A Historical Study of Christian Education Ruby M. Jackson, 2013-09-20 Christian education recognizes the value of family throughout Scripture it re affirms the centrality of biblical revelation in the teaching process It examines Jesus as teacher mentor and leader It recognizes the role of the Holy Spirit and responds to the Great Commission in ministry and refocuses on education for spiritual growth In this book I have provided biblically supportive documented views of those persons who influenced or those who were influenced by Christian educational concepts in the process of teaching and learning The historians referenced in this book do not claim to be theologians or philosophers but educators with expertise in the area of Christian education The Old and New Testaments will be used as biblical references along with other supporting documents throughout this book to illustrate Gods Word and its implication in the teaching and learning of His people Finally you will have a better understanding of the true meaning of Christian education in the following areas purpose a historical perspective instructional process targeted population leadership home Catalog of Copyright Entries. Thompson, 2008-12-01 Hebrews the second of eighteen volumes in the Paideia commentary series brings the insight of a veteran teacher and writer to bear on a New Testament book whose rich imagery and memorable phrases have long shaped Christian discourse The Paideia series approaches each text in its final canonical form proceeding by sense units rather than word by word or verse by verse Each sense unit is explored in three sections 1 introductory matters 2 tracing the train of thought 3 key hermeneutical and theological questions The commentaries shed fresh light on the text while avoiding idiosyncratic readings attend to theological meaning without presuming a specific theological stance in the reader and show how the text uses narrative and rhetorical strategies from the ancient educational context to form and shape the reader
