Different men are of different opinions some like apples some like inions sang Patty asshe swayed herself idly back and forth in the veranda swing but truly ooly Nan shewent on I don t care a snipjack I m quite ready and willing to go to the WhiteMountains or the Blue or Pink or even Lavender Mountains if you like You re willing Patty only because you re so good natured and unselfish but really youdon t want to go one bit Now Nan I m no poor pale martyr with a halo roundy bout me noble brow When wecame down here to Spring Beach it was understood that we were to stay here part of thesummer and then go to the mountains And now it s the first of August and I ve had myinnings so it s only fair you should have your outing
Though Patty s air was gay and careless and Patty s tones were sincere she was in realitymaking an heroic self sacrifice and Nan knew it Patty loved the seashore she had beenthere three months and loved it better every day But Nan cared more for the mountains and longed to get away from the sunny glare of thesea and enjoy the shaded walks and drives of higher altitudes However these two were ofunselfish nature and each wanted to please the other But as Patty had had her wish forthree months it was certainly fair that Nan should be humoured for the rest of the summer The season had done wonders for Patty physically Because of her outdoor life she hadgrown plumper and browner her muscles had strengthened and her rosy cheeks betokened a perfect state of health She was still slender and her willowy figure had gained soft curves without losing its dainty gracefulness A List of English & American Sequel Stories ,1922
