Held Captive by Gas Joshua Posner, 2019-08-22 Gas makes or breaks economies as shown by the effects of the 2009 Ukraine Russia gas supply crisis Joshua Posner looks at four case study countries in Central and Eastern Europe He examines the interdependence between the domestic political structure of a gas import dependent country and the price it paid for imports up to 2014 using the level of reliance on the dominant supplier as an indicator The more dependent a country is on a single supplier the more it pays for its supplies The author aims to explain why capitals prioritize energy security and balance their import portfolios differently while taking a new angle on the European gas system He
