Manuscripts In Transition Recycling Manuscripts Texts And Images Proceedings:

Manuscripts in Transition Brigitte Dekeyzer, Jan van der Stock, 2005 Manuscripts in Transition Recycling Manuscripts Texts and Images gathers together some 40 contributions by art historians specialised in research into book illuminations from the time of Charlemagne to Charles V's Habsburg empire ca 800 ca 1550 The accent is mainly on the art of the illumination in the Gothic Burgundian and Post Burgundian periods This anthology is the product of an international conference held in Brussels in 2002 in connection with the exhibition Medieval Mastery Book Illumination from Charlemagne to Charles the Bold 800 1475 Leuven Stedelijk Museum Vander Kelen Mertens The central focus of the conference was the systematic re use of texts and images in the Middle Ages The examination of this theme resulted in the present fascinating series of articles Medieval Manuscripts in Transition Geert H. M. Claassens, Werner Verbeke, 2006 In Medieval Manuscripts in Transition various scholars investigate the ways in which the study of manuscripts can contribute to interpretation or provide insight Homer's Iliad and the Trojan War Jan Haywood, Naoise Mac Sweeney, 2018-03-22 In this new volume Jan Haywood and Naoise Mac Sweeney investigate the position of Homer's Iliad within the wider Trojan War tradition through a series of detailed case studies From ancient Mesopotamia to twenty first century America these examples are drawn from a range of historical and cultural contexts and from Athenian pot paintings to twelfth century German scholarship they engage with a range of different media and genres Inspired by the dialogues inherent in the process of reception the book adopts a dialogic structure In each chapter paired essays by Haywood and Mac Sweeney offer contrasting authorial voices addressing a single theme thereby drawing out connections and dissonances between a diverse suite of classical and post classical Iliadic receptions The resulting book offers new insights both into individual instances of Iliadic reception in particular historical contexts but also into the workings of a complex story tradition The centrality of the Iliad within the wider Trojan War tradition is shown to be a function of conscious engagement not only with Iliadic content but also with Iliadic status and the iconic idea of the Homeric Piety in Pieces Kathryn M. Rudy, 2016-09-26 Medieval manuscripts resisted obsolescence Made by highly specialised craftspeople scribes illuminators book binders with labour intensive processes using exclusive and sometimes exotic materials parchment made from dozens or hundreds of skins inks and paints made from prized minerals animals and plants books were expensive and built to last They usually outlived their owners Rather than discard them when they were superseded book owners found ways to update amend and upcycle books or book parts These activities accelerated in the fifteenth century Most manuscripts made before 1390 were bespoke and made for a particular client but those made after 1390 especially books of hours were increasingly made for an open market in which the producer was not in direct contact with the buyer Increased efficiency led to more generic products which owners were motivated to personalise It also led to more blank parchment in the book for example the backs of inserted miniatures and the blank ends of textual components Book buyers of the late fourteenth and throughout the fifteenth century still held onto the old connotations of manuscripts that they were custom made luxury items even when the production had become impersonal Owners consequently purchased books made for an open market and then personalised them filling in the blank spaces and even adding more components later This would give them an affordable product but one that still smacked of luxury and met their individual needs They kept older books in circulation by amending them attached items to generic books to make them more relevant and valuable and added new prayers with escalating indulgences as the culture of salvation shifted Rudy considers ways in which book owners adjusted the contents of their books from the simplest add a marginal note sew in a curtain to the most complex take the book apart embellish the components with painted decoration add more quires of parchment By making sometimes extreme adjustments book owners kept their books fashionable and emotionally relevant This study explores the intersection of codicology and human desire Rudy shows how increased modularisation of book making led to more standardisation but also to more opportunities for personalisation She asks What properties did parchment manuscripts have that printed books lacked What are the interrelationships among technology efficiency skill loss and standardisation Anglo-Saxon Manuscripts Helmut Gneuss, Michael Lapidge, 2014-01-01 Anglo Saxon Manuscripts is the first publication to list every surviving manuscript or manuscript fragment written in Anglo Saxon England between the seventh and the eleventh centuries or imported into the country during that time Each of the 1 291 entries in Helmut Gneuss and Michael Lapidge s Bibliographical Handlist not only details the origins contents current location script and decoration of the manuscript but also provides bibliographic entries that list facsimiles editions linguistic analyses and general studies relevant to that manuscript A general bibliography designed to provide full details of author date references cited in the individual entries includes more than 4 000 items Compiled by two of the field s greatest living scholars the Gneuss Lapidge Bibliographical Handlist stands to become the most important single volume research tool to appear in the field since Greenfield and Robinson s Bibliography of Publications on Old English Literature Their achievement in the present book will endure for many decades and serve as a catalyst for new research across several disciplines How the Page Matters Bonnie Mak, 2011-01-01 From handwritten texts to online books the page has been a standard interface for transmitting knowledge for over two millennia It is also a dynamic device readily transformed to suit the needs of contemporary readers In How the Page Matters Bonnie Mak explores how changing technology has affected the reception of visual and written information Mak examines the fifteenth century Latin text Controversia de nobilitate in three forms as a manuscript a printed work and a digital edition Transcending boundaries of time and language How the Page Matters connects technology with tradition using innovative new media theories While historicizing contemporary digital culture and asking how on screen combinations of image and text affect the way conveyed information is understood Mak s elegant analysis proves both the timeliness of studying interface design and the persistence of the page as a communication mechanism The Aura of the Word in the Early Age of Print (1450-1600) Jessica

Buskirk, Samuel Mareel, 2017-07-05 Did the invention of movable type change the way that the word was perceived in the early modern period In his groundbreaking essay The Work of Art in the Age of Mechanical Reproduction the cultural critic Walter Benjamin argued that reproduction drains the image of its aura by which he means the authority that a work of art obtains from its singularity and its embeddedness in a particular context The central question in The Aura of the Word in the Early Age of Print 1450 1600 is whether the dissemination of text through print had a similar effect on the status of the word in the early modern period In this volume contributors from a variety of fields look at manifestations of the early modern word in English French Latin Dutch German and Yiddish as entities whose significance derived not simply from their semantic meaning but also from their relationship to their material support to the physical context in which they are located and to the act of writing itself Rather than viewing printed text as functional and lacking in materiality contributors focus on how the placement of a text could affect its meaning and significance The essays also consider the continued vitality of pre printing press kinds of text such as the illuminated manuscript and how new practices such as the veneration of handwriting sprung up in the wake of the invention of movable type The Cambridge Handbook of Play Peter K. Smith, Jaipaul L. Roopnarine, 2018-11-15 Play takes up much of the time budget of young children and many animals but its importance in development remains contested This comprehensive collection brings together multidisciplinary and developmental perspectives on the forms and functions of play in animals children in different societies and through the lifespan The Cambridge Handbook of Play covers the evolution of play in animals especially mammals the development of play from infancy through childhood and into adulthood historical and anthropological perspectives on play theories and methodologies the role of play in children's learning play in special groups such as children with impairments or suffering political violence and the practical applications of playwork and play therapy Written by an international team of scholars from diverse disciplines such as psychology education neuroscience sociology evolutionary biology and anthropology this essential reference presents the current state of the field in play research Arthurian Literature Bart Besamusca, Frank Brandsma, Keith Busby, 2007 Essays demonstrating that Arthur belonged to the whole of Europe not just England 2005

Massimo Mastrogregori, 2009-12-22 Annually published since 1930 the International Bibliography of Historical Sciences IBOHS is an international bibliography of the most important historical monographs and periodical articles published throughout the world which deal with history from the earliest to the most recent times The IBOHS is thus currently the only continuous bibliography of its kind covering such a broad period of time spectrum of subjects and geographical range The works are arranged systematically according to period region or historical discipline and alphabetically according to authors names or in the case of anonymous works by the characteristic main title word The bibliography contains a geographical index and indexes of persons and authors
