Why did I say that Why did I do that Where on earth did those mean thoughts and motivations come from I m so glad no one can read my mind We all get whiplashed and sometimes broadsided by the dark side of our nature which produces thoughts and behaviors that cause us to feel ashamed many of us deny that part of ourselves and kick it off somewhere in the shadowy recesses of the heart where we hope it will stay put not cause us any more trouble and hopefully not be noticed In The Zippered Heart Marilyn does a gentle exploration of those secrets and issues which if denied can rob us of the abundant life we are promised in Christ God means for us to be whole This book is an encouragement in that process This book will change lives because it requires that we look precisely at both the dark and the light sides of ourselves Then it brings an overflowing

Ann Jervis,2007-05-10 Suffering while part of the human condition is a state of being we would rather ignore L Ann Jervis here presents a convincing argument that human suffering is worth considering and she offers the words of Paul as proof Paul s insights into the predicament and significance of suffering provide the foundation for some of Christianity s most profound and unique contributions to understanding human life Examination of three of his letters Thessalonians Philippians and Romans reveals his important reflections on accepting the suffering of believers with the conviction that even as we suffer God's plan for creation does not include suffering and God will ultimately banish it. As a result, believing sufferers are not victims of suffering. Jervis hopes that hearing Paul's words on suffering in a fresh light may allow readers to be deeply marked like the saints and shapers of Christianity by the power of a gospel of which it is not necessary to be ashamed precisely because it is not easy but transformative. NIV, Discover God's Heart Devotional Bible Walk Thru the Bible, 2014-09-09.
