Black Pain Terrie M. Williams, 2009-01-06 Terrie Williams knows that Black people are hurting She knows because she's one of them Terrie had made it she had launched her own public relations company with such clients as Eddie Murphy and Johnnie Cochran Yet she was in constant pain waking up in terror overeating in search of relief For thirty years she kept on her game face of success exhausting herself daily to satisfy her clients needs while neglecting her own Terrie finally collapsed staying in bed for days She had no clue what was wrong or if there was a way out She had hit rock bottom and she needed and got help She learned her problem had a name depression and that many suffered from it limping through their days hiding their hurt As she healed her mission became clear break the silence of this crippling taboo and help those who suffer Black Pain identifies emotional pain which uniquely and profoundly affects the Black experience as the root of lashing out through desperate acts of crime violence drug and alcohol abuse eating disorders workaholism and addiction to shopping gambling and sex Few realize these destructive acts are symptoms of our inner sorrow Black people are dying Everywhere we turn in the faces we see and the headlines we read we feel in our gut that something is wrong but we don't know what it is It's time to recognize it and work through our trauma In Black Pain Terrie has inspired the famous and the ordinary to speak out and mental health professionals to offer solutions The book is a mirror turned on you Do you see yourself and your loved ones here Do the descriptions of how the pain looks feels and sounds seem far too familiar Now you can do something about it Stop suffering The help the community needs is here a clear explanation of our troubles and a guide to finding relief through faith therapy diet and exercise as well as through building a supportive network and eliminating toxic people Black Pain encourages us to face the truth about the issue that plunges our spirits into darkness so that we can step into the healing light You are not on the ledge alone Jet ,2000-09-25 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news Jet ,2000-09-25 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news Black Passports Stephanie Y. Evans,2014-05-15 A resource guide that uses African American memoir to address a variety of issues related to mentoring and curriculum development In this resource guide for fostering youth empowerment Stephanie Y Evans offers creative commentary on two hundred autobiographies that contain African American travel memoirs of places around the world The narratives are by such well known figures as Frederick Douglass W E B Du Bois Billie Holiday Maya Angelou Malcolm X James Baldwin Muhammad Ali Richard Pryor Angela Davis Condoleezza Rice and President Barack Obama as well as by many lesser known travelers The book addresses a variety of issues related to mentoring and curriculum development It serves as a tool for literary mentoring where students of all ages can gain knowledge and wisdom from texts in the same way achieved by one on one mentoring and it also provides ideas for incorporating these memoirs into lessons on history geography vocabulary and writing Focusing on four main mentoring themes life school work and cultural exchange Evans encourages readers to comb the texts for models of how to manage attitudes behaviors and choices in order to be successful in transnational settings This book provides a new and refreshing way to think about Black youth and issues of empowerment It will be a useful tool for teachers parents scholars and community organizers leaders and activists Valerie Grim Indiana University Bloomington Exposing the "Culture of Arrogance" in the Academy Gail L. Thompson,Angela C. Louque,2023-07-12 There generally remains a gulf between the way most Black faculty perceive the racial climate at their institutions and the recognition by non Black faculty and administrators that there are problems and that these perceptions have merit This book is intended to promote a productive dialogue This book weaves the authors own experiences with the responses of 136 Black faculty to a questionnaire and a smaller sample who were interviewed to identify the factors that determine Black faculty s satisfaction or dissatisfaction with their jobs and institutions Recurring themes underscore the importance of a supportive work environment that is built on mutual respect full inclusion in the decision making process and an institutional climate that does not tolerate cultural insensitivity or racism The qualitative and quantitative information and the authors conclusions can help postsecondary institutions improve Black faculty satisfaction levels and ultimately retention rates This book will resonate with any Black faculty who have felt frustrated enough to consider leaving a postsecondary institution and with those who are content at their current institutions For non Black faculty and for administrators of all races the book illuminates the sources of job satisfaction and dissatisfaction explains the reasons their Black colleagues leave or stay and offers valuable recommendations for change For anyone at any level interested in the issue of the racial climate at his or her institution this book offers a constructive framework for discussion and action The Library Journal ,2000 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Jet ,2001-09-10 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news Put on Your Crown!
