MUHAMMED MAHDI AL-SHARIF, 2014-01-01 Addiction to Religion Mahfooz Kanwar Ph.D., 2015-05-22 After the Second World War in the 1950s and beyond we embraced revolutionary emancipation of women among other things which led to an unprecedented sexual and cultural revolution especially in the West We discarded some of the old ways of doing things and we opened the door to a brand new and modern civilization in the 1960s 1970s and early 1980s The sexual and cultural revolution led us to secularism which challenged many draconian mores including those in Muslim countries such as Pakistan Malaysia Turkey Iran Tunisia and Morocco That was when I published one of my books Sociology of Religion Changing Conceptions in the Structure of Islam However in relatively recent times we have faced the backward process of reverting to traditional norms That reversed cultural change led to fundamentalism including fundamentalism in religion which is a precursor to addiction to religion That has ultimately resulted in national and international terrorism That born again trend encouraged me to do research in this field including addiction to religion That led me to write this book I have concluded in this book that both addiction to drugs and addiction to religion are a disease a delirium and a psychic syndrome influenced by a mental disorder During the last two to three decades there has been a significant rise in religious fundamentalism leading to addiction to religion which has caused global havoc Religion has been hijacked misused and abused largely by semiliterate believers in all organized religions Religious addiction is perhaps worse than drug addiction Other books by the Author 1 The Sociology of Family An Interdisciplinary Approach 2 Sociology of Criminal Behaviour 3 Sociology of Religion Changing Conceptions in the Structure of Islam 4 Murder and Homicide in Pakistan 5 Issues in Canadian Sociology with Hewa 6 Issues in Canadian Sociology 2nd Ed with

Understanding Terrorism Innovation and Learning Magnus Ranstorp, Magnus Normark, 2015-04-24 This book examines the role of terrorist innovation and learning in theory and practice and in the context of three specific EU case studies It is often said that terrorist groups are relatively conservative in character operating in a technological vacuum relying almost exclusively on bombs and bullets This observation masks increasing complexity and creativity and innovation within terrorist groups and one of the most distinguishing features of al Qaeda s terrorist operations is its propensity for remarkable innovation This book examines how and why terrorist groups innovate more generally and al Qaeda related terrorist plots in Europe more specifically The starting point for this book was twofold Firstly to examine the issue of innovation and learning more generically both in theory within specific themes and within the context of al Qaeda s influence on this process Secondly this book examines the evolution of specific al Qaeda related plots in three specific northern EU states the United Kingdom Denmark and Germany where there has been a significant volume of planned failed and executed terrorist plots In particular these case studies explore signs of innovation and learning This book will be of much interest to students of terrorism and counter terrorism political violence security studies and IR in general Modernist Reformers in Islam, Hinduism and Confucianism, 1865-1935 Christian Lekon, 2019-04-11 This volume presents a comparison of seven major religious reformers of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries For Islam Jamal ad Din al Afghani Muhammad Abduh and Muhammad Rashid Rida for Hinduism Dayananda Sarasvati and Swami Shraddhananda for Confucianism Kang Yu wei and Liang Ch i ch ao Each of these reformers attempted to bring a major world religion in line with global modernity by creatively reinterpreting the traditions on which this religion was based The book outlines the lives and major ideas of these reformers highlights the similarities between them interprets their agenda as expressions of peripheral geoculture centrist liberalism antisystemic movements positivism in line with the Modern World System MWS approach and links them with their fundamentalist successors from the mid twentieth to the early twenty first centuries This way the author seeks to redress the Eurocentric bias that sometimes sneaks into the MWS perspective While there are numerous studies dealing with each of these reformers the original contribution of this book is to provide a systematic comparison between them and to interpret them within a larger theoretical framework It will be of interest for scholars and students working on issues related to religion modernity and historical sociology Public Opinion , 1890
