities work and media in child and adolescent development Learn about the role of medicine law government war and disaster culture and history in contributing to the processes of human development The scholarship within this volume and as well across the four volumes of this edition illustrate that developmental science is in the midst of a very exciting period There is a paradigm shift that involves increasingly greater understanding of how to describe explain and optimize the course of human life for diverse individuals living within diverse contexts This Handbook is the definitive reference for educators policy makers researchers students and practitioners in human development psychology sociology anthropology and neuroscience Motherhood and Representation E. Ann Kaplan, 2013-07-23 From novels of the nineteenth century to films of the 1990s American culture abounds with images of white middle class mothers In Motherhood and Representation E Ann Kaplan considers how the mother appears in three related spheres the historical in which she charts changing representations of the mother from 1830 to the postmodernist present the psychoanalytic which discusses theories of the mother from Freud to Lacan and the French Feminists and the mother as she is figured in cultural representations in literary and film texts such as East Lynne Marnie and The Handmaid's Tale as well as in journalism and popular manuals on motherhood Kaplan's analysis identifies two dominant paradigms of the mother as Angel and Witch and charts the contesting and often contradictory discourses of the mother in present day America

Self-Determination Theory Richard Ryan, Edward L. Deci, 2018-11-06 Among the most influential models in contemporary behavioral science self determination theory SDT offers a broad framework for understanding the factors that promote human motivation and psychological flourishing In this authoritative work SDT cofounders Richard M Ryan and Edward L Deci systematically review the theory's conceptual underpinnings empirical evidence base and practical applications across the lifespan Ryan and Deci demonstrate that supporting people's basic needs for competence relatedness and autonomy is critically important for virtually all aspects of individual and societal functioning

Jacket Resources in Women's Educational Equity, 1979 Child Welfare: Historical perspectives Nick Frost, 2005 This collection focuses on child welfare in its specific sense welfare and social interventions with children and young people undertaken by State bodies or NGO's The term child welfare is deployed differently in diverse international settings In the United Kingdom child welfare tends to refer to individualised programmes for children who have experienced problems in their lives In India to take a contrasting example it can also refer to major housing and nutrition programmes This collection takes an inclusive approach to international perspectives The collection is completed by a new general introduction by the editor individual volume introductions and a full index Titles also available in this series include Medical Sociology November 2004 4 Volumes 495 and the forthcoming collection Health Care Systems 2005 3 Volumes c 395

Parenthood in America Jack C. Westman, 2001 In this outgrowth of a conference called Parenthood in America held at in April 1998 Westman emeritus psychiatry U of Wisconsin Medical School identifies the parent child relationship as the fundamental institution in our society one that fosters a lifelong ability to form and sustain intimate relationships and be a thoughtful moral person He argues for a shift in thinking toward the use of quality of life rather than material achievement as the central measure of success The work's 23 articles bring insights from research to bear on the practical aspects of childrearing and on policies that influence the context in which parenting occurs in the home and in the community Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Parents in the Spotlight Tanja Betz, Michael-Sebastian Honig, Ilona Ostner, 2017-07-17 Children and parents have become a focus of debates on new social risks in European welfare states Policymaking elites have converged in defining such risks and they have outlined new forms of parenting support to better safeguard children and activate their potential Increasingly parents are suspected of falling short of public expectations Contributors to this special issue scrutinize this shift towards parenting as performance and analyse recent forms of parenting support Ethological Studies of Child Behaviour N. Blurton Jones, 1972-03-09 This 1972 volume contains specially written reports by research workers in zoology psychology and psychiatry applying methods of comparative ethology in studies of human behaviour It is intended as a contrast to popular researches in animal behaviour There has been a considerable increase in the number of descriptive analytical studies of human behaviour concerned principally with the behaviour of children and their mothers and the methods have become widely used The present collection of papers assesses the value of the methods and clarifies the particular contributions which they may make to an understanding of human behaviour The papers cover a range of topics familiar from animal studies non verbal communication mother infant interaction play and aggressive behaviour but also range widely into more usual subjects for developmental psychology cross cultural studies development of skills class differences in mother infant interactions This is essentially a book for research workers teachers and students of behavioural sciences Mental Health Issues in Grief Counseling Stanley E. Weinstein, 1979 Review of Child Development Research Lois Wladis Hoffman, Martin L. Hoffman, 1964-12-31 Makes a major contribution to current research on children by providing a broad view of up to date authoritative material in many different areas Contributors have selected and interpreted the relevant material in reference to the practitioner's interests and needs The chapters written by prominent specialists cover various topics in child development from early periods of socialization to the development of higher mental processes and include two chapters dealing with genetic and neurophysiological bases of behavior Infant Mortality, Population Growth and Family Planning in India S. Chandrasekhar, 2012-08-21 First published in 1972 this reissue deals with the crucial issue of population explosion one of the most crucial problems facing the contemporary developing world Written by a world renowned demographer and family planning specialist the book deals specifically with the Indian experience Reviewing population change in India over the last century Professor Chandrasekhar focuses on three key issues the socioeconomic repercussions of reduced infant mortality in twentieth century India the rapid population growth from 1871 and its implications on India's efforts to raise her standard of living and finally India's valiant efforts to promote family planning amongst her hundred million married couples Cumulated Index Medicus, 1970 Aspects of Interaction Between Infants and Mother-surrogates Elizabeth Wadleigh Badgeley, 1968
