Tertullian the African David E. Wilhite, 2011-06-24 Who was Tertullian and what can we know about him This work explores his social identities focusing on his North African milieu Theories from the discipline of social cultural anthropology including kinship class and ethnicity are accommodated and applied to selections of Tertullian s writings In light of postcolonial concerns this study utilizes the categories of Roman colonizers indigenous Africans and new elites The third category new elites is actually intended to destabilize the other two denying any essential Roman or African identity Thereafter samples from Tertullian s writings serve to illustrate comparisons of his own identities and the identities of his rhetorical opponents The overall study finds Tertullian s identities to be manifold complex and discursive Additionally his writings are understood to reflect antagonism toward Romans including Christian Romans which is significant for his so called Montanism and Romanized Africans While Tertullian accommodates much from Graeco Roman literature laws and customs he nevertheless retains a strongly stated non Roman ness and an African ity which is highlighted in the present monograph Religion and War from Antiquity to Early Modernity Irene Polinskaya, Alan James, Ioannis Papadogiannakis, 2024-11-28 Responding to the profound challenges of our times this book provides a comparative and cross cultural exploration of the role of religion in war in a long historical perspective from the second millennium BCE and even earlier up to early modernity Individual chapters focus on the ancient Near East the Mediterranean basin Europe and North Africa Widely diverse case studies explore the historic link between the conduct of war and the growing complexity of human society conditioned by the ownership of ideological authority The book explores how in most historical societies this authority was religious Written by experts from different disciplinary perspectives the volume challenges common assumptions about the historical relationship between religion and war and extends our understanding of the dangers and complexities of today's world

Tertullian's Aduersus Iudaeos Geoffrey D. You Belong to Christ J. Brian Tucker, 2011-01-01 You Belong to Christ explores the way that the Apostle Paul sought to form the social identity of one of his most important Christ following communities It sheds light on the way various social identities function within the Pauline community and provides guidance concerning the social implications of the gospel Drawing from contemporary social identity theories as well as ancient source material J Brian Tucker describes the way 1 Corinthians 1 4 forms social identity in its readers so that what results is an alternative community with a distinct ethos in contrast to the Roman Empire and its imperial ideology This book contends that previous identities are not obliterated in Christ but maintain their fundamental significance and serve to further the Pauline mission by means of social integration Providing a comprehensive survey of Christian identity in Pauline studies as well as an interesting look into the material remains of Roman Corinth this volume provides a social scientific reading of 1 Corinthians 1 4 and argues that Paul's strategy was to form salient in Christ social identity in those to whom he wrote

Holy Bishops in Late Antiquity

Claudia Rapp,2013-05-01 Between 300 and 600 Christianity experienced a momentous change from persecuted cult to state religion One of the consequences of this shift was the evolution of the role of the bishop as the highest Church official in his city from model Christian to model citizen Claudia Rapp s exceptionally learned innovative and groundbreaking work traces this transition with a twofold aim to deemphasize the reign of the emperor Constantine which has traditionally been regarded as a watershed in the development of the Church as an institution and to bring to the fore the continued importance of the religious underpinnings of the bishop s role as civic leader Rapp rejects Max Weber s categories of charismatic versus institutional authority that have traditionally been used to distinguish the nature of episcopal authority from that of the ascetic and holy man Instead she proposes a model of spiritual authority ascetic authority and pragmatic authority in which a bishop s visible asceticism is taken as evidence of his spiritual powers and at the same time provides the justification for his public role In clear and graceful prose Rapp provides a wholly fresh analysis of the changing dynamics of social mobility as played out in episcopal appointments
