Shadowbound Dianne Sylvan,2014-03-25 Spread throughout the dark corners of our world lies the Shadow World a society of vampires who feed off the living In Austin Texas one woman must quell the cravings rising within her as the very fate of the world rests in her hands Ever since her Prime David Solomon returned from the dead Miranda Grey has been hungry The transformation from ordinary vampires into the ultrapowerful children of Persephone has left both Miranda and David craving the taste of death and their appetites are growing Meanwhile a formerly vague threat from a fringe group of humans has turned into a full on war The Order of the Morningstar has devoted itself to eradicating vampires and has begun to assassinate Primes all over the globe The Shadow World s fate depends on the Circle of Signets descended from those who subdued Morningstar hundreds of years ago but if even a single one is killed the war is almost certainly lost Now with the help of a strange new ally Miranda must put aside her hunger and access long forgotten magic to save the Circle but time is running out

The Wilderness Within Kristina K. Groover,1999-01-01 America s literature is notably marked by a preoccupation with the spiritual quest Questing heroes from Huck Finn to Nick Adams have undertaken solitary journeys that pull them away from family and society and into a transformative wilderness that brings them to a new understanding of the spiritual world Women however have not often been portrayed as questing heroes Bound to home and community they have been more frequently cast as representatives of that stifling world from which the hero is compelled to flee Are women in American literary texts thus excluded from spiritual experience Kristina K Groover in examining this question finds that books by American women writers offer alternative patterns for seeking revelation patterns which emphasize not solitary journeys but the sacredness of everyday life Drawing on the work of feminist theorists and theologians including Carol Gilligan Naomi Goldenberg and Rosemary Ruether Groover explores the spiritual nature and force of domesticity community storytelling and the garden in the works of such writers as Toni Morrison Katherine Anne Porter Kaye Gibbons and Alice Walker Ordinary personal experience in these works becomes a source for spiritual revelation Wisdom is gained lessons are learned and lives are healed not in spite of home and communal ties but because of them Thus American women writers Groover argues make alternative literary and spiritual paradigms possible Similarly Kristina K Groover in this lucid and groundbreaking work opens up new fields of exploration for any reader interested in women s spirituality or in the rich diverse field of American literature
