Adventures in Paranormal Investigation Joe Nickell, 2014-04-23 Tales of alien abductions miraculous relics and haunted castles have attracted believers and skeptics across the globe for centuries Paranormal investigator Joe Nickell tackles the world's most seemingly inexplicable myths in Adventures in Paranormal Investigation With four decades of experience in the field Nickell employs skepticism and scientific analysis to pull truth from the mires of false evidence and trickery that surround both old and new legends and mysteries Unlike authors who engage in hype and sensationalism in order to foster or debunk myths Nickell approaches each case with a rational and scientific approach intended to find the truth Occam's Razor all things being equal the simplest solution is the best one is a principal instrument in his investigative toolbox as well as the belief that it is the claimant's responsibility to provide the extraordinary proof required in such extraordinary cases Adventures in Paranormal Investigation features Nickell's on site explorations in unusual phenomena

Among the forty unique cases Nickell examines mysteries ranging from snake charmers who purport to hold influence over the reptiles to the Holocaust victims who reportedly haunt a gas chamber in Dachau to Lake Simcoe's resident lake monster Igopogo in Canada. In addition to the case studies Nickell analyzes how the propensity to fantasize can affect human perceptions of and belief in paranormal activity and how his personal experience with the paranormal was altered when intuition led to the discovery of a daughter he didn't know existed. More than just another myth busting text Adventures in Paranormal Investigation brings together reason and scientific analyses to explain both the phenomena and the role of human perception therein establishing Nickell as the foremost paranormal investigator of our time. Expressions of Religion Eugenia Roussou, Clara Saraiva, 2019 This volume brings together experts in ethnology anthropology folklore sociology and history of art in order to discuss the varieties of religious expression through ritual performance empirical ethnographic analysis and sensory modes of perception. The primary goal of the book is to re-centralize the importance of expressing religion through performance art and the senses and to approach performative action as religion in a variety of sociocultural historical political and spiritual contexts. The authors in this volume examine in distinct yet convergent ways how religion is creatively expressed ritually performed and sensorially experienced at present and or in the past. The significance of this book lies exactly on the richness and diversity of expressions of religion that are presented here and on the multi-disciplinary dialogue that is generated among diverse theoretical analytical and methodological approaches.
