National Treasures from Australia's Great Libraries National Library of Australia, 2005 National treasures from Australia's great libraries brings our national memory to life for the first time showcasing more than 170 treasures that have helped define our nation where we come from who we are and what sets us apart Both a guide and a lasting record of a remarkable exhibition this richly illustrated catalogue reveals the magnificent collections of Australia's National State and Territory libraries

The Education of Nomadic Peoples Caroline Dyer, 2006-06-01 Educational provision for nomadic peoples is a highly complex as well as controversial and emotive issue For centuries nomadic peoples educated their children by passing on from generation to generation the socio cultural and economic knowledge required to pursue their traditional occupations But over the last few decades nomadic peoples have had to contend with rapid changes to their ways of life often as a consequence of global patterns of development that are highly unsympathetic to spatially mobile groups The need to provide modern education for nomadic groups is evident and urgent to all those concerned with achieving Education For All yet how they can be included is highly controversial This volume provides a series of international case studies prefaced by a comprehensive literature review and concluding with an end note drawing themes together that sets out key issues in relation to educational services for nomadic groups around the world

Indigenous Peoples and Religious Change Peggy Brock, 2005-05-01 This book explores a range of societies in and around the Pacific and southern Africa in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries that encountered religions introduced from elsewhere or fashioned their own responses to already established religious traditions These changes observed through the responses of the receiving societies indicate that religious change is a creative dynamic rather than a passive acceptance of new ideas beliefs and practices While change is often triggered by the introduction of new understandings it can only become entrenched within a community when it takes on meaning for individuals and becomes embedded within the social and cultural life of the community

Indigenous Participation in Australian Economies II Natasha Fijn, Ian Keen, Christopher Lloyd, Michael Pickering, 2012-07-01 This volume arises out of a conference in Canberra on Indigenous Participation in Australian Economies at the National Museum of Australia on 9-10 November 2009 which attracted more than thirty presenters

Going it Alone? Robert Tonkinson, Michael C. Howard, 1990 Examines the relationship between the government policies of self management and the real experience in Aboriginal communities Takes Aboriginal autonomy as its central theme Includes biographical sketch selected bibliography of anthropologists the Berndts

Social Aesthetics and Moral Judgment Jennifer A. McMahon, 2018-06-13 This edited collection sets forth a new understanding of aesthetic moral judgment organized around three key concepts pleasure reflection and accountability The overarching theme is that art is not merely a representation or expression like any other but that it promotes shared moral understanding and helps us engage in meaning making This volume offers an alternative to brain centric and realist approaches to aesthetics It features original essays from a number of leading philosophers of art aesthetics ethics and perception including Elizabeth Burns Coleman Garrett Cullity Cynthia A Freeland Ivan Gaskell Paul Guyer Jane Kneller Keith Lehrer Mohan Matthen Jennifer A McMahon Bence Nanay Nancy Sherman and Robert Sinnerbrink Part I of the book analyses the elements of aesthetic experience pleasure preference and imagination with the individual conceived as part of a particular cultural context and network of other minds The chapters in Part II explain how it is possible for cultural learning to impact these elements through consensus building an impulse to objectivity emotional expression and reflection Finally the chapters in Part III converge on the role of dissonance difference and diversity in promoting cultural understanding and advancement Social Aesthetics and Moral Judgment will appeal to philosophers of art and aesthetics as well as scholars in other disciplines interested in issues related to art and cultural exchange

Locator William Girdwood, Cherry Girdwood, 2012-01-12 Kaalen Soor Yar the most talented Kye indakind to ever graduate from the training grounds at the Indiannus ocean facility is transported to the Anglo Scots colony world of Caledon on his first assignment Accompanied by his incredibly beautiful companion Amaranth and their three Personal Androids or PALS Sod Gom and Characters they find themselves under attack from an unknown source Amaranth is kidnapped and brutally tortured by the beastial Cromar a minion of the dreaded Foundars Kaalen must not only continue his mission to save his race from extinction by locating the lost races of mankind who have been gone for nearly three thousand years but now he must find and rescue Amaranth and discover why his Kye inda are being systematically destroyed on every planet they locate Aided along the way by some very alien friends and some very able humans he uncovers a nasty plot to wipe out the Creators of Oceanus what once was called Earth

Creativity in Human Evolution and Prehistory Steven Mithen, 2005-08-10 We live in a world surrounded by remarkable cultural achievements of human kind Almost every day we hear of new innovations in technology in medicine and in the arts which remind us that humans are capable of remarkable creativity But what is human creativity The modern world provides a tiny fraction of cultural diversity and the evidence for human creativity far more can be seen by looking back into prehistory The book examines how our understanding of human creativity can be extended by exploring this phenomenon during human evolution and prehistory The book offers unique perspectives on the nature of human creativity from archaeologists who are concerned with long term patterns of cultural change and have access to quite different types of human behaviour than that which exists today It asks whether humans are the only creative species or whether our extinct relatives such as Homo habilis and the Neanderthals also displayed creative thinking It explores what we can learn about the nature of human creativity from cultural developments during prehistory such as changes in the manner in which the dead were buried monuments constructed and the natural world exploited In doing so new light is thrown on these cultural developments and the behaviour of our prehistoric ancestors By examining the nature of creativity during human evolution and prehistory these archaeologists supported by contributions from psychology computer science and social anthropology show that human creativity is a far more diverse and complex phenomena than simply flashes of genius by isolated individuals Indeed they show that unless perspectives from prehistory are taken into account our understanding of human creativity will be limited and incomplete Talk, Text and Technology Inge

Kral,2012-07-26 Talk Text and Technology is an ethnography of language learning and literacy in remote Indigenous Australia This study traces one Indigenous group from the introduction of alphabetic literacy in the 1930s to the recent arrival of digital literacies and new media This innovative work examines changing social cultural and linguistic practices across the generations and addresses the implications for language and literacy socialisation Re-awakening Languages

John Hobson, Kevin Lowe, Susan Poetsch, Michael Walsh, 2018-08-30 The Indigenous languages of Australia have been undergoing a renaissance over recent decades Many languages that had long ceased to be heard in public and consequently deemed dead or extinct have begun to emerge Geographically and linguistically isolated revitalisers of Indigenous Australian languages have often struggled to find guidance for their circumstances unaware of the others walking a similar path In this context Re-awakening Languages seeks to provide the first comprehensive snapshot of the actions and aspirations of Indigenous people and their supporters for the revitalisation of Australian languages in the 21st century The contributions to this volume describe the satisfactions and tensions of this ongoing struggle They also draw attention to the need for effective planning and strong advocacy at the highest political and administrative levels if language revitalisation in Australia is to be successful and people's efforts are to have longevity Languages of Australia's First Peoples in Narrative David

Rose, 2024-08-08 Celebrating the diverse languages of Australia's First Peoples this book presents stories told by elders in eighteen languages from around the continent and explores their patterns of meaning The stories recount the experiences of the tellers and histories of their communities from tales of anti colonial resistance to origin stories of the Dreaming The book aims to make the languages accessible and engaging through the voices of the elders while building readers knowledge about language and language learning It opens with some basic language knowledge for reading the stories Each chapter then begins with the cultural and historical contexts of the stories which are first previewed in English translation then presented sentence by sentence setting out the original sounds and wordings glossed with plain English Extracts are selected to illustrate patterns of meanings that are characteristic of each language The final chapter sums up the various meaning patterns the stories use and interprets their evolution in the light of First Peoples deep histories as recorded by archaeology and traditional knowledge The book will be useful for language learning programs in communities and schools for researchers of language and language teaching and for any reader with an interest in the languages and cultures of Australia's First Peoples Sense of Place, Identity and the Revisioning of Curriculum Terry Locke, 2023-08-12 This book explores intersections between sense of place the formation of identity indigeneity and colonisation literature and literary study the arts and a revisioned school curriculum for the Anthropocene Underpinning the book is a conviction that sense of place is central to the fostering of the change of heart required to secure the survival of human life on earth It offers a coherent

overview of seemingly disparate realities on a geographically and historically sprawling canvas The book is a work of literary non fiction drawing on a range of sources literary works and criticism theoretical research empirical studies and artworks Of its very nature the book enacts an extensive cultural critique After establishing a cross disciplinary foundation for sense of place the book describes its relationship to identity with reference to such terms as attachment dispossession reclamation and representation It shows how a hopeful narrative for planet stewardship can be developed by the uptake of indigenous and traditional discourses of place It concludes with the envisioning of a place conscious curriculum and ways in which an activist agenda might be pursued in the Anthropocene

Desert Dreamers Barbara Glowczewski, 2016-03-01 In the heart of Australia on the cracked red earth among wild vegetation weathered bush and dried up creeks hundreds of invisible pathways exist that become entangled on the earth's surface underground and in the sky clouds and wind The Aboriginal people call them Jukurrpa the Dreamings This web is the Warlpiri land Practicing the Dreaming by ritual art is for the Warlpiri a way to reactivate their ancestral traditions to connect with the cosmos and respond to current social and political issues In 1979 anthropologist Barbara Glowczewski embarked on a journey to study the Warlpiri in the Australian outback Struggling at once to maintain their traditions and cultural heritage as well as adapting to the continuing secularization and techno progress of their European Australian counterparts she takes us into the landscape artistic rituals and turmoil of the Warlpiri over three decades Becoming accepted among Aboriginal families as a translator and at the same time a negotiator of two vastly different visions of the earth contemporary Western culture and the ancient indigenous dreaming culture Glowczewski created a singular document of ethnological fieldwork and of self transformation and discovery

Entangled Territorialities Francoise Dussart, Sylvie Poirier, 2017-04-24 Entangled Territorialities offers vivid ethnographic examples of how Indigenous lands in Australia and Canada are tangled with governments industries and mainstream society Most of the entangled lands to which Indigenous peoples are connected have been physically transformed and their ecological balance destroyed Each chapter in this volume refers to specific circumstances in which Indigenous peoples have become intertwined with non Aboriginal institutions and projects including the construction of hydroelectric dams and open mining pits Long after the agents of resource extraction have abandoned these lands to their fate Indigenous peoples will continue to claim ancestral ties and responsibilities that cannot be understood by agents of capitalism The editors and contributors to this volume develop an anthropology of entanglement to further examine the larger debates about the vexed relationships between settlers and indigenous peoples over the meaning knowledge and management of traditionally owned lands

Unmaking Angas Downs Shannyn Palmer, 2022-08-30 Some stories dominate how we see and interpret a place while others are obscured from view Angas Downs is a pastoral station in Central Australia but pastoralism is only a fraction of what has happened there Like all places it has accrued people and stories in multiple layers over time Listening to Tjuki Tjukanku Pumpjack and Sandra Armstrong two Anangu with deep and abiding connections to Angas Downs a very different kind of place emerges from that conjured in myths and histories of pioneers and pastoralists that have shaped understandings of the past in Australia particularly in the Northern Territory Unmaking Angas Downs traces a history of colonisation in Central Australia by tracking the rise and demise of a rural enterprise across half a century as well as the complex and creative practices that transformed a cattle station into Country It grapples with the question of how people experience profound dislocation and come to make a place for themselves in the wake of rupture Angas Downs emerges as a place of dynamic interaction and social life not only lived in but also made by Anangu Shared Space: Divided Space

Michael Chisholm, David M. Smith, 2016-01-29 This specially commissioned volume of original essays first published in 1990 provides a unique view of conflict territorial behaviour and reconciliation between groups social racial religious and nationalist within states in both the developed and the developing worlds The volume as a whole shows the wide range of geographical solutions which have been adopted in attempts to limit conflict and foster stability This title underlines the importance of a geographical perspective on intergroup conflict and reconciliation and provides a broad range of real world experience in carefully chosen case studies Shared Space Divided Space will be of interest students of the social sciences as well as to general readers who will find this title to be accessible and authoritative Senses Regina Bendix, Donald Brenneis, 2005 The essays in this volume present deeply contextualized cases of sensory experience They link senses to each other and to event sentiment emplacement identity and the ongoing shaping of social life In doing so they make a strong Joint case for the importance of taking the senses seriously not in isolation but as integral elements of culture and interaction

Indigenous Futures Tim Rowse, 2002 In the public debate about the success or failure of Australia's Indigenous policies opinions have been grounded more often in personal experience than in social scientists research This work asks What vision of the good life should guide an assessment of policy Reading the Bible in Australia Deborah R. Storie, Barbara

Deutschmann, Michelle Eastwood, 2024-01-03 Reading the Bible in Australia invites reflection about how the Bible matters to Australia Contributors probe intersections between vital debates about Australian identity who we have been are and aspire to become and the Bible bringing a range of perspectives to critical themes indigeneity colonization and migration landscape biodiversity and climate gender and marginality economics ideology and rhetoric Each chapter explores the past and present influence of a biblical text or theme Some offer fresh contextually and ethically informed readings All interrogate the wider outcomes of reading the Bible in different ways Given the tragic consequences of how it has been used historically and sometimes still is some Australians would exclude the Bible and its interpreters from public debate Yet as Meredith Lake's The Bible in Australia demonstrates a degree of biblical literacy along with critical skill in evaluating how the Bible has been taken up and interpreted in our history can only help Australians grapple well with the choices Australia faces Love it or hate it there is no getting around the reality that the Bible and how it is read still matters Medical Journal of Australia, 1990
