Schreiner,Drew S. Holland,2023-06-12 The contextual approach and form criticism are two well established methodologies in Biblical Studies but the natural affinities between the two have historically gone under appreciated Yet the substantial reconsideration of classic tenets of form criticism that has transpired in recent memory has further separated these two like minded methods Through a series of case studies that carefully consider certain Old Testament texts contextually Silhouettes of Scripture Considering the Contextual Approach with Form criticism considers important methodological critiques and fuse elements of both methods in order to not only re focus natural affinities but also more precisely define how contextual studies could proceed Initiated by a literary trigger Schreiner and Holland s method navigates between what has been called parallel o mania and parallel anonia to consider a range of similarities and differences in terms of broad and narrow convergences The result is a work that not only looks upon well known parallels with fresh eyes but also seeks to establish new trajectories
