Miracles And Other Realities:

Miracles and Other Realities Lee Pulos, Gary Richman, 2021-02-23 Once in a generation a person of extraordinary psychic powers comes along Miracles and Other Realities tells the true story of Thomaz Green Morton a gifted psychic from the Minas Gerais region of Brazil Originally published in 1990 and now rereleased for a modern audience Miracles and Other Realities recounts the fascinating story of Thomaz Green Morton and his powerful psychic abilities This book will turn the heads of scientists whose traditional acceptance of reality has been limited to that which can be measured objectively and will introduce to a wider audience the power of mind over matter Thomaz s story begins when he is struck by lightning on his twelfth birthday This electrical insult to his body detonated a dazzling range of paranormal abilities Severe electric shock is incidentally common to the childhood experience of every major psychic Thomaz has since been called the most powerful psychic in the world Driven by his mind to the farther reaches of reality to produce psychic phenomena such as metal bending spiritual healing and transmutations of matter Thomaz s feats are well documented by the authors The story is all the more captivating because Thomaz is graced with a childlike emotional temperament making him intent on living life to its fullest Coauthors Lee Pulos and Gary Richman explore through Thomaz the ways in which magic or miracles challenges the conventional view of reality thereby shaking up rational belief systems that inhibit the experience of new realms of possibility Readers will find Thomaz s story compelling not only as a real life example of human potential but as a metaphor for unleashing other realities and levels of consciousness to tap into the potential within themselves Miracles... and Other

Ordinary Things Lana Ford, 1995-10-01 What do you feel when a physician tells you that you have a brain tumor and that you are going to die in a few months How do you cope with two children under the age of three when the tumor leads to blindness How do you make sense of your life when the physician angry that you didn t die mumbles that he will now have to treat you as if you have multiple sclerosis Lana Ford was faced with these questions and began to answer them one by one over a two year period She was forced to examine the meaning of life to sort through her beliefs about health and illness living and dying and to discard all the cultural programming she had accepted since childhood Then she began to play with inventing other realities visualizing the internal workings of her own body and refusing to believe in anything outside her own experience She trusted only the inner wisdom found in meditation including exploration of past lives and conversations with angels Her body began healing and within months she was symptom free and has remained so for more than twenty years Yet at the time she knew in her heart that no one would believe her story In the twenty years following her illness she has been a seeker of wisdom finding information from ancient texts asking for translations of the Hebrew she found herself chanting studying with eminent astrologers theologians shamans quantum physicists and those on the leading edge exploring realms of consciousness With both humor and scientific evidence she shares the wisdom she found that miracles lie in the mysterious interpretations we make of the events in our own lives and the connections we make with each other Coming

The Epistemological Basis for Belief according to John's Gospel David A. Redelings, 2011-09-23 This book a revision of the author's dissertation describes the grounds on which knowledge about God is possible according to the Gospel of John. In response to modern questions and doubts about the possibility of religious knowledge, John's answers are identified and illuminated using standard historical method. A major part of this investigation is spent showing that for readers of all persuasions it is clear that certain parts of John's Gospel were never intended as either fiction or metaphor.
