Mirage On The Amazon:

Mirage on the Amazon Mary Kistler, 1987 Fifteen Thousand Miles on the Amazon and Its Tributaries Charles Barrington Brown, William Lidstone, 1878 Policing the Amazon Vicente Riccio, Guilherme Lopes da Cunha, 2024-11-18

This edited collection discusses the rule of law in the Amazon and the capabilities of the region's sovereign states to police their territory considering security matters. Comprised of nine countries including a European Union member the Amazon region features states facing political instability, poverty, social inequalities, high levels of corruption and lack of trust by their populations. This context is aggravated by the presence of criminal organizations operating there and shaping transnational bonds. Notably the world's foremost cocaine producing countries Colombia, Peru and Bolivia are located in the region presenting related turmoil and instability. Moreover as home to the largest rainforest on Earth and the widest biodiversity the region is an object of concern due to environmental reasons. The protection of these natural resources as well as the traditional peoples living there is intertwined with issues of development, security and policing. The book delves into questions on the international agenda such as how is it possible to sustain the rule of law in the Amazon. What are the states' capabilities for controlling the territory and enforcing the law? How do these states deal with the growing urban violence in the region? What are the capabilities of public authorities for proposing laws and policies and judicial systems to process, prevent and suppress different crimes such as drug dealing, smuggling, human trafficking, terrorism and environmental crimes? The book fills a gap in English language scholarship exploring the context of the rule of law in the Amazon and the impact on policing activities. It is ideal for a wide range of audiences including policing scholars, law enforcement and community leaders and students focusing on criminal justice and the Amazon.

The Andes and the Amazon Charles Reginald Enock, 1907 Frontier Making in the Amazon Antonio Augusto Rossotto Ioris, 2020-01-21

This book discusses the outcomes of more than ten years of research in the southern tracts of the Amazon region and addresses the expansion of the agricultural frontier, consolidation of the agribusiness based economy and expansion of regional infrastructure, roads, dams, urban centres etc. It combines extensive empirical evidence with the international literature on frontier making and regional Amazonian development and adopts a critical politico-geographical perspective that will benefit scholars in various other disciplines. This book is intended to push the current theoretical and methodological boundaries regarding the controversies and impacts of agribusiness in the region. A new international scientific network led by the author is investigating the broader context of the themes analysed here.

The Amazon Euclides da Cunha, 2006-11-06

In the eight pieces that make up Land Without History first published in Portuguese in 1909, Euclides da Cunha offers a rare look into twentieth century Amazonia and the consolidation of South American nation states. Mixing scientific jargon and poetic language the essays in Land Without History provide breathtaking descriptions of the Amazonian rivers and the ever changing nature that surrounds them. Brilliantly translated by Ronald Sousa, Land Without History offers a view of the ever changing ecology of the

Amazon and a compelling testimony to the Brazilian colonial enterprise and its imperialist tendencies with regard to neighboring nation states
