

THE MYSTERY OF HEALING

When Healing Doesn't Come...

Anyone who prays for people will admit they struggle with why some are healed and others are not. Praying for the sick means you will see some healed and you will rejoice. You will also see many not healed and wonder why they were not healed.

It is the cross of praying for those with illnesses of the body, mind and or spirit that not everyone for whom you pray gets healed. So, what do you think and do when healing doesn't come?

Religion, Spirituality, and Public Health Karen O'Brien-Kop, Suzanne Newcombe, 2025-10-14 Religion Spirituality and Public Health focuses on exploring the role of different ways of knowing or arriving at truth i.e. epistemes particularly those found in religious and alternative health milieus While biomedical solutions offer a dominant narrative these are articulated differently in global contexts Moreover individuals often draw upon alternative framings that are sometimes oppositional to and at other times engaged with directives from medical and governmental authorities The focus of this volume is worldviews and epistemes that are often marginalised or rejected in dominant discourses from shamanism in Korea to African Pentecostalism in Britain and from global online AntiVax narratives to traditional Siddha medicine in South India Detailed case studies explore the contested competing and strategically aligned relationships between mainstream and marginal epistemes between religious healing spirituality and biomedicine and between politics and belief These explorations promote greater insight into how marginalised religious epistemes are employed Which beliefs and practices are drawn upon to create meaningful and effective responses And how can we better understand the depth and breadth of these reactions to design more successful public health strategies for future global health crises
