Misplaced Alice Matt Briggs, 2002-09      The Book Review Digest ,2003      Book Review Index ,2006 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation      Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction 2007 ,2008-02      Historical Dictionary of the Broadway Musical William A. Everett, Paul R. Laird, 2015-11-12 The Broadway musical has greatly influenced both American and world culture Shows such as Oklahoma and Annie Get Your Gun are as American as apple pie while the long runs of imports such as Cats The Phantom of the Opera and Les Misrables have broken records Shows filled with rock and pop music such as Mamma Mia and Wicked enthrall audiences and revivals of beloved shows play an important role in contemporary Broadway culture Actors Ethel Merman Yul Brynner Julie Andrews Bernadette Peters and Audra McDonald composers and lyricists Irving Berlin George Gershwin Cole Porter Richard Rodgers Oscar Hammerstein Leonard Bernstein Stephen Sondheim John Kander Fred Ebb and Jeanine Tesori and directors and choreographers George Abbott Agnes de Mille Jerome Robbins Bob Fosse Tommy Tune and Susan Stroman to name only a few have gained national and international recognition by way of the Broadway musical stage This second edition of Historical Dictionary of the Broadway Musical contains a chronology an introduction an appendix and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 1000 cross referenced entries on Broadway shows composers playwrights directors producers designers actors and theatres This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Broadway musicals      The Billboard ,1928      The Material Culture of English Rural Households c. 1250-1600 Ben Jervis, Chris Briggs, Alice Forward, Tomasz Gromelski, Matthew Tompkins, 2023-09-20 This book presents a synthesis and analysis of the possessions of non elite rural households in medieval England Drawing on the results of the Leverhulme Trust funded project Living Standards and Material Culture in English Rural Households 1300 1600 it represents the first national scale interdisciplinary analysis of non elite consumption in the later Middle Ages The research is situated within debates around rising living standards in the period following the Black Death the commercialisation of the English economy and the timing of a revolution in consumer behaviour Its novelty derives from its focus on non elite rural households Whilst there has been considerable work on the possessions of the great households and those living in larger towns researchers have struggled to identify appropriate sources for understanding the possessions of those living in the countryside even though they account for the majority of England's population at this time This book will address the gap in understanding The study combines 3 sources of data to address 2 questions what goods did medieval households own and what influenced their consumption habits The first is archaeological evidence comprising 14 706 objects recovered from archaeological excavations The book synthesises this data much of which is unpublished and therefore inaccessible to researchers The second dataset derives from lists of the seized goods of felons outlaws and suicides collated by the Escheator a royal official in the 14th and 15th centuries The work of the Escheator is not well understood but these lists relating to some of the poorest people in medieval society for whom traditional sources such as wills and probate inventories do not exist provide new insights into the living standards of rural households The lists typically detail and value the possessions of a household meaning that it is possible to present a quantitative analysis of non elite consumption for the first time The final dataset draws on equivalent lists generated by the Coroner for the 16th century An interdisciplinary approach is essential as many objects identified archaeologically do not occur in the written records and goods such as textiles do not survive in the ground Drawing these sources together therefore allows the presentation of a more comprehensive analysis of the possessions of medieval households The introduction lays out the research context in a manner accessible to historians and archaeologists who may not be familiar with work in each other s disciplines This is followed by a brief summary of the research methodology and the sources underpinning the research The next 5 chapters focus on addressing the question of what medieval households owned discussing the evidence for kitchen equipment tableware furniture clothing and personal items The following 3 chapters discuss household economy considering the evidence for the production of goods variation in consumption between town and country and variation in accordance with wealth firstly through the consideration of these themes at the national scale and secondly through a regional case study focussed on Wiltshire which has particularly rich archaeological and documentary sources The volume closes with a concluding chapter which places the research back into its wider context

Popular Children's Literature in Britain Julia Briggs,Dennis Butts,Matthew Orville Grenby,2008 Responding to the astonishing success of J K Rowling and other contemporary authors the editors of this timely volume take up the challenge of assessing the complex interplay of forces that have generated and sometimes sustained the popularity of children s books Ranging from eighteenth century chapbooks to the stories of Enid Blyton and Roald Dahl and from science schoolbooks to Harry Potter these essays show how authorial talent operates within its cultural context to make a children s classic
