Paul and Matthew Among Jews and Gentiles Ronald Charles,2020-12-10 Terence L Donaldson s scholarship in the field of New Testament studies is vital as he has pressed scholars to pay closer attention to the complex relations between early Christ followers who were mostly non Jews and the Jewish matrix from which the narrative of the Christian proclamation comes from This volume allows prominent New Testament scholars to engage Donaldson s contributions both to sharpen some of his conclusions and to honour him for his work These essays are located at the intersections of three bodies of literature Matthew Paul and Second Temple Jewish Literature and themes and questions that have been central to Donaldson s work Christian Judaism and the Parting of the Ways Gentiles in Judaism and early Christianity Anti Judaism in early Christianity With contributions ranging from remapping Paul within Jewish ideologies and Paul among friends and enemies to socio cultural readings of Matthew and construction of Christian Identity through stereotypes of the Scribes and Pharisees this book provides a multi scholar tribute to Donaldson s accomplishments

Christ and Theology Scott Stine,2025-02-17 Tracing the relationship between Christ centered biblical theology and the so called Great Tradition this book seeks to remedy often self diagnosed weaknesses in evangelical gospel centered hermeneutics Meeting charges first that redemptive historical approaches to Scripture tend to de theologize the Bible and second that theological approaches tend to de historicize the Bible Scott Stine appropriates Calvin s famous spectacles metaphor to propose a hermeneutical method that orients the Scripture reader both upward theologically and forward redemptive historically The outcome is a unique approach called typological realism emphasizing that God reveals his good purposes along a typological trajectory inviting believers to participate in the journey This book does not seek to offer anything new to Christian interpretation of Scripture but to join together features from oft used approaches that not only fit together thematically but also remedy reductive tendencies The goal is to help those listening to Scripture as God s shepherding voice to hear the fullness of his revelation the purposeful process that culminates in the Beatific Vision

C. : First Supplement Folger Shakespeare Library,1976      Calvinism and the Arts Christopher Richard Joby,2007 It is often thought that the French Reformer John Calvin 1509 1564 had a negative attitude towards the arts particularly visual art However in Calvinism and the Arts A Re assessment Dr Joby argues that in Calvin s writings and in the development of the Reformed tradition more generally it is possible to discern a more positive attitude than has hitherto been recognized He makes a start by examining exactly what type of visual art Calvin rejected and what type he affirmed He goes on to consider how Calvin s epistemology and eschatology can be used to argue for the placing of certain types of art notably histories and landscape paintings within Reformed churches and then devotes separate chapters to reflecting on how music architecture and church decoration within the Reformed tradition provide further arguments for the use of these works of art In the final section he looks at specific histories and landscapes from the Dutch Golden Age and considers how the form and content of both of these types of art provide us with further ontological and epistemological arguments which inevitably lead to the conclusion that their continued exclusion from Reformed churches is no longer tenable
