Simple Sermons on the New Testament Texts W. Herschel Ford, 1985-05-01 Simple Sermons on New Testament Texts William Herschel Ford, 1974-01 The sermon Bible [extr. from sermons on the Bible by various authors], 1892 The New England Soul : Preaching and Religious Culture in Colonial New England Harry S. Stout John B. Madden Master of Berkeley College and Jonathan Edwards Professor of American Christianity Yale University, 1986-09-04 Throughout the colonial era New England's only real public spokesmen were the Congregational ministers One result is that the ideological origins of the American Revolution are nowhere more clearly seen than in the sermons they preached The New England Soul is the first comprehensive analysis of preaching in New England from the founding of the Puritan colonies to the outbreak of the Revolution Using a multi disciplinary approach including analysis of rhetorical style and concept of identity and community Stout examines more than two thousand sermons spanning five generations of ministers including such giants of the pulpit as John Cotton Thomas Shepard Increase and Cotton Mather George Whitefield Jonathan Edwards Jonathan Mayhew and Charles Chauncy Equally important however are the manuscript sermons of many lesser known ministers which never appeared in print By integrating the sermons of ordinary ministers with the printed sermons of their more illustrious contemporaries Stout reconstructs the full import of the colonial sermon as a multi faceted institution that served both religious and political purposes and explicated history and society to the New England Puritans for one and a half centuries Herald and Presbyter, 1896 The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1886

The African Sermons Albert Schweitzer, 2003-04-01 Every Sunday in Lambar n Gabon Albert Schweitzer delivered an outdoor sermon in French Although never intended for publication many of the sermons were transcribed by Schweitzer's listeners. Translated into English and collected in one volume for the first time, Steven E. G. Melamed's surviving sermons make a great contribution to the field, characterizing Schweitzer's simplicity of language, his emphasis on personal conduct, and his adaptation of biblical stories to the everyday realities of African life. Delivered between 1913 and 1935, these sermons evolved as Schweitzer matured and became more attuned to his surroundings. Since it contains what is most likely the entire extant corpus of Schweitzer's sermons in Africa, this book fills a significant gap in Schweitzer scholarship, affording unique insight into his own beliefs and the prevailing European attitude toward Africans. Text Messages John Tucker, 2017-12-06 Facebook Twitter Snapchat We live in a rapidly changing world, a world that seems to be increasingly inhospitable toward preaching. In the face of digital technology, social media, cultural pluralism, and pastoral burnout, how can Christian preachers proclaim the gospel faithfully and effectively? This book answers that question by bringing together a selection of important voices from across North America, Asia, and the Pacific. It argues that Spirit-empowered preaching is characterized by five attributes: it opens the Scriptures, engages the culture, addresses the listener, dissects the preacher, and elevates the Savior. With contributions from authors like William Willimon, Darrell Johnson, Lynne Baab, Robert Smith Jr., and Paul Windsor, this is an excellent resource for ordained ministers, lay preachers, theological students, and anyone wrestling with the challenge of preaching God's word in a smartphone world. The Oxford

Moore, 1974-07-11 A study of four Durham mining villages in the period 1870 to 1926, which examines the effects of Methodism on the political life of the villages during an especially important phase of trade union and political history. Professor Moore's research is both vivid and scholarly. He lived in the community he can report first-hand on the villagers he talked with, and at the same time he produces an ambitious contribution to the social sciences. Preaching Christ from
