Radical Christian Communities:

Radical Christian Communities Thomas P. Rausch, 2002-09-27 Throughout the centuries certain Christians chose to live out the challenges of the Gospel in communities that withdrew from the common and conventional in the world This book studies this phenomenon and focuses on a number of contemporary Christian communities lay and religious who respond to the Gospel call to discipleship in a radical way whether by being communities of peace and reconciliation of social ministry and solidarity with the poor of service to the Church or of prayer and contemplation Radical Religious Communities ,2025-06-30 The twenty first century has demonstrated that radicalism remains a vital analytical concept in the study of modern religion and politics However its application to earlier periods has been met with more ambivalence This volume challenges that trend by examining religio political subversives near the close of the Middle Ages as radical within their historical and intellectual contexts spanning several centuries and cultures with a focus on Central Europe In doing so it seeks to bridge entrenched geographical chronological and methodological divides fostering broader discussions on the comparative relevance of radicalism in pre modernity Transforming Faith Communities Michael I. Bochenski, 2013-03-14 Transforming Faith Communities argues for a model of being church that combines congregationalism with a constructive approach to church state relationships Congregationalism within a vision for a renewed Christendom is commended here as a viable option for Christian mission in the twenty first century world In making this case two movements are explored those inspired by sixteenth century Anabaptism and late twentieth century Latin American liberation theology Each movement is held up as a mirror to the other A continuing vision for the transformation of church and society emerges from this book as a number of contemporary resonances begin to sound These include an outline of some likely common features in the development of radical religious communities an examination of some of the factors that create world affirming Christian faith communities and many examples of effective and constructive engagement with church and society across the centuries
