Miller,1984      Reading Instruction in America Barbara Ruth Peltzman,2015-10-02 The diversity of student populations in the United States presents educators with many challenges To provide effective reading instruction for the individual student teachers must understand the enormous variety of reading methods and materials that exist and make independent decisions based on their students particular needs Research indicates that educators are often influenced by reading instruction fads that quickly fade making it more challenging to develop a repertoire of teaching strategies in which a teacher may have confidence This book examines a variety of reading methods used in American schools from the 19th to the 21st century and the literature promoting or critiquing them to help teachers become informed decision makers and better meet the needs of students      Twentieth Century Reading Education: Understanding Practices of Today in Terms of Patterns of the Past Gerard Giordano,2021-09-13 This book examines twentieth century reading education Among the major educational issues reviewed are testing diagnosis individualized education textbooks readability multiculturalism bi lingualism disability and technology The book explores attempts by educators and psychologists to answer theoretical as well as practical questions about why only some students developed literacy skills It examines the efforts to prevent reading failure as well as to aid those learners who had not learned to read The four types of remedial programs explored are skills based language based literature based and technology based The book identifies the social emotional physical and cognitive factors that have been linked to remedial reading instruction Based on a review of more than 3000 primary sources from the 1800s to the present extensive quotations have been integrated into the text to give readers a sense of intellectual involvement with the educators who are discussed      Proceedings ,1929      Record of Current Educational Publications ...
