Robert Owen and the Commencement of the Millennium Edward Royle, 1998-07-15 Europe was swept by revolution in the period from 1789 to 1848 Britain alone of the major western powers seemed exempt from this revolutionary fervour The governing class attributed this exemption to divine providence and the soundness of the British Constitution This view has been upheld by historians for over a century This book provides students with an alternative view of the potential for revolution and the resources of conservatism in early industrial Britain which challenges many of the common assumptions Incorporates quotations from primary sources to give the reader a critical sense of why revolution was taken seriously by people at the time Shows how the revolutionaries were defeated by the government's propaganda against revolutionary sentiments and the strength of popular conservatism

Catalogue of Music and Musical Literature Contained in the Library of St. Martin's Hall Saint Martin's Hall (LONDON), 1850 Catalogue of music and musical literature London St.

Martin's hall, libr, 1850 London Voices, 1820-1840 Roger Parker, Susan Rutherford, 2019-12-09 London 1820 The British capital is a metropolis that overwhelms dwellers and visitors alike with constant exposure to all kinds of sensory stimulation Over the next two decades the city's tumult will reach new heights as population expansion places different classes in dangerous proximity and ideas of political and social reform linger in the air London begins to undergo enormous infrastructure change that will alter it forever It is the London of this period that editors Roger Parker and Susan Rutherford pinpoint in this book which chooses one broad musical category voice and engages with it through essays on music of the streets theaters opera houses and concert halls on the raising of voices in religious and sociopolitical contexts and on the perception of voice in literary works and scientific experiments with acoustics Emphasizing human subjects this focus on voice allows the authors to explore the multifaceted issues that shaped London from the anxiety surrounding the city's importance in the musical world at large to the changing vocal imaginations that permeated the epoch Capturing the breadth of sonic stimulations and cultures available and sometimes unavoidable to residents at the time London Voices 1820-1840 sheds new light on music in Britain and the richness of London culture during this period Music in Independent Schools Bernarr Rainbow, Andrew Morris, 2014 The first serious study of music in independent schools which bears eloquent witness to a high standard achieved over the last fifty years This is the first serious study of music in independent schools The high standard of musical work in such schools has long been known but now Andrew Morris and his team have provided up to date information There are contributions from seven individual schools Bedford Dulwich Eton Gresham's St Paul's Uppingham and Workshop as well as chapters about Girls' Schools Preparatory Schools Choir Schools and Specialist Schools Andrew Morris was Director of Music at Bedford School for thirty-two years and was President of the Music Masters and Mistresses Association in 1996-97 He is thus ideally placed to mastermind a substantial compendium which is eminently readable and absorbing The book includes material from Bernarr Rainbow's study Music in the English Public School 1990 and brings it up to date As a historian Rainbow looked back at how music developed in independent schools Progress was slow even tortuous but Rainbow's fascinating documents supported by his commentary show how idealism won through and Morris and his colleagues bear eloquent witness to the very positive development over the last fifty years ANDREW MORRIS taught in secondary modern grammar and comprehensive schools in London before becoming Director of Music at Bedford School for thirty-two years He was President of the Music Masters and Mistresses Association from 1996-97 and President of the RAM Club at the Royal Academy of Music 2005-06 He has examined for the ABRSM for over thirty years BERNARR RAINBOW 1914-1998 is widely recognised as the leading authority on the history of music education His seminal books are all published by Boydell and are listed on the back pages of this volume His series of Classic Texts in Music Education is a major resource and in 1997 he founded the Bernarr Rainbow Trust which supports projects in music education

CONTRIBUTORS Catherine Beddison Elizabeth Blackford Timothy Daniell Richard Mayo James Peschek Alastair Sampson Graham Smallbone Jonathan Varcoe Myfanwy Walters Nathan Waring Robert Weaver Hilary Webster George Eliot, Music and Victorian Culture Delia da Sousa Correa, 2002-11-18 George Eliot was passionate about music and her writing is steeped in musical allusion This book explores musical reference in her work and investigates contexts such as Eliot's friendship with Wagner the legacy of Romanticism music's role in scientific theory and the ambivalent status of female musicality The book establishes how intensely Eliot's musical allusions are informed by her contemporary culture and offers a fresh view of the experimental writing through which she took literary realism into previously uncharted regions

Scripture and Song in Nineteenth-Century Britain James Grande, Brian H. Murray, 2023-11-16 This volume brings together new approaches to music history to reveal the interdependence of music and religion in nineteenth century culture As composers and performers drew inspiration from the Bible and new historical sciences called into question the historicity of Scripture controversies raged over the performance publication and censorship of old and new musical forms From oratorio to opera from parlour song to pantomime and from hymn to broadside nineteenth century Britons continually encountered elements of the biblical past in song Both elite and popular music came to play a significant role in the formation regulation and contestation of religious and cultural identity and were used to address questions of class nation and race leading to the beginnings of ethnomusicology This richly interdisciplinary volume brings together musicologists historians literary and art historians and theologians to reveal points of intersection between music religion and cultural history
