Maps that Made History Lez Smart,2004 Maps That Made History Lez Smart,2005-04-30 Few people can resist the appeal of old maps and plans Even in these days of disposable mapping from satellite navigation to customized road directions at the click of a mouse the historical map continues to present a unique perspective on our changing world Here we explore 25 glorious examples The emphasis is on the story behind the map what it reveals about its creator and users from the first explorers to the railway builders This thought provoking collection features maps that chart societies as well as land sea and skies maps that have influenced and inspired and perhaps most revealing of all maps that misrepresent The Dundurn Group The Dundurn Group, Culloden Tony Pollard,2009-09-19 A team of historians and archaeologists re-examine what happened at the Battle of Culloden between the Scottish Jacobites and Great Britain In battle at Culloden Moor on April 16 1746 the Jacobite cause was dealt a mortal blow The power of the Highland clans was broken And the image of sword wielding Highlanders charging into a hail of lead delivered by the red coated battalions of the Hanoverian army has passed into legend The battle was a turning point in British history And yet our perception of this critical episode tends to be confused by mistaken sometimes partisan views of the events on the battlefield So what really happened at Culloden In this fascinating and original book a team of leading historians and archaeologists reconsiders every aspect of the battle They examine the latest historical and archaeological evidence question every assumption and rewrite the story of the campaign in vivid detail This is the first time that such a distinguished team of experts has focused on a single British battle The result is a seminal study of the subject and it is a landmark publication of battlefield archaeology Praise for Culloden Culloden is one of the best documented British battles and also one of the most mapped yet the contributions to this fine volume have succeeded in finding new material Scotts Magazine UK Dundurn Spring/Summer 2006 Cat Dundurn Press Limited,2006-01-01 Saracens and Franks in 12th - 15th Century European and Near Eastern Literature Aman Y. Nadhiri,2016-06-10 Saracens and Franks in 12th 15th Century European and Near Eastern Literature examines the tension between two competing discourses in the medieval Muslim Mediterranean and medieval Christian Europe one rooted in the desire to understand the world and one's place in it and another promoting an ethnocentric narrative To this end it examines the construction of an image of the Other for Muslims in the Eastern Mediterranean and for Christians in Western Europe in works of literature particularly in the works produced in the centuries preceding the Crusades and it explores the ways in which both Muslim and Christian writers depicted the Enemy in historical accounts of the Crusades The author focuses on medieval works of ethnography and geography travel literature Muslim and Christian accounts of the Crusades and the romances of Western Europe to trace the evolution of the image of the Eastern Mediterranean Muslim in medieval Western Europe and the Western European Christian in the medieval Muslim world first to understand the construct in the respective scholarly communities and then to analyze the ways in which this conception informs subsequent works of non fiction and fiction in the Western European context in which this Muslim or Christian Other plays a prominent role In its analysis of the medieval Mediterranean Muslim and European Christian approaches to difference this book interrogates the premises underlying the concept of the Other challenging formulations of binary opposition such as the West versus Islam Muslims

The Bio-Politics of the Danube Delta Constantin Iordachi, Kristof Van Assche, 2014-12-11 In this volume Constantin Iordachi and Kristof Van Assche take an interdisciplinary look at the history policy and culture of the development and politics of the Danube Delta

Remapping 'Crisis' Myrto Tsilimpounidi, Aylwyn Walsh, 2014-06-27 In periods of intense crisis the pressing need to take sides comes to the surface and trumps neutrality The claim to objectivity always a little problematic can no longer be sustained and becomes itself a ground of confrontation as the conflicts amongst economists and constitutional lawyers show As the world is moving towards a state of permanent crisis the engaged intellectual and the committed media are coming back Costas Douzinas Professor of Law and Contributor to The Guardian This is a crucial collection that provides a new perspective on the social dimension of crisis exemplified in the new wave of social mobilization gaining ground across the globe The collection is an invigorating addition to the market of ideas circulating at this time of uncertainty austerity and social change It is an important and timely contribution to the study of social movements and the rise of direct civil action in pursuit of democracy In this milieu of social change Athens is its muse This book is one of the first collections of chapters devoted to the specificities of Greece's crisis in English that does not focus solely on economics Its scope and intention aligns it with other recently published books on the Arab Spring and the Occupy movements although its register moves away from journalistic commentary to academic considerations of futurity and the potential of the city to reinvent itself This makes it a unique interdisciplinary project with a broad appeal
