Marcel Proust And The Creative Encounter:

Marcel Proust and the Creative Encounter George Stambolian,1972 Marcel Proust and the Creative Encounter George Stambolian,1972 Marcel Proust George Stambolian,1972 Proust and America Michael Murphy,2007-12-01
An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library It is strange Proust wrote in 1909 that in the most widely different departments there should be no other literature which exercises over me so powerful an influence as English and American In the spirit of Proust s admission this engaging and critical volume offers the first comparative reading of the French novelist in the context of American art literature and culture In addition to examining Proust s key American influences Ralph Waldo Emerson Edgar Allen Poe and James McNeill Whistler Proust and America investigates the previously overlooked influence of the American neurologist George Beard whose writings on neurasthenia and American nervousness contributed to the essential modernity of the author s work

Proust, the One, and the Many Erika Fulop,2017-12-02 One of the many aspects that make Marcel Prousts A la recherche du temps perdu such a complex and subtle work is its engagement with metaphysical questions The disparate nature of the narrators experiences hypotheses and statements has generated a number of conflicting interpretations based on parallels with the thought of one or another philosopher from Plato to Leibniz Spinoza Schopenhauer Nietzsche Bergson or Deleuze Through the analysis of the narrators two seemingly incompatible perceptions of the world which reveal reality to be either one or infinitely multiple Erika Fuelop proposes a reading of the novel that reconciles the opposites Rather than being undecided or self contradictory the narrative thematizes the insufficiency of the dualist perspective and invites the reader to take a step beyond it Erika Fuelop is an independent researcher whose doctoral thesis completed at the University of Aberdeen is at the basis of this monograph Marcel Proust Harold Bloom,2004 A collection of essays written by various scholars critically analyzing the life and works of French author Marcel Proust Includes analyses of characters themes and symbolism in Proust s major works Also contains an annotated bibliography that can be used for finding further information

The Gardens of Desire Stephen Gilbert Brown,2012-02-01 The Gardens of Desire is at once a model of literary interpretation and a groundbreaking psychocritical reading of a literary masterpiece Marcel Proust s la recherche du temps perdu Remembrance of Things Past Shedding new light on the origins of the creative impulse in general and on the psychological origins of the Recherche in particular the book illuminates the hidden associations between matricidal suicidal sadistic masochistic homoerotic and creative impulses as manifested in Proust s work The book moves beyond traditional Freudian readings of Proust to consider the theories of Otto Rank Jacques Derrida and others and provides provocative readings of the privileged moments that comprise many of the work s critical cruxes as well as a thought provoking rereading of the novel s ending Both elegant and accessible this book boldly explores the violence of desire as it relates not only to Proust s narrator but also to Proustian criticism itself with its own violent desire to appropriate the essence of Proust s masterpiece The City as Catalyst Diana Festa-McCormick, 1979 A series of ten chapters on cities as pictured and explored by as many novelists In these ten separate yet connected chapters the city is not merely a setting for the events but a moving force and the catalyst for action Chronology and Time in A la Recherche Du Temps Perdu Gareth H. Steel, 1979
