Ministry And Theology In Global Perspective Contemporary Challenges For The Church:

Ministry and Theology in Global Perspective Don Alvin Pittman, 1996 Compiled by a respected team of theological educators this reader provides important resources for reflection on the opportunities and challenges facing Christian mission and theology in the contemporary global context Ministry and Theology in Global Perspective Wi Jo Kang, 1997

One World Or Many? Richard Tiplady, 2003 This book considers in detail the key drivers of globalization its contemporary shape and its implications for world mission It also looks at the impact of globalization on different contemporary issues affecting mission such as ethnicity the environment and global health as well as globalization s effect on more traditional missionary questions of the world religions contextualization theology and the church One World or Many is written by a variety of authors from all over the world This book was published in partnership with the World Evangelical Alliance Native Americans, The Mainline Church, and the Quest for Interracial Justice David Phillips

Hansen, 2017-01-03 The Native American drive for self governance is the most important civil rights struggle of our time a struggle too often covered up In Native Americans The Mainline Church and the Quest for Interracial Justice David Phillips Hansen lays out the church s role in helping America heal its bleeding wounds of systemic oppression While many believe the United States is a melting pot for all cultures Hansen asserts the longest war in human history is the one Anglo Christians have waged on Native Americans Using faith as a weapon against the darkness of injustice this book will change the way you view how we must solve the pressing problems of racism poverty environmental degradation and violence and it will remind you that faith can be the leaven of justice Thomas Merton and the New World Paul R. Dekar, 2023-01-01 Merton still matters writes Paul R Dekar about Cistercian monk Thomas Merton Calling people to act justly love kindness and walk humbly Merton used his contemplative practice to see beyond what disrupts and divides us from one another to find the truth of our common humanity unity in our creation in the image of God In Thomas Merton and the New World Dekar focuses primarily on two issues of concern to our current world First he studies Merton s warnings of the abuse that stems from unmindful and irresponsible use of technology and its ecological devastation Second he examines Merton s thinking on racial injustice in the mid 1960s through his correspondence with his allies and contemporaries James Baldwin for example Using Micah 6:8 to arrange Merton s focus on justice lovingkindness and humility with input from Merton s dialogue with Gandhi Martin Luther King Rachel Carson and others Dekar demonstrates just how prophetic and transferable Merton s teachings remain The Theologically Formed Heart Warner M. Bailey, Lee C. Barrett, James O. Duke, 2014-09-10 The Theologically Formed Heart invites the reader to consider the role of theology in the formation of virtues and passions and conversely the role of virtues and passions in understanding Scripture theology and living a Christian life The essays in this volume are offered in appreciation of the teaching scholarship and service to the church and world of Professor of Theology David J Gouwens They are organized in three sections theological reflections Reformed theology in service to the church and studies in the thought of Soren Kierkegaard Four important issues are explored from multiple perspectives the Church's coming to terms with religious pluralism in mission inter religious dialogue theological education and ecclesial life the gospel's invitation to welcome communities of difference Reformed aesthetics in Calvin's rhetoric and in contemporary hymnody and Kierkegaard's contribution to theology and ecclesial practice The aims of the book go beyond academic confines Through reading the different essays a personality will emerge who illustrates a life of scholarship that yields itself gladly to the God made known in Jesus Christ Thus beyond imparting new information the book may inspire its readers to their own practice of theologically forming their hearts

Pastoral Theology from a Global Perspective Henry S. Wilson, Judo Poerwowidagdo, Takatso Mofokeng, Robert A. Evans, Alice Frazer Evans, 2005-01-17 Multi cultural and global in design Pastoral Theology from a Global Perspective brings concrete and applicable resources to Christian leaders around the world who are struggling with problems of pastoral care This practical easy to use approach to pastoral theology is designed to hone pastoral skills in five central areas the role of women in church and society empowering marginalized peoples economic justice and ecology reconciliation and peacemaking caring for human needs Fifteen case studies accompanied by teaching notes and commentaries illustrate the diversity and commonalities of pastoral care in different parts of the world an ordained Indian woman assigned as an associate pastor is threatened by male church members who say she is not permitted to preach from the pulpit or serve the Eucharist missionaries to Haiti face critical decisions about supplying chemical fertilizer to a destitute hillside village a Hispanic community considers illegally occupying a government nature reserve to save their community sheep herd a Ugandan pastor deals with violence and healing in a community struggling to recover from civil war

The Faith Next Door Paul D Numrich, 2009-08-13 The religious landscape of the United States has changed dramatically in recent decades How are Christians relating to their Buddhist Hindu Muslim and other new religious neighbors Using local examples The Faith Next Door covers the gamut of Christian responses to America's multireligious reality The book also examines how the events of September 11 2001 have shaped Christian approaches to believers from other faiths from engaging in dialogue to hoping for conversion Here Christian theology meets the multireligious real world with multiple results suggestive of national trends The Faith Next Door will appeal to Christians from all denominations and perspectives who seek models for relationships in the diverse contemporary context It will also inform non Christian readers and general observers of trends in American religion about the variety of local Christian responses to other religions

American Crusade David J. Endres, 2010-08-04 Perhaps no era in Christian history since the time of the apostles presented a greater challenge to the spread of faith than the twentieth century The First World War in particular resulted in nearly disastrous losses for the world mission movement Christian countries were engaged in fratricidal conflict missionaries were forced to return to their homelands and traditional sources of mission funding dried up In response to the missions crisis American Catholic youth devoted themselves to a program of prayer study and sacrifice the Catholic Students Mission

Crusade Beginning with less than fifty members the movement grew to over one million youth and worked to foster support for missionaries in the field promote missionary vocations and educate youth about the needs of the church throughout the world In the course of their crusade the movement's youth were exposed the complexities and challenges of diverse religious political and cultural worlds including illiteracy in rural America communism in China and Eastern Europe and famine and disease in sub Saharan Africa In light of this experience as well as the Second Vatican Council's reformulation of the Catholic Church's approach to missions by the late 1960s the movement began to question its goal of converting the world leading to the Crusade's crisis of faith and eventually to its disbanding By exploring the fascinating story of the Catholic Students Mission Crusade this study offers new insights into the growth of the church amidst contemporary obstacles and historically non Christian cultures providing a bridge to understanding the current challenges to Christian globalization

Education for Reflective Ministry J. A. van der Ven, 1998 The picture that pastors have of themselves and of their experiences in the ministry is ambivalent On the one hand they find the pastoral work which they perform meaningful important and relevant On the other hand pastors suffer from chronic stress of some sort caused by different factors on the micro meso and macro level of religion church and society Many pastors experience the modernization and subsequently the secularization process as a very serious problem which negatively influences religious life within the parish Pastors are bowed down by uncertainty over how their work contributes to the parish mission in today's society and even more so by doubts over what that mission is in particular the diaconal mission Which direction can shall should the pastor take if neither the church nor the theological institutions are able to provide him or her with a clear frame of reference an attractive perspective a convincing policy a plausible course of action and a meaningful set of aims goals and objectives There is no alternative but to risk taking responsibility for oneself and choosing one's own course of action To take this risk is not reckless or foolhardy as long as the choices are always informed by a religious self reflection that is open to tradition as well as to the future This allows the pastor to be his own guide to transgress useless customs and habits and cross the boundaries into as yet unknown territory The task of education must be to provide the foundation that enables the pastor to make those choices and take those risks in a well considered prudent and truly religious manner This study represents not only an interpretative description of some of the education for ministry in today's societal cultural and ecclesiastical context in the western world but also a proposal for a new model the reflective ministry model

Mission, Dialog und Friedliche Koexistenz - Mission, Dialogue, and Peaceful Co-Existence Andrea König, 2010 Dieser Sonderband beinhaltet die Vorträge von 26 Theologinnen und Theologen aus 12 verschiedenen Ländern die sich zu einer einwöchigen Internationalen Sommerschule an der Universität Regensburg versammelten um darüber nachzudenken wie sich Mission und friedliche Koexistenz miteinander vereinbaren lassen Eine zu beobachtende Zunahme nationalistischer und fundamentalistischer Strömungen in vielen asiatischen Ländern in denen Christen weitgehend Minderheiten darstellen aber auch einige Entwicklungen in Deutschland wie Säkularisierung und

Migrantenbewegung zeigen die Dringlichkeit der Auseinandersetzung mit dieser Thematik Die Beitr ge dieses Bandes reflektieren Themengebiete wie Bildung kumene und Historie Teilnehmer und Autoren sind berwiegend Sch ler und Sch lerinnen des Regensburger Systematikers Hans Schwarz dessen Arbeitsgebiete sich in den einzelnen Themengebieten widerspiegeln The special volume in the series Glaube und Denken contains papers presented by 26 theologians from 12 different countries The authors convened at the university of Regensburg for a week long International Summer School They pondered how mission and peaceful co existence can be achieved under newly emerging conditions They observed a rise of nationalistic and fundamentalist currents in many Asian countries in which Christians are often a minority Furthermore developments in Germany such as secularization and the increasing number of believers of other religions through the influx of immigrants show the urgency to reflect on this new situation The collected papers touch topics such as education ecumenism and history Most of the participants are students of the Regensburg systematic theologian Hans Schwarz whose special fields of interest are mirrored in these topics

The Community of the Weak Hans-Peter Geiser,2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism the social the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story

Christian Preaching and Worship in Multicultural Contexts Eunjoo Mary Kim,2017 Can Christian preaching and worship in multicultural contexts be more faithful to the Christian gospel and more meaningful and memorable to worshipers In this book Eunjoo Mary Kim explores this theological and liturgical concern and proposes a paradigm shift from monocultural to multicultural worship This volume will help preachers and worship leaders as well as homiletics and liturgics scholars seek theological and biblical wisdom for the practice of Christian preaching and worship in multicultural contexts Kim also provides homiletical and liturgical insights into this practice By integrating this paradigm shift ministers and worshipers can participate in a life worthy of living together in our multicultural world

Hospitality and the Other Author, Amos Yong,2015-03-04

The Evangelistic Love of God & Neighbor Bishop Scott J. Jones,2010-08-01 There are it seems as many definitions of the term evangelism as there are people doing the defining For some it means proclaiming the gospel to those who have not heard it To others it means making disciples of Jesus Christ To others it means working for the transformation of the world into the kingdom of God For still others it has principally to do with building vibrant healthy congregations Underlying this confusion is a fundamental inability to locate the practice of evangelism within one s overall theological convictions We will never understand the part that proclamation disciple making kingdom building and church growth play in evangelism until we first ask a more important question What does evangelism have to do with who God is What is it we know about God that makes evangelism a central part of what it means to be Christian In this comprehensive theology of evangelism Scott J Jones proposes to ground the practice of evangelism in an understanding of God s love for the world specifically as seen in the incarnation of God in Christ In Jesus God took on all of what it means to be human Because of this evangelism must be a ministry to the whole person The typical distinctions between soul winning social action and church growth evaporate individual conversion and acts of mercy are part of the same ministry of bringing persons more fully into the reign of a loving God

Discerning the Spirit(s) Amos Yong,2019-03-08 Efforts to construct a Christian theology of religions have inevitably stumbled on the Christian scandal of particularity the historical Jesus of Nazareth What however if we began by focusing on the universal presence and activity of God in the world as symbolized by the Holy Spirit Yong develops just such a pneumatological approach to religions drawing by way of resource on the Pentecostal charismatic experience of the Spirit This book thus invites Pentecostals charismatics and other Christians to conceive of how a pneumatological approach to religions can invigorate the wider ecumenical conversation At the same time it also brings recent Pentecostal charismatic scholarship into dialogue with a broader audience including those interested in philosophical theology world religions global spiritualities and comparative religion and theology

Mission in Marginal Places: The Theory Michael

Pears,2016-09-01 This first book in the series presents a thought provoking foundation for contemporary mission Drawing on key theological missiological and social scientific ideas it discusses the fundamentals that provide a basis for place dependent reflective praxis amongst people occupying social margins This fascinating work re energises debate around questions of why and how mission in marginal places should be planned and implemented
