How Religion Evolved Brian McVeigh, 2017-07-12 Why did many religious leaders Moses Old Testament prophets Zoroaster claim they heard divine voices Why do ancient civilizations exhibit key similarities e g the living dead treating the dead as if they were still alive speaking idols care and feeding of effigies monumental mortuary architecture and houses of gods pyramids ziggurats temples How do we explain strange behaviour such as spirit possession speaking in tongues channelling hypnosis and schizophrenic hallucinations Are these lingering vestiges of an older mentality Brian J McVeigh answers these riddles by updating bicameralism First proposed by the psychologist Julian Jaynes this theory postulates that an earlier mentality existed a human the brain s left hemisphere heard voices of gods or ancestors the brain s right hemisphere Therefore ancient religious texts reporting divine voices were recounting of audio visual hallucinations a method of social control when early populations expanded As growing political economic complexity destabilized god governed states in the late second millennium BCE divine voices became inadequate Eventually humans had to culturally acquire new cognitive skills modern religions to accommodate increasing social pressures selves replaced the gods and history witnessed an inward turn This psychological interiorization of spiritual experience laid the foundations for the world s great religions and philosophies that arose in India China Greece and the Middle East in the middle of the first millennium BCE 101

Getting the Holy Ghost Peter Marina, 2013-01-30 This book carries an ethnographic signature in approach and style and is an examination of a small Brooklyn New York African American Pentecostal church congregation and is based on ethnographic notes taken over the course of four years The Pentecostal Church is known to outsiders almost exclusively for its members bizarre habit of speaking in tongues This ethnography however puts those outsiders inside the church pews as it paints a portrait of piety compassion caring love all embraced through an embodiment perspective as the church's members experience these forces in the most personal ways through religious conversion Central themes include concerns with the notion of spectacle because of the grand bodily display that is highlighted by spiritual struggle social aspiration punishment and spontaneous explosions of a variety of emotions in the public sphere The approach to sociology throughout this work incorporates the striking dialectic of history and biography to penetrate and interact with religiously inspired residents of the inner city in a quest to make sense both empirically and theoretically of this rapidly changing surprising and highly contradictory late modern church scene The focus on the individual process of becoming Pentecostal provides a road map into the church and canvasses an intimate view into the lives of its members capturing their stories as they proceed in their Pentecostal careers This book challenges important sociological concepts like crisis to explain religious seekership and conversion while developing new concepts such as God Hunting and Holy Ghost Capital to explain the process through which individuals become tongue speaking Pentecostals Church members acquire Holy Ghost Capital and construct a Pentecostal identity through a relationship narrative to establish personal status and power through conflicting tongue speaking ideas Finally this book examines the futures of the small and large institutionally affiliated Pentecostal Church and argues that the small Pentecostal Church is better able to resist modern rationalizing forces retaining the charisma that sparked the initial religious movement The power of charisma in the small church has far reaching consequences and implications for the future of Pentecostalism and its followers
