Perceptual Assurance And The Reality Of The World:

Perceptual assurance and the reality of the world Errol E. Harris, 1974 Perceptual Assurance and the Reality of the World Errol E. Harris, Derek Gregory, 1974 Formal, Transcendental, and Dialectical Thinking Errol E. Harris, 1987-01-01

This is a critical examination of the three types of logic advocated by current philosophical schools Harris shows that certain basic presuppositions underlying the techniques of symbolic logic have resulted in intellectual stultification moral dilemma and practical sterility These presuppositions are shown to be at variance with those of contemporary scientific method Critical consideration is given to alternatives and a more appropriate logic of science is proposed providing an escape from crippling relativism and promising objective validation of value judgments This approach offers some prospect of solutions to the major problems now troubling our civilization

Truth and the End of Inquiry Cheryl J. Misak, 2004 Cheryl Misak presents a pragmatic account of truth C S Peirce the founder of pragmatism argued that truth is what we would agree upon were inquiry to be pursued as far as it could fruitfully go In the course of the past century pragmatism has remained one of the most significant movements in American philosophy Misak's book is one of the

landmark publications in recent pragmatist thought She pays attention both to Peirce's texts and to the requirements for a suitable account of truth This new paperback edition includes a brand new additional chapter along with a new preface and revision

The Roles of Representation in Visual Perception Robert French, Berit Brogaard, 2024-05-30 This volume contains new papers addressing a number of new and traditional issues pertaining to the roles of representations in visual perception Among these issues is the one concerning the nature of the perceptual state itself e.g. on the issue of whether the perceptual state like its distal objects is structured for instance by possessing a spatial character Other issues include those of whether at least aspects of the distal object are presented immediately to us visually whether representation plays any interesting role in disjunctivist and naïve realist accounts of visual experience and the relationship among visual perception attention and representation The anthology includes a wide variety of positions on the subject of the roles of representations in visual perception which would help to close the literature gap and will be of interest to scholars from all schools and trends of philosophy of mind

Truth, Politics, Morality Cheryl Misak, 2002-02-07 Cheryl Misak argues that truth ought to be reinstated to a central position in moral and political philosophy She argues that the correct account of truth is one found in a certain kind of pragmatism a true belief is one upon which inquiry could not improve a belief which would not be defeated by experience and argument This account is not only an improvement on the views of central figures such as Rawls and Habermas but it can also make sense of the idea that despite conflict pluralism and the expression of difference our moral and political beliefs aim at truth and can be subject to criticism Anyone interested in a fresh discussion of political theory and philosophy will find this a fascinating read
