Stanovich, 2010-10-15 The idea that we might be robots is no longer the stuff of science fiction decades of research in evolutionary biology and cognitive science have led many esteemed scientists to the conclusion that according to the precepts of universal Darwinism humans are merely the hosts for two replicators genes and memes that have no interest in us except as conduits for replication Richard Dawkins for example jolted us into realizing that we are just survival mechanisms for our own genes sophisticated robots in service of huge colonies of replicators to whom concepts of rationality intelligence agency and even the human soul are irrelevant Accepting and now forcefully responding to this decentering and disturbing idea Keith Stanovich here provides the tools for the robot s rebellion a program of cognitive reform necessary to advance human interests over the limited interest of the replicators and define our own autonomous goals as individual human beings He shows how concepts of rational thinking from cognitive science interact with the logic of evolution to create opportunities for humans to structure their behavior to serve their own ends These evaluative activities of the brain he argues fulfill the need that we have to ascribe significance to human life We may well be robots but we are the only robots who have discovered that fact Only by recognizing ourselves as such argues Stanovich can we begin to construct a concept of self based on what is truly singular about humans that they gain control of their lives in a way unique among life forms on Earth through rational self determination Along For The Ride Colleen A. university at Arequipa exercises his anti Americanism against the masquerading Tobias Tobias is helped by Ruth an anthropologist writing a thesis on fetishes In turn Ruth is helped by Joyce a mestizo secretary And so on Ruth and Tobias features the voices the perspectives the expectations of a spectrum of personalities from strikingly dissimilar material circumstances and ethnic origins In addition to Zrate and Joyce the Peruvian characters include a hostel manager a housewife a vamp a hacienda owner university students ranging from highland native to urban opportunist a handful of teenage terrorists and an Andean dog In addition to Tobias and Ruth the North American characters include a musicologist a biologist and an archaeologist from a private and privileged college in the Middle West The interaction among north and south Americans and among male and female reflects worlds wildly dissimilar in experience and expectation Radical adjustments to sudden changes in circumstance are imperative Neither Peruvians nor North Americans are free from sentiment and illusion Scenes in Ruth and Tobias include a river in flood a mudslide an archaeological expedition designed to test the mettle of someone hoping to pass himself off as what he is not a seduction a street demonstration an edenic retreat an effort at a purification rite
