A Revolt Against Liberalism A.A.M. van der Linden,2023-04-12 This is the first study to provide a comprehensive picture of the revolt brought about by American radical historians in the 1960s and 1970s With the turbulent sixties as a backdrop the work of radical luminaries like Eugene Genovese Herbert Gutman Staughton Lynd William Appleman Williams and Howard Zinn is discussed These historians made a significant contribution to present day notions about slavery working class history the New Deal the Cold War and a wealth of other subjects Their main target was American liberalism Radical criticism centered on the liberal concepts of the division of power and of the nature of man The acrimonious debate which ensued tore the historical profession apart Therefore most historians have stressed the disagreements between liberals and radicals Yet in this study it will be argued that in some respects the radicals were part and parcel of mainstream historiography though they presented a radical version of it Family Fortunes Leonore Davidoff,Catherine Hall,2013-04-15 Family Fortunes has become a seminal text in class and gender history Published to wide critical acclaim in 1987 its influence in the field continues to be extensive It has cast new light on the perception of middle class society and gender relations between 1780 and 1850 This revised edition contains a substantial new introduction
