Schwab, Helen Gray-Ice, Florence R. Prentice, 2006-04-18 The family that most fundamental of human groups is currently perceived to be changing in response to social biological cultural and technological developments in our postmodern society While the observed changes in families have been considered by some sociologists to be evidence of adaptation and therefore normal the authors of this volume consider them maladaptive Viewing society from the point of view of clinical psychiatry they point to greatly increased numbers of children born to single mothers soaring rates of divorce a statistically confirmed increase in mental disorders increase in reported incest high rates of depression in younger people and escalation of the amount of reported family violence as evidence that the family as a social institution is in crisis and can either move toward renewed vitality or continued deterioration Perceiving a need to obtain information about family functioning that might lead to the increased stability and well being of this critically important type of system Dr John Schwab and his associates designed and carried out a research program that began with a thorough review of relevant literature beginning with LePlay s study of 300 families in the 1850 sand including important recent statistical studies They found that although these studies represent advances in understanding the family system some serious problems with the research remain one of which is confounding variables such as family function and mental or substance abuse disorders so that if a family member has a problem such as drug abuse the family is classified as dysfunctional Mirror for Man Clyde Kluckhohn, 1944 Medieval Muslim Philosophers and Intercultural Communication Wisam Kh. Abdul-Jabbar, 2022-12-30 This book examines the works of Medieval Muslim philosophers interested in intercultural encounters and how receptive Islam is to foreign thought to serve as a dialogical model grounded in intercultural communications for Islamic and Arabic education The philosophers studied in this project were instructors tutors or teachers such as Al Kindi Al Farabi Al Ghazali and Averroes whose philosophical contributions

Economic Anthropology François Régis Mahieu, 2023-03-10 Traditionally economic anthropology has been studied by sociologists anthropologists and philosophers seeking to highlight the social foundations of economic action Meanwhile anthropological questions have remained largely untreated in economics despite the prominence given to the individual in microeconomics And there is very little in the way of dialogue between the two sides This book argues for a new economic anthropology which goes beyond the conflict of economics and anthropology to show the complementarity of the two approaches Economics needs to go beyond the stage of homo oeconomicus and be open to broader ideas about the person Equally anthropology can be enriched through the methods and models of economic theory This new economic anthropology goes beyond a simple observation of societies It is new because it introduces the responsible person with a wider range of characteristics in particular vulnerability and suffering as a subject of economics It is a particular interpretation of economic anthropology calling for a broadening of the subject moving from the individual to the person range of values admission of negative values for altruism social capital responsibility and disciplinary references Through this approach both economics and anthropology can be enriched This book will be of great interest to those working in the fields of economics anthropology philosophy and development studies

Ancient Greek Women in Film Konstantinos P. Nikoloutsos, 2013-10 This volume examines cinematic representations of ancient Greek women from the realms of myth and history It discusses how these female figures are resurrected on the big screen by different filmmakers during different historical moments and are therefore embedded within a narrative which serves various purposes depending on the director of the film its screenwriters the studio the country of its origin and the sociopolitical context at the time of its production Using a diverse array of hermeneutic approaches such as gender theory feminist criticism psychoanalysis viewer response theory and personal voice criticism the essays aim to cast light on cinema's investments in the classical past and decode the mechanisms whereby the women under examination are extracted from their original context and are brought to life to serve as vehicles for the articulation of modern ideas concerns and cultural trends The volume thus aims to investigate not only how antiquity on the screen depicts and in this process distorts compresses contests and revises antiquity on the page but also more crucially why the medium follows such eclectic representational strategies vis vis the classical world

Culture. A Philosophical Perspective Martine Lejeune, 2016-12-12 This book attempts to grant a clear insight into the problem of culture Thinking about culture we are faced with the inevitable and apparently insuperable problem of how to study culture in the absence of a consensual definition of this notion For several reasons the anthropologists Claude Lévi Strauss and Clifford Geertz provide an ideal starting point for tackling this issue Firstly both graduated in philosophy before turning to anthropology Secondly the linguistic model based approach they initiated is founded on the general belief that language is a feature which all men have in common And thirdly when taken together the conclusions reached by Lévi Strauss and Geertz which contradict one another yield a clear view on the conceptual complexity of culture

Classic Anthropology John William Bennett, Classic Anthropology is Bennett's label for the work produced by anthropologists during the period 1915-1955 which many believe represents the most productive era in the discipline's history It is also one that can never be repeated given the fact that most of anthropology's basic data the ideas and customs of tribal peoples have been extinguished or greatly transformed by modernization and nationalization The book is composed of some fifteen essays Among the issues examined are the emergence of a functionalist viewpoint in ethnology the difficulties of developing a theory of human behavior because of the focus on culture the search for concepts of culture to serve specialized needs the neglect of social psychology by the culture and personality field how value judgments emerged willy nilly or conversely were neglected in ethnological research how applied anthropology was challenged by Action Anthropology and how the interdisciplinary anthropology of the late 1940s was submerged in the postwar effort to return the discipline to traditional roots Individual anthropologists whose work is examined include among others Bronislaw Malinowski Leslie Spier Alfred Kroeber Ralph Linton Margaret Mead Ruth Benedict Clyde Kluckhohn Gregory Bateson and Walter Taylor

Pentecostal Exorcism Opoku

Onyinah,2019-05-21 Witchcraft and exorcism have long been dominant features of life in African cultures This unique book provides a thorough field research based description and analysis of a specifically Pentecostal Christian response to these phenomena within the Akan culture of Ghana Anthropological studies generally claim that the ultimate goal of exorcism is modernisation Using interdisciplinary studies with a theological focus the author takes a different view arguing that it is divinatory consultation or an inquiry into the sacred and the search for meaning that underlies the current deliverance ministry where the focus is to identify and break down the so called demonic forces by the power of God and to deliver people from their torment The deliverance ministry is one attempt to contextualise the gospel for African people However preoccupation with demonisation and exorcistic practices is found to bring Christianity into tension with the Akan culture family ties and other religions In order to develop a properly safeguarded ministry of exorcism in an African context the author examines contextualisation and suggests the integration into African Christianity of divinatory consultation which has strong resonances with the biblical concept of prayer
