Kant on Conscience Emre Kazim,2017-01-23 In Kant on Conscience Emre Kazim offers the first systematic treatment of Kant s theory of conscience Contrary to the scholarly consensus Kazim argues that Kant s various discussions of conscience as practical reason as a feeling as a power as a court as judgement as the voice of God etc are philosophically coherent aspects of the same unified thing Unity Thesis Through conceptual reconstruction and historical contextualisation of the primary texts Kazim both presents Kant s notion of conscience as it relates to his critical thought and philosophically evaluates the coherence of his various claims In light of this Kazim shows the central role that conscience plays in the understanding of Kantian ethics as a whole

Shakespeare's Mirrors Edward Evans,2024-09-26 Clear mirrors and The Geneva Bible revolutionary innovations of the Elizabethan age inspired Shakespeare s drive towards a new purpose for drama Shakespeare reversed the conventional mirror metaphor for drama implying drama cannot reflect the substance of human nature and developed a method of characterization through metadrama self awareness and soliloquy to project St Paul s idea of conscience onto the Elizabethan stage This revolutionary method of characterization aesthetic existence beyond performance has long been sensed but remains frustratingly uncategorized Shakespeare s Mirrors charts the invention of a drama that staged the unstageable St Paul s metaphysical conception of human nature glimpsed through a looking glass darkly Chapters 4 and 6 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

The Preacher.. ,1830 The Material Culture of Sex, Procreation, and Marriage in Premodern Europe A. McClanan,K. Encarnación,2016-09-23 This interdisciplinary anthology takes as its starting point the belief that as the material grounds of lived experience material culture provides an avenue of historical access to women s lives extending beyond the reaches of textual evidence Studies here range from utilitarian tools used in Late Roman abortion to sacred magical or ritual objects associated with sex procreation and marriage in the Renaissance Together the essays demonstrate the complex relationship between language and object and explore the ways in which objects become forms of communication in their own right transmitting both rather specific messages and more generalized social and cultural values

Smith, 2017-12-08 What strange transactions take place in the mobile spaces between loci How does the flow of forces between fixed points enliven texts suggest new connections and map out the dizzying motion of myriad interactions The essays in this volume were first presented at the 2014 New Chaucer Society Congress in Reykjavik Iceland where a meeting of minds in a shared intermediate space initiated dialogue from diverse perspectives and wended its way through the invisible spaces between concrete categories objects and entities The resulting volume asks a core question what can we learn by tarrying at the nexus points and hubs through which things move in and out of texts attempting to trace not the things themselves or their supposedly stable significations but rather their forms of emergence and retreat of disorder and disequilibrium The answer is complex and intermediate for we ourselves are emerging and retreating within our own systems of transit and experiencing our own disequilibrium Scholarship like transit is never complete and yet never congeals into inertia Through the manifold explorations of the dynamic transit transports scapes and flows found within literary and Chaucerian thought worlds new vistas of motion and motivation emerge Following John Urry's mobile sociology the volume advances the notion that we can no longer view either social worlds or textual worlds as uniform surfaces upon which one can trace or write a history of the horizontal movements of humans and human mentalities rather everything is in constant motion objects images information ideas and mobility is thus also vertical involving human and non human actants The essays in this volume consider then how medieval literary texts in Chaucer's period warp time and space by the means of sophisticated transit and transport structures which might be traced within specific works but also across works such as in text networks Motive entities within literature twist and turn interact and collide and destabilise predictable trajectories with unpredictable vigor
