Pattersons History Of Victoria County:

Patterson's History of Victoria County, Cape Breton, Nova Scotia George Geddie Patterson, 1978 Patterson's History of Victoria County, Cape Breton, Nova Scotia ; with Related Papers George Geddie Patterson, 1978 In the Morning W. James MacDonald, Bonnie Thornhill, 1999 Cape Breton in the Long Twentieth Century Lachlan MacKinnon, Andrew Parnaby, 2024-03-26

The emergence dominance and alarmingly rapid retreat of modernist industrial capitalism on Cape Breton Island during the long twentieth century offers a particularly captivating window on the lasting and varied effects of deindustrialization Now at the tail end of the industrial moment in North American history the story of Cape Breton Island presents an opportunity to reflect on how industrialization and deindustrialization have shaped human experiences Covering the period between 1860 and the early 2000s this volume looks at trade unionism state and cultural responses to deindustrialization including the more recent pivot towards the tourist industry and the lived experiences of Indigenous and Black people Rather than focusing on the separate or distinct nature of Cape Breton contributors place the island within broad transnational networks such as the financial world of the Anglo Atlantic the Celtic music revival the Black diaspora Canadian development programs and more In capturing the vital elements of a region on the rural resource frontier that was battered by deindustrialization the histories included here show how the interplay of the state cultures and transnational connections shaped how people navigated these heavy pressures both individually and collectively The Island of Seven Cities Paul Chiasson, 2013-09-10

The Island of Seven Cities unveils the first tangible proof that the Chinese settled in the New World before Columbus In the summer of 2003 architect Paul Chiasson decided to climb a mountain he had never explored on Cape Breton Island where eight generations of his Acadian family had lived One of the oldest points of exploration and settlement in the Americas with a written history dating back to the first days of European discovery Cape Breton is littered with remnants of old settlements But that day Chiasson found a road that was unique Well made and consistently wide and at one time clearly bordered with stone walls the road had been a major undertaking But he could find no record of it In the two years of detective work that followed Chiasson systematically surveyed the history of Europeans in North America and came to a stunning conclusion the ruins he had stumbled upon an entire townsit on a mountaintop did not belong to the Portuguese the French the English or the Scots And they predated John Cabot s 1497 discovery of the island Using aerial and site photographs maps and drawings and his own expertise as an architect Chiasson re creates how he pieced together the clues to one of the world s great mysteries a large Chinese colony existed and thrived on Canadian shores well before the European Age of Discovery He addresses how the ruins had been previously overlooked or misunderstood and how the colony was abandoned and forgotten in China and in the New World And he discovers the traces the colony left in the storytelling and culture of the Mi kmaq whose written language clothing technical knowledge religious beliefs and legends he argues expose deep cultural ties to China A gripping account of an earth shaking discovery The Island of Seven Cities will change the way we think about our world The Making of a Rebel Katherine Stirling Kerr Cawsey,1998 Reappraisals of British Colonisation in Atlantic Canada, 1700-1930 Kehoe Karly Kehoe,2020-05-01 This collection offers new perspectives on the legacy of British colonisation by concentrating on Atlantic Canada Nova Scotia New Brunswick Newfoundland and Prince Edward Island a region that was pivotal to safeguarding Britain s imperial ambitions between 1750 and 1930 New and established researchers from Canada Scotland and the United States engage with the core themes of migration dispossession religion identity and commemoration in a way that diverges markedly from existing scholarship The research shines much needed light on groups traditionally excluded from Britain s broader imperial narrative highlighting the indigenous experience and the presence and agency of slaves free people of colour and religious minorities Dictionary of Cape Breton English William J. Davey,Richard MacKinnon,2016-01-01 The first regional dictionary devoted to the island s linguistic and cultural history the Dictionary of Cape Breton English is a fascinating record of the island s rich vocabulary Subject Catalog Library of Congress,1979 Victoria County Centennial History Watson Kirkconnell,1921 The Life of John André D. A. B. Ronald,2019-01-19 This biography of Britain s spy chief during the Revolutionary War sheds new light on his conspiracy with Benedict Arnold and his mysterious capture John Andr was head of the British Army s Secret Service in North America as the Revolutionary War entered its most decisive phase In 1780 he masterminded the defection of the high ranking American general Benedict Arnold As the commander of West Point Arnold agreed to turn the strategically vital fort over to the British Andr and Arnold also conspired to kidnap George Washington The secret negotiations between Arnold and Andr were protracted and fraught with danger Arnold s wife Peggy acted as go between until September 21st 1780 when the two men met face to face in no man s land But then Andr was captured forty eight hours later having broken every condition set by his commanding officer he was within American lines wearing civilian clothes and carrying maps of West Point in his boots When he announced himself as a spy the Americans had no recourse Tried by a military tribunal he was convicted and hanged Andr s motives for his apparent sacrifice have baffled historians for generations This biography provides a provocative answer to this mystery explaining not only why he acted as he did but how he wished others to see his actions Acadiensis ,1988 Gaelic Influence in the Northumbrian Kingdom Fiona Edmonds,2019 WINNER OF THE FRANK WATSON BOOK PRIZE 2021 SHORTLISTED IN SCOTLAND S NATIONAL BOOK AWARDS 2021 The first full scale interdisciplinary treatment of the wide ranging connections between the Gaelic world and the Northumbrian kingdom Northumbria was the most northerly Anglo Saxon kingdom its impressive landscape featured two sweeping coastlines which opened the area to a variety of cultural connections This book explores influences that emanated from the Gaelic speaking world including Ireland the Isle of Man Argyll and the kingdom of Alba the nascent Scottish kingdom It encompasses Northumbria s Golden Age the kingdom s political and scholarly high point of the seventh and early eighth centuries and culminates with the kingdom s decline and fragmentation in the Viking Age which opened up new links with Gaelic Scandinavian communities Political and ecclesiastical connections are discussed in detail the study also covers linguistic contact material culture and the practicalities of travel bringing out the realities of contemporary life This interdisciplinary approach sheds new light on the west and north of the Northumbrian kingdom the areas linked most closely with the Gaelic world Overall the book reveals the extent to which Gaelic influence was multifaceted complex and enduring Dr FIONA EDMONDS is Reader in History and Director of the Regional Heritage Centre at Lancaster University Bulletin ,2001 Honour Roll of the Nova Scotia Overseas Highland Brigade W. James MacDonald,2007 The Nova Scotia Highland Brigade sailed from Halifax on the SS Olympic October 12 1916 and played a significant role in battles and victories of the First World War including the now infamous Vimy Ridge in 1917 Historian James MacDonald has catalogued information about members of the Highland Brigade 85th 185th 193rd 219th Battalions killed or mortally wounded in action The Honour Roll collates for the first time in a single publication the name date of birth family origin vocation enlistment details date and where they were killed in action and the final resting place of each member Fifteen battle maps showing troop movements are included along with descriptions of Commonwealth war graves where the soldiers are buried Also included are examples of campaign and memorial medals and citations bestowed upon various personnel listed in the Honour Roll as well as examples of dispatches and correspondence received by the families of soldiers killed in action Allen County Lines ,1988 Canadiana ,1988-07 The Oxford Handbook of the Archaeology of Childhood Sally Crawford,Dawn Hadley,Gillian Shepherd,2018-05-10 Real understanding of past societies is not possible without including children and yet they have been strangely invisible in the archaeological record Compelling explanation about past societies cannot be achieved without including and investigating children and childhood However marginal the traces of children's bodies and bricolage may seem compared to adults archaeological evidence of children and childhood can be found in the most astonishing places and spaces The archaeology of childhood is one of the most exciting and challenging areas for new discovery about past societies Children are part of every human society but childhood is a cultural construct Each society develops its own idea about what a childhood should be what children can or should do and how they are trained to take their place in the world Children also play a part in creating the archaeological record itself In this volume experts from around the world ask questions about childhood thresholds of age and growth childhood in the material culture the death of children and the intersection of the childhood and the social economic religious and political worlds of societies in the past Stairway to Heaven Toby Huitson,2014-03-26 Medieval stairs galleries and upper chambers in cathedrals abbeys and parish churches have been an enduring source of fascination to historians and archaeologists since the eighteenth century but their practical purposes have long been shrouded in mystery and speculation From libraries to lights clocks to dovecotes from secret games of skittles played over the vaults to the daring exploits of the twelfth century Flying Monk Toby Huitson explores the lofty spaces nooks and crannies of medieval upper spaces though the interrogation of a wide range of documentary visual and archaeological materials Evidence is revealed for over 30 different functions during the period from around AD 1000 to 1550 Generously illustrated and fully referenced the text is accompanied by a set of special features and a quick reference section making it indispensable to all those interested in medieval history and architecture Dr Toby Huitson teaches at the University of Kent Canterbury Canadian Geographic ,1978
