Duclow a leading scholar in the field of Cusanus studies in particular and of the history of mystical theology and Neoplatonic philosophy more generally      Unconscious Thought in Philosophy and Psychoanalysis John Shannon Hendrix, 2015-07-28 The book explores concepts throughout the history of philosophy that suggest the possibility of unconscious thought and lay the foundation for ideas of unconscious thought in modern philosophy and psychoanalysis The focus is on the workings of unconscious thought and the role it plays in thinking language perception and human identity      The Contradiction Between Form and Function in Architecture John Shannon Hendrix, 2013 Continuing the themes that have been addressed in The Humanities in Architectural Design and The Cultural Role of Architecture this book illustrates the important role that a contradiction between form and function plays in compositional strategies in architecture The contradiction between form and function is seen as a device for poetic expression for the expression of ideas in architecture The book contributes to the project of re-establishing architecture as a humanistic discipline to re-establish an emphasis on the expression of ideas and on the ethical role of architecture to engage

On Doubt Vilém Flusser, 2015-07-31 In On Doubt Vil m Flusser refines Martin Heidegger s famous declaration that language is the dwelling of Being For Flusser the word is the dwelling of being because in fact in the beginning there was the word On Doubt is a treatise on the human intellect its relation to language and the reality forming discourses that subsequently emerge For Flusser the faith that the modern age places in Cartesian doubt plays a role similar to the one that faith in God played in previous eras a faith that needs to be challenged Descartes doubts the world through his proposition cogito ergo sum but leaves doubt itself untouched as indubitable and imperious His cogito ergo sum may have proved to the Western intellect that thoughts exist but it did not prove the existence of that which thinks one can eliminate thinking and yet continue being Therefore should we not doubt doubt itself Should we not try to go beyond this last step of Cartesian doubt and look for a new faith The twentieth century has seen many attempts to defeat Cartesian doubt however this doubt of doubt has instead generated a complete loss of faith which the West experiences as existential nihilism Hence the emergent emptying of values that results from such extreme doubt Everything loses its meaning Can this climate be overcome Will the West survive the modern age
