

Mirror, Mask, and Shadow

A journey into the unknown regions of the self

Have you ever asked yourself these questions?

- Would people like me if they knew what I was really like?
 - Why do I always feel like I don't belong?
 - Why do I spend so much time searching for someone to love?
 - Why do I have thoughts I'm ashamed to admit?
 - How can I overcome my shyness?
 - Why am I constantly attracted to the wrong kind of person?

Read Mirror, Mask, and Shadow and find out how getting to know your hidden self can win you lasting confidence and self-acceptance.

The Treatment of Shame and Guilt in Alcoholism Counseling Ron Potter-Efron,Patricia Potter-Efron,2013-04-15

This insightful new book sheds light directly on shame and guilt interactive aspects of the human condition that are deeply involved in the development and treatment of alcoholism and chemical dependency Contributors to this valuable book discuss the process of healing internalized shame within the chemically dependent client and among the family members They explore creative techniques that foster understanding and coping strategies videotaping and storytelling with clay and stuffed animals Professionals who are experienced in treating chemically dependent clients and their families explore shame and the healing of shame while examining the culture within which both occur A major focus is the destructiveness of shame and guilt shame keeps the family from seeking help erodes self worth and produces destructive secrets that cannot heal and guilt may circulate freely between alcoholic and family members so that everyone begins to feel responsible for the pain of others

Treatment of Complex Trauma Christine A. Courtois,Julian D. Ford,2015-09-21 The research base on complex psychological trauma has grown significantly in recent years Yet even with the development of more effective techniques for treating complex trauma survivors therapists often struggle to build strong relationships with these severely distressed clients In this guide the authors present an approach for helping adult clients move through the three phases of posttraumatic recovery and for managing the inevitable roadblocks and relationship issues that occur The introductory chapters explore how complex trauma emerges from chronic victimization and the disruption of attachment bonds in childhood or adulthood and review diagnostic considerations Two extended case examples highlight clinical issues that arise with this population and running throughout the chapters show how to use a secure therapeutic alliance as a foundation for utilizing evidence based treatment strategies The authors demonstrate ways to weave together elements of cognitive behavioral psychodynamic relational and systemic therapies along with other proven approaches in the service of working toward clearly defined therapeutic goals In Phase 1 the emphasis is basic safety and personal stabilization Phases 2 and 3 address trauma processing and the challenges of creating a new more satisfying life Strategies for tailoring interventions to each individual s needs and strengths aided by ongoing assessment are detailed Applications in group couple and family therapy are also discussed
