

In that moment, stood in front of his own mother wearing lingerie, time seemed to stop for Travis. He barely registered her voice as she finally broke the silence. "Shh... it's ok, dear, if this is what you want... we're going to figure this all out, okay?"

"It's not... I just want things to go back to normal..." he croaked. There was a ringing sound in his ears.

"Oh honey, I know this must all be very confusing to you... how do you think I feel? But you can't just cover it up and hope it goes away..."

One last sense of defiance bubbled up within him. "No. NO! You're not listening to me. That's not what I meant. I don't want ANY of this! It isn't ME!"

Travis gestured around the room, aware of how ridiculous his protest must look given what he was currently wearing. He reached behind his back and started numbly wrestling with the bra, but he couldn't figure out the mechanism.

"Oh, not this nonsense again. What, did Mia dress you against your will this morning? Or did they just appear by magic?"

"Mum"

Travis's mum let out a long sigh. "I just don't know what to do with you!" She threw her hands up. "Right, well until you're prepared to be honest with me you're not to leave this room, you understand? We'll try to have this conversation again at dinner..."

Defeated, Travis zoned out again, managing only the occasional nod or shake of the head as his mother's voice droned on. Before he knew it, he was alone again and following his mum's instructions to hang up all the clothes in his wardrobe, on full display. Underwear was neatly folded up and placed alongside his boxers, and it was only after completing this tedious task that he started to properly surface again.

Shit - what he had just done? He should be getting rid of the clothes, not putting them away like they were his! And even worse, he was still wearing the damned lingerie! Furious with himself, he prised the clothes off as he heard his mum's voice calling him to dinner.

He threw on his jeans and a shirt and backed out of his room, carefully eyeing the pile on his floor as if it might suddenly reappear on him at any moment. Satisfied that he seemed safe, he bounded down the stairs, but as he hurried he realised too late that he'd been right to be suspicious. Unable to slow his momentum, he landed at the bottom of the stairs and felt the all-too-familiar sensation of air around his legs. He heard a sharp intake of breath from the hallway and didn't need to turn around to know it was his mum.

He looked down and there it was - a skirt and some ballet pumps, clear as day. Subconsciously he tugged on the sides of the skirt to try and cover up more, then hated himself for making such a feminine gesture. God damnit, she was going to think this was his choice!

"Oh, that's... um, that's a nice skirt, dear. Why don't you come on through and take a seat, Mia will be down soon... then we can talk this all through, hm?"
