Overland To The Rockies:

Overland to the Rockies Wesley Fox,1984 News of the Plains and Rockies, 1803-1865 ,1996 The Northern Rockies Stephen J. Pyne,2016-09-13 It s a place of big skies and big fires big burns like those of 1910 and 1988 that riveted national attention Conflagrations like those of 1934 and 2007 that reformed national policy Blowups like that in Mann Gulch that shaped the literature of American fire Big fires mostly hidden in the backcountry like the Fitz Creek and Howler fires that inspired the practice of managed wildfires Until the fire revolution of the 1960s no region so shaped the American way of fire The Northern Rockies remain one of three major hearths for America s fire culture They hold a major fire laboratory an equipment development center an aerial fire depot and a social engagement with fire even a literature Missoula is to fire in the big backcountry what Tallahassee is to prescribed burning and what Southern California is to urban wildland hybrids On its margins Boise hosts the National Interagency Fire Center In this structured collection of essays on the region Stephen J Pyne explores what makes the Northern Rockies distinctive and what sets it apart from other regions of the country Surprisingly perhaps the story is equally one of big bureaucracies and of generations that encounter the region s majestic landscapes through flame The Northern Rockies is part of a multivolume series describing the nation s fire scene region by region The volumes in To the Last Smoke also cover Florida the Northern Rockies the Great Plains the Southwest and several other critical fire regions The series serves as an important punctuation point to Pyne s 50 year career with wildland fire both as a firefighter and a fire scholar These unique surveys of regional pyrogeography are Pyne s way of keeping with it to the end encompassing the directive from his rookie season to stay with every fire to the last smoke The Mountains We Have Crossed Sarah Gilbert White Smith,Asa Bowen Smith,Clifford Merrill Drury,1999-01-01 Four newlywed couples along with one single man were sent to Oregon in 1838 to reinforce the two year old mission established by Marcus Whitman and Henry Spalding These reinforcements were to become legendary in the history of the Pacific Northwest for the incessant bickering and petty jealousies that eventually caused the deaths of Marcus and Narcissa Whitman and forced the abandonment of the mission effort Uncertainty and conflict as well as willpower and endurance mark the story of the Oregon Mission and its charismatic though contentious missionaries Simply getting to Oregon in the 1830s was a feat Once they arrived their efforts were doomed by their inability to agree on strategies for converting the Nez Perc and Spokane Indians This Bison Books edition contains the very personal diary of Sarah Smith the weeping one as the Indians remembered her When read in chronological sequence with the nearly one hundred letters written by her husband Asa a compelling picture of their journey to Oregon and subsequent life at the mission emerges Other letters documents and biographical sketches enhance the volume Edwin Wolf,Royal Irish Academy,2009-12 Volume v 5 6 Publisher Dublin Publication date 1882 Subjects Irish philology Societies etc Notes This is an OCR reprint There may be typos or missing text There are no illustrations or indexes When you buy the General Books edition of this book you get free trial access to Million Books com where you can select

Motor West and California Motor ,1918 Sale Anderson Galleries, Inc,1922 A History of American Law

Lawrence M. Friedman,2019-09-09 Renowned legal historian Lawrence Friedman presents an accessible and authoritative history of American law from the colonial era to the present day This fully revised fourth edition incorporates the latest research to bring this classic work into the twenty first century In addition to looking closely at timely issues like race relations the book covers the changing configurations of commercial law criminal law family law and the law of property Friedman furthermore interrogates the vicissitudes of the legal profession and legal education The underlying theory of this eminently readable book is that the law is the product of society In this way we can view the history of the legal system through a sociological prism as it has evolved over the years Teaching Africa George J. Sefa Dei,2009-12-04 One is always struck by the brilliant work of George Sefa Dei but nothing so far has demonstrated his pedagogical leadership as much as the current project With a sense of purpose so pure and so thoroughly intellectual Dei shows why he must be credited with continuing the motivation and action for justice in education He has produced in this powerful volume Teaching Africa the same type of close reasoning that has given him credibility in the anti racist struggle in education Sustaining the case for the democratization of education and the revising of the pedagogical method to include Indigenous knowledge are the twin pillars of his style A key component of this new science of pedagogy is the crusade against any form of hegemonic education where one group of people assumes that they are the masters of everyone else Whether this happens in South Africa Canada United States India Iraq Brazil or China Dei s insights suggest that this hegemony of education in pluralistic and multi ethnic societies is a false construction We live pre eminently in a world of co cultures not cultures and sub cultures and once we understand this difference we will have a better approach to education and equity in the human condition Continental Reckoning Elliott West,2023-02 Finalist for the 2024 Pulitzer Prize in History Winner of Columbia University s 2024 Bancroft Prize in American History Winner of the 2024 Caughey Western History Prize Winner of the 2024 Spur Award Named a Best Civil War Book of 2023 by Civil War Monitor In Continental Reckoning renowned historian Elliott West presents a sweeping narrative of the American West and its vital role in the transformation of the nation In the 1840s by which time the United States had expanded to the Pacific what would become the West was home to numerous vibrant Native cultures and vague claims by other nations Thirty years later it was organized into states and territories and bound into the nation and world by an infrastructure of rails telegraph wires and roads and by a racial and ethnic order with its Indigenous peoples largely dispossessed and confined to reservations Unprecedented exploration uncovered the West s extraordinary resources beginning with the discovery of gold in California within days of the United States acquiring the territory following the Mexican American War As those resources were developed often by the most modern methods and through modern corporate enterprise half of the contiguous United States was physically transformed Continental Reckoning guides the reader through the rippling multiplying changes wrought in the western half of the country arguing that these changes should be given equal billing with the Civil War in this crucial transition of national life As the West was acquired integrated into the nation and made over physically and culturally the United States shifted onto a course of accelerated economic growth a racial reordering and redefinition of citizenship engagement with global revolutions of science and technology and invigorated involvement with the larger world The creation of the West and the emergence of modern America were intimately related Neither can be understood without the other With masterful prose and a critical eye West presents a fresh approach to the dawn of the American West one of the most pivotal periods of American history Time Briton Hadden, Henry Robinson Luce, 1928 Reels for 1973 include Time index 1973 The Literary Digest Edward Jewitt Wheeler, Isaac Kaufman Funk, William Seaver Woods, Arthur Stimson Draper, Wilfred John Funk, 1922 High Plains Expansion Project, 2007 Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature, 1915 A Junior History of the United States John William Gibson, 1914 Literary Digest: a Repository of Contemporaneous Thought and Research as Presented in the Periodical Literature of the World Edward Jewitt Wheeler, Isaac Kaufman Funk, William Seaver Woods, 1922 Plains & Rockies, 1800-1865, 2001 A new and important bibliographical addition to travel and adventure in the American West this work expands on the basic reference work in the field The Plains and the Rockies A Critical Bibliography of Exploration Adventure and Travel in the American West 1800 1865 begun by Henry R Wagner and continued by Charles L Camp and Robert H Becker A direct but independent outgrowth of David A White s 8 volume series News of the Plains and Rockies 1803 1865 Spokane Washington 1996 2001 this bibliography contains accounts discovered during the series development and production which fit the guidelines of Wagner Camp and Becker but that were not included in their listings Wagner s basic bibliography expanded from 349 items to 700 from its first issue in 1920 to the Becker revision of 1982 This new work adds 120 items to the catalog The additions proposed emphasize genuine travels but also include a few historic armchair documents and one piece of fiction Many are from government documents some from magazine articles and a few from the more important and early newspaper accounts Some promotional tracts are added as well The names of those whose sources are listed include Ezekiel Williams his pioneering journeys to Colorado John Ball his earliest printed account of Oregon settlers William Walker the 1833 letter that touched off the Oregon missionary movement Virginia E B Reed her account of the Donner Party 1847 Julia Archibald Holmes her letter on her 1858 ascent of Pike s Peak Gov James Douglas his 1858 62 first reports of the Fraser River and Cariboo gold rushes Theodore Judah his 1860 defining document for the Central Pacific Railroad Charles Farrar Browne humorist Artemus Ward s 1864 travels among the Mormons and Lucinda Eubank and Nancy Morton their 1864 65 captivities The Reprints A sampling of 33 of the 120 additions to the bibliography judged to be the more important or appealing is reprinted here in the format adopted by the News of the Plains series with detailed introductions by the editor The items reprinted are the best of the shortest accounts Many of these short items are also of the greatest historical interest including the first good record of fur hunting in the Rocky Mountains the first enunciation of the Great American Desert concept the first government report on the Missouri fur trade the first tribute to the explorations of Jedediah Smith the first article on white women crossing the Rockies the first notice of Whitman's famous winter ride the first official Mormon confirmation of their intended Western haven the first word on Aubrey's record horseback ride the first news of the Gunnison and Grattan massacres and the first reports of American scientific explorations overland to Alaska Though independent of the News of the Plains and Rockies series this volume offers a fine conclusion to the eight volume set and is designed to complement the series The book contains an introduction annotated bibliography reprints appendix listings and index as well as facsimiles and illustrations Printed on acid free paper and bound in maroon linen cloth with foil stamped spine and front cover Issued in an edition of 1000 copies National Waterways ,1929
