International Nuclear Energy Law Claudia Tofan, 2009 The Special Court for Sierra Leone is an independent judicial body set up to try those who bear greatest responsibility for serious violations war crimes and crimes against humanity committed during the Sierra Leone Civil War which began in 1991 and was declared officially over on 18 January 2002 The Special Court was born at the request of the

President Ahmad Tejan Kabbah who on 12 June 2000 wrote a letter to United Nations Secretary General Kofi Annan asking the international community to try those responsible for crimes during the conflict The answer was prompt and on 14 August 2000 the United Nations Security Council adopted Resolution 1315 requesting the Secretary General to start negotiations with the Sierra Leonean government to create a Special Court On 16 January 2002 the UN and Government of Sierra Leone signed an agreement establishing the Court The Court is located in Freetown Currently eleven people have been indicted by the Special Court charged with war crimes crimes against humanity and other serious violations of international humanitarian law Indictments against two of the accused were dropped after their deaths The trials are placed into 3 groups Revolutionary United Front Civil Defence Forces and Armed Forces Revolutionary Council only one trial the one of Charles Taylor was moved to the International Criminal Court in The Hague Our series goal is to present the reasons that led to the establishment of The Special Court and to offer an overview of the cases brought before The Court We also want to add background materials such as basic documents on the tribunal and documents on the conflict

Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 Nuclear Energy Regulation, Risk and The Environment Abdullah Al Faruque, 2018-09-21 Analyzing the impact and benefits of nuclear energy on environment this book examines nuclear treaties in relation to environmental protection highlights legal framework on non proliferation and denuclearization explores treaties on nuclear safety and nuclear security discusses legal regimes on management of nuclear wastes assesses the third party liability regime and discusses the role of IAEA EURATOM and NEA in regulating nuclear energy It explores nuclear energy in the context of climate change and sustainable development This book also examines the international legal framework on notification assistance and emergency preparedness in the event of nuclear accidents considers legal aspects of decommissioning of nuclear power plants and main legislative trends on nuclear energy use in selected countries It also addresses regulatory responses to nuclear energy in the wake of the Fukushima power plant nuclear accident in Japan

Taming The Rays Geoff Meggitt, 2017-12-31 A history of developments in the uses of radioactivity and ionising radiation in the last century and the measures used to protect people from harmful effects The sources of radiation exposure covered include medical uses nuclear power generation and natural ones such as that from radon The book traces the evolution of our understanding of the effects of radiation on the human body particularly those leading to cancer and hereditary diseases One of the key challenges for practitioners was constructing manageable frameworks for evaluating these effects so that there could be effective control and regulation The book emphasises the international nature of these efforts and the need to change approaches as more data became available after the Second World War For the second edition the opportunity has been taken to revise the citation system and make some correction but the major change is the addition of two new Chapters one on nuclear criticality safety and the other on nuclear safety assessment
