Lamana, Ed.D.,2014-11-04 The Civil War is finally over and the survivors have returned to their lives to try to rebuild There was very little time for rest and relaxation Nothing can be truer for the people of the small country town of Mystic However something has come to Mystic with the survivors a game called Base Ball For many years the people of Mystic have indulged themselves in various kinds of stick and ball games everything from cricket to rounders to something called Muffin Ball but none of the games were ever popular enough to become organized until Base Ball As the residents of Mystic struggle establish their own Base Ball club they discover that Base Ball is taking over the nation by storm With a faithful group of town leaders a retired Judge and several veterans Mystic finds that it is ahead of the storm instead of getting caught up in it As the town team forms and a simple league with other small towns is established the Mystic town folk enjoy watching their very own team playing this city game their way making mistakes fumbling over the bases and arguing with everyone the people of Mystic become a true base ball town Then when captain of the Drummers contacts the Mystic team with a request to come to Mystic to play a fun exhibition game on the Fourth of July the initial thought was one of reservation the Drummers were a traveling team of colored players To the people of Mystic a town that sided with the Northern Union forces the prospect of playing a colored barnstorming team was cause to celebrate a game that changed the town of Mystic forever

Dad's Best Memories and Recollections

Charles J. Humber, 2016-01-19 DAD S BEST MEMORIES AND RECOLLECTIONS is Chazzz Humber s epitaph casting a very long and sentimental shadow across North America and beyond This 230 page volume is his granite monument well polished It lavishly records 125 of his best memories over a life span of nearly eighty years The vignettes are serenaded with more than 400 illustrations Those discovering this volume likely will find themselves wanting to record in their own sunset years their personal memories and recollections And when they do they are apt to recall what it was like to live in their fluctuating world dominated by a variety of personalities and cascading events Mr Humber vividly describes what it was like in 1945 to travel in a 1930 Model A Ford from Toronto to Boston With lively enthusiasm he reports what it was like to live in post World War II Boston to cook a lobster for a former President of the United States or to sell a pair of elevator shoes to one of Hollywood s shortest celebrities or to shine the shoes of a Derby hatted father of a future President of the United States It is not a remarkable achievement to reflect to recall or to have memories that are treasured But to tell them with literary aplomb to recall the events that happened nearly seventy five years ago with utmost clarity is definitely an admirable achievement and should be cherished not only by the kin who follow Mr Humber but by those who might like to imitate what he has monumentally achieved in Dad s Best Memories and Recollections
